Private Lives Of Victorian Women Autobiography In Nineteenth Century England:

The Private Lives of Victorian Women Valerie Sanders, 1989 Women and Literature in Britain 1800-1900 Joanne Shattock, 2001-08-30 These new essays by leading scholars explore nineteenth century women s writing across a spectrum of genres The book s focus is on women s role in and access to literary culture in the broadest sense as consumers and interpreters as well as practitioners of that culture Individual chapters consider women as journalists editors translators scholars actresses playwrights autobiographers biographers writers for children and religious writers as well as novelists and poets A unique chronology offers a woman centered perspective on literary and historical events and there is a guide to Women's Life Writing, 1700-1850 D. Cook, A. Culley, 2016-04-13 This collection discusses British and Irish further reading life writings by women in the period 1700 1850 It argues for the importance of women's life writing as part of the culture and practice of eighteenth century and Romantic auto biography exploring the complex relationships between constructions of femininity life writing forms and models of authorship British Women's Life Writing, 1760-1840 A. Culley, 2014-07-22 British Women's Life Writing 1760 1840 brings together for the first time a wide range of print and manuscript sources to demonstrate women s innovative approach to self representation It examines canonical writers such as Mary Wollstonecraft The Cambridge Companion to Victorian Women's Writing Mary Robinson and Helen Maria Williams amongst others Linda H. Peterson, 2015-10-15 Innovative and comprehensive coverage of women writers careers and literary achievements spanning many literary genres during the Victorian period Women's Literary Networks and Romanticism Andrew O. Winckles, Angela Rehbein, 2017-12-12 The eighteenth century witnessed the rapid expansion of literary networks in Britain yet we still lack a complex understanding of how these networks functioned particularly for women This volume addresses this gap arguing that networks not only provided women with access to the literary marketplace but altered their relations to each other their literary production and the broader social sphere The 'scandalous Memoirists' Lynda M. Thompson, 2000 Thompson presents a re appraisal of the scandalous memoirists Costantia Phillips and Laetitia Pilkington who feature with a cast of other 18th century apologists and overturns scholarship's traditional discrediting of them Women and the Autobiographical Impulse Barbara Caine, 2023-09-07 Forming a critical introduction to the history of women's autobiography from the mid 18th century to the present this book analyses the most important changes in women s autobiography exploring their motivation context style and the role of life experiences Caine effortlessly segues across three centuries of history from the emergence of the modern autobiography in the 18th century which laid bare the scandalous lives of fallen women to the literary and suffragist autobiographies of the 19th century to the establishment of feminist publishers in the 20th century and the taboo shattering autobiographies they produced The result is a much needed history one which provides a different way of thinking about the trajectory of genre information Caine's compelling study fills an important gap in the genre of autobiography by embracing a wide range of women and offering an extensive discussion of the autobiographies of women across the 19th and 20th centuries making it ideal for classroom use Prepared for the Twentieth-Century? The Life of Emily Bonnycastle Mayne (Aimée) 1872-1958 Michael Armstrong Crouch, 2015-11-25 Aimee Mayne was born into a life of apparent privilege and opportunity However as a woman born in 1872 and living through the first half of the twentieth century these opportunities were severely limited by law culture and tradition This story is of a woman of the British upper middle class whose life was full of colour of living in India of family relationships of travel of the Blitz She kept diaries and wrote an intimate memoir This book explores her emotional conflicts with a revealing analysis that includes revelations about a woman brought up in the late Victorian period encompassing her sex life and the turmoil of an unhappy marriage It is a study of a life that identifies how an upper middle class upbringing that included an attempted tertiary education at a time when this was unheard of for most women induced her into a marriage and life style that was the antithesis of her early aspirations Her life was to engender a sense of grievance that embittered relations with her family While she took advantage of her travels to undertake a successful lecturing career personal fulfilment was only to be found at the end of her life during the London Blitz in World War Two Time, Space, and Gender in the Nineteenth-Century British Diary R. Steinitz, 2011-10-24 Through close examinations of diaries diary publication and diaries in fiction this book explores how the diary s construction of time and space made it an invaluable and effective vehicle for the dominant discourses of the period it also explains how the genre evolved into the feminine emotive private form we continue to privilege today Female Artistic Labour, 1848-1890 Patricia Zakreski, 2016-12-05 Patricia Zakreski s interdisciplinary study draws on fiction prose painting and the periodical press to expand and redefine our understanding of women's relationship to paid work during the Victorian period While the idea of separate spheres has largely gone uncontested by feminist critics studying female labour during the nineteenth century Zakreski challenges this distinction by showing that the divisions between public and private were in fact surprisingly flexible with homes described as workplaces and workplaces as homes By combining art with forms of industrial or mass production in representations of the respectable woman worker writers projected a form of paid creative work that was not violated or profaned by the public world of the market in which it was traded Looking specifically at sewing art writing and acting Zakreski shows how these professions increasingly came to be defined as artistic and thus as suitable professions for middle class women and argues that the supposedly degrading activity of paid work could be transformed into a refining experience for women Rather than consigning working women to the margins of patriarchal culture then her study shows how representations of creative women by authors such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning Dinah Craik Charles Dickens Anthony Trollope and Charlotte Yonge participated in and shaped new forms of mainstream culture This Woman in Particular Stephanie Kirkwood Walker, 2010-01-27 What happens when an individual becomes the subject of many and divergent portraits Biography says Stephanie Kirkwood Walker is a deceptive genre Positioned between fact and fiction and elusive in its purposes biography displays an individual life an existence patterned by conventions that have also shaped the reader's experience In This Woman in Particular Walker explores versions of Emily Carr's life that have appeared over the last half century Walker contends that the biographical image of Emily Carr that emerges from an accumulation of biographies films plays and poetry as well as her own autobiographical writing establishes an elaborated cultural artefact an image that is bound by its very nature to remain forever incomplete and always elusive She demonstrates how changes in Carr's biographical image parallel the maturing of Canadian biographical writing reflecting attitudes toward women artists and the shifting balance between religion secular attitudes and contemporary spirituality And she concludes that biography plays a crucial role in all our lives in initiating and sustaining debate on vital personal and collective concerns Matters of the Heart Fay Bound Alberti, 2010-01-14 The heart is the most symbolic organ of the human body Across cultures it is seen as the site of emotions as well as the origin of life This book traces the ways emotions have been understood between the 17th and 19th centuries as both physical entities and spiritual experiences Merely Being There Is Not Enough Heike Mlakar, 2008 Despite the advent of second wave feminism in the late 1960s it took more than twenty years before feminist literary criticism started to pay attention to the complex role of women Beat writers Merely Being There Is Not Enough theorizes the memoirs of Diane di Prima Joyce Johnson Hettie Jones and Brenda Frazer and analyzes their contributions to the Beat movement Among the writings of female Beat authors the memoir has become the most commonly used literary genre At the height of the Beat movement Frazer published Troia Mexican Memoirs in 1969 the same year that saw the publication of di Prima's Memoirs of a Beatnik Most female Beat voices however remained astonishingly silent until 1983 when Johnson published Minor Characters A Young Woman's Coming of Age in the Beat Generation Johnson's long time friend Jones followed with How I Became Hettie Jones in 1990 The memoirs of Beat women chronicle the Beat 1950s and the intimate relationships with icons of the time Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka and Ray Bremser Being there at a crucial moment in history validates female Beats stories as indispensable social documents of the 1950s To make women Beat writers visible and to categorize their memoirs this work immerses in the almost paradoxical project of defining a category of female Beat writing when it is the nature of Beat literature and its rebellious aesthetics to dismiss any kind of labeling Women Beats unsettle the categories of Beat writing and culture Therefore a revision and re examination of Beat history is inevitable to understand the movement s literary Dressing up for War, 2021-11-22 From the contents Laurie KAPLAN How funny I must look with my expression breeches pulled down to my knees nurses memoirs and autobiographies from the Great war Peter BUITENHUIS The perversion of motherhood the trope of the son at the front Renate PETERS The metamorphoses of Judith in literature and art war by other means Lorrie GOLDENSOHN Towards a non combatant war poetry Jarrell Moore Bishop Odd women?
