Private Letters Of The Marque Dalhousie:

The Life of the Marquis of Dalhousie, K. T.: Childhood and education ; Waiting for office ; Public office in England ; The Governor-General in Council ; The Punjab Revolt ; The second Sikh war ; The annexation of the Punjab ; The first grand tour ; Official controversy with Sir Charles Napier ; The second tour of the Punjab ; Return to Calcutta ; Hostilities with Burma Sir William Lee-Warner,1904 The Bookman ,1910 The Insecurity State Mark Condos,2017-08-03 A provocative examination of how the British colonial experience in India was shaped by chronic unease anxiety and insecurity UNDER THE BANYAN TREE MONABI MITRA and SOUMEN MITRA,2024-05-27 This book documents the history of Government House and Barrackpore Park along with a photographic series of its present day restoration Arrow of the Blue-skinned God Jonah Blank,2000 Anthropologist and journalist Blank gives a new perspective to the 3 000 year old Hindu classic retelling the ancient tale while following the course of Rama s journey through present day India and Sri Lanka Imperial Boredom Jeffrey A. Auerbach,2018-09-26 Imperial Boredom offers a radical reconsideration of the British Empire during its heyday in the nineteenth century Challenging the long established view that the empire was about adventure and excitement with heroic men and intrepid women eagerly spreading commerce and civilization around the globe this thoroughly researched engagingly written and lavishly illustrated account suggests instead that boredom was central to the experience of empire Combining individual stories of pain and perseverance with broader analysis Professor Auerbach considers what it was actually like to sail to Australia to serve as a soldier in South Africa or to accompany a colonial official to the hill stations of India He reveals that for numerous men and women from explorers to governors tourists to settlers the Victorian Empire was dull and disappointing Drawing on diaries letters memoirs and travelogues Imperial Boredom demonstrates that all across the empire men and women found the landscapes monotonous the physical and psychological distance from home debilitating the routines of everyday life wearisome and their work tedious and unfulfilling The empires early years may have been about wonder and marvel but the Victorian Empire was a far less exciting project Many books about the British Empire focus on what happened this book concentrates on how people felt Montrose and the Covenanters, Their Characters and Conduct, Illustrated from Private Letters and Other Original Documents Hitherto Unpublished, Embracing the Times of Charles the First, from the Rise of the Troubles in Scotland, to the Death of Montrose Mark Napier (Historian.),1838 Empire Forestry and the Origins of Environmentalism Gregory Allen Barton,2002-10-17 What we now know of as environmentalism began with the establishment of the first empire forest in 1855 in British India and during the second half of the nineteenth century over ten per cent of the land surface of the earth became protected as a public trust Sprawling forest reservations many of them larger than modern nations became revenue producing forests that protected the whole household of nature and Rudyard Kipling and Theodore Roosevelt were among those who celebrated a new class of government foresters as public heroes

Imperial foresters warned of impending catastrophe desertification and global climate change if the reverse process of deforestation continued The empire forestry movement spread through India Africa Australia New Zealand Canada and then the United States to other parts of the globe and Gregory Barton s study looks at the origins of environmentalism in a global perspective The Administration of Mysore Under Sir Mark Cubbon (1834-1861) Kasi Nageswara Venkatasubba Sastri,1932 The Letters of Rudyard Kipling Rudyard Kipling,1990 The most popular author of his day and a paradox who was both an assertive British imperialist and a man of sensitivity and wide reading Rudyard Kipling is best remembered now as the author of The Jungle Book the Just So Stories and Kim Fully annotated volumes 5 and 6 conclude the publication of Kipling s letters a heroic effort that began with the publication of volume 1 in 1990 Britain's Imperial Muse C. Hagerman,2013-04-16 Britain s Imperial Muse explores the classics contribution to British imperialism and to the experience of empire in India through the long 19th century It reveals the classics role as a foundational source for positive conceptions of empire and a rhetorical arsenal used by commentators to justify conquest and domination especially of India The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1883 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1887 Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1910 Reader's Guide to British History David Loades,2020-12-17 The Reader sGuide to British History is the essential source to secondary material on British history This resource contains over 1 000 A Z entries on the history of Britain from ancient and Roman Britain to the present day Each entry lists 6 12 of the best known books on the subject then discusses those works in an essay of 800 to 1 000 words prepared by an expert in the field The essays provide advice on the range and depth of coverage as well as the emphasis and point of view espoused in each publication Pan-Islam in British Indian Politics M. Naeem Qureshi,1999 This book deals with the Khilafat movement 1918 1924 in British India which aimed at mobilizing pan Islam for saving Ottoman Turkey from dismemberment and securing political reforms for India It also examines the gradual transition of Muslim politics from pan Islam to territorial nationalism Homemaking Anindya Raychaudhuri,2018-10-19 Is it possible to think of a counter hegemonic progressive nostalgia that celebrates and helps sustain the marginalised What might such a nostalgia look like and what political importance might it have Homemaking Radical Nostalgia and the Construction of a South Asian Diaspora examines diasporic life in south Asian communities in Europe North America and Australia to map the ways in which members of these communities use nostalgia to construct distinctive identities Using a series of examples from literature cinema visual art music computer games mainstream media physical and virtual spaces and many other cultural objects this book argues that it is possible and necessary to read this nostalgia as helping to create a powerful notion of home that can help to transcend international relations of empire and capital and create instead a pan national space of belonging This homemaking represents the persistent search for somewhere to belong on one s own terms Constructed through word image and music preserved through dreams and imagination the home provides sustenance in the continuing struggle to change the present and the future for the better The Bookseller ,1912 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1910 The Indian Empire R. Montgomery Martin,2023-04-22 Reprint of the original first published in 1858
