Race Culture And Difference:

Race, Culture and Difference James Donald, Ali Rattansi, 1992-04-21 Considers the debates over race and its meanings in contemporary society and in educational and social policy Linking with feminist post structuralist and post modernist concerns this text examines the contribution of ideas such as ethnicity community identity and difference 'Race',

Culture and the Right to the City Gareth Millington, 2011-10-27 Adopting a perspective inspired by Henri Lefebvre this book considers the spread of multiculturalism from the central city to the periphery and considers the role that race continues to play in structuring the metropolis taking London New York and Paris as examples Race, Culture and Psychotherapy

Roy Moodley, Stephen Palmer, 2014-05-12 What is multicultural psychotherapy How do we integrate issues of gender class and sexual orientation in multicultural psychotherapy Race Culture and Psychotherapy provides a thorough critical examination of contemporary multiculturalism and culturalism including discussion of the full range of issues debates and controversies that are emerging in the field of multicultural psychotherapy Beginning with a general critique of race culture and ethnicity the book explores issues such as the notion of interiority and exteriority in psychotherapy racism in the clinical room race and countertransference conflicts spirituality and traditional healing issues Contributors from the United States Britain and Canada draw on their professional experience to provide comprehensive and balanced coverage of the following subjects critical perspectives in race and culture in psychotherapy governing race in the transference racism ethnicity and countertransference intersecting gender race class and sexual orientation spirituality cultural healing and psychotherapy future directions Race Culture and Psychotherapy will be of interest not only to practicing psychotherapists but also to students and researchers in the field of mental health and anyone interested in gaining a better understanding of psychotherapy in a multicultural society Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory Mike Cole, Dave Hill, Peter McLaren, 2002-12-11 Postmodernism has become the orthodoxy in educational theory It heralds the end of grand theories like Marxism and liberalism scorning any notion of a united feminist challenge to patriarchy of united anti racist struggle and of united working class movements against capitalist exploitation and oppression For postmodernists the world is fragmented history is ended and all struggles are local and particularistic Written by internationally renowned British and American educational theorists Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory a substantially revised edition of the original 1999 work Postmodernism in Educational Theory critically examines the infusion of postmodernism and theories of postmodernity into educational theory policy and research The writers argue that postmodernism provides neither a viable educational politics nor the foundation for effective radical educational practice and offer an alternative politics of human resistance which puts the challenge to capitalism firmly on the agenda of educational theory politics and practice

Racialization and Religion Nasar Meer, 2013 Transnational Lives and the Media O. Bailey, M. Georgiou, R. Harindranath, 2007-07-31 This collection offers a comprehensive account of the relation between diaspora and media cultures

It analyses the politics of transnational communication the consumption of media by diasporic communities and the views of non governmental organizations on issues of the participation and representation of ethnic minorities in the media Le Malaise Creole Rosabelle Boswell,2006-08-01 How does one explain the poverty and marginalization of a group that lives in a remarkably successful economy and peaceful society A native anthropologist the author provides critical insight into the dynamics of contemporary Mauritian society In her meticulously researched study of ethnic gender and racial discrimination in Mauritius she addresses debates carried out in many developing societies on subaltern identities ethnicity poverty and social injustice The book therefore also offers important empirical material for scholars interested in the wider Indian Ocean region and beyond Securitized Citizens Baljit Nagra,2017-01-01 In Securitized Citizens Baljit Nagra develops a new critical analysis of the ideas dominant groups and institutions try to impose on young Canadian Muslims and how in turn they contest and reconceptualize these ideas Cartographies of Diaspora Avtar Brah,2005-08-18 By addressing questions of culture identity and politics Cartographies of Diaspora throws new light on discussions about difference and diversity informed by feminism and post structuralism It examines these themes by exploring the intersections of race gender class sexuality ethnicity generation and nationalism in different discourses practices and political contexts The first three chapters map the emergence of Asian as a racialized category in post war British popular and political discourse and state practices It documents Asian cultural and political responses paying particular attention to the role of gender and generation The remaining six chapters analyse the debate on difference diversity and diaspora across different sites but mainly within feminism anti racism and post structuralism International Migration in the New Millennium Danièle Joly,2017-03-02 International migration is an issue of enduring interest and debate as strong as ever in the 21st century This in depth global examination proposes a balance sheet of international migration and highlights its consequences regarding migrant populations at the turn of the century It draws together theoretical studies supported by empirical examples and derives from quantitative as well as qualitative research Assessing the major existing models within the theory of international migration the contributors continue to examine a variety of key themes including increased flows of female migration the meaning and relationship between identity ethnicity and diaspora return migration and the complex problem of reintegration The volume also establishes a typology of refugees and examines the different domains of ethnicity and racism A valuable volume for all those interested in migration population settlement and transnational communities it addresses all the major issues of international migration in the new millennium Women, Football and Europe Sheila Scraton,Jonathan Magee,2008-02 It is undeniable that Association football is a global game with huge popularity Yet what is known as women s football receives far less support financial assistance media coverage and academic attention than the men s game Consequently the story of women s football remains largely untold and its potential as a sports related discussion is yet to be fulfilled Women Football and Europe is a collection of essays that contributes new knowledge on women s football Volume 1 deals with historical aspects of the game equality issues and the experiences of those involved while volume 2 looks at individual topics such as the 2005 UEFA Women's Championships the pressures and constraints on female coaches and the key issues affecting the development of the women's game in England and Europe Sight, Sound and Text in the History of Education Jody Crutchley, Stephen Parker, Siân Roberts, 2020-06-29 This volume contributes to the study of new sonic and visual sources and their intertextual relationship with the documentary as well as traditional understandings of text in the history of education It both presents case studies of research and points to new avenues of further research This volume arose from a joint conference of the History of Education Society UK and the Australian and New Zealand History of Education Society held in 2016 on the theme sight sound and text in the history of education The conference drew together educational and media historians as well as archivists and museum professionals to examine methodological issues and a range of examples of sensory and textual histories The event from which this book arose showed that there is so much more to consider in this area This book was originally published as a special issue of History of Education Walls and Mirrors David G. Gutiérrez, 1995-03-27 Covering more than one hundred years of American history Walls and Mirrors examines the ways that continuous immigration from Mexico transformed and continues to shape the political social and cultural life of the American Southwest Taking a fresh approach to one of the most divisive political issues of our time David Gutiérrez explores the ways that nearly a century of steady immigration from Mexico has shaped ethnic politics in California and Texas the two largest U.S. border states Drawing on an extensive body of primary and secondary sources Gutiérrez focuses on the complex ways that their pattern of immigration influenced Mexican Americans sense of social and cultural identity and as a consequence their politics He challenges the most cherished American myths about U.S. immigration policy pointing out that contrary to rhetoric about alien invasions U.S. government and regional business interests have actively recruited Mexican and other foreign workers for over a century thus helping to establish and perpetuate the flow of immigrants into the United States In addition Gutiérrez offers a new interpretation of the debate over assimilation and multiculturalism in American society Rejecting the notion of the melting pot he explores the ways that ethnic Mexicans have resisted assimilation and fought to create a cultural space for themselves in distinctive ethnic communities throughout the southwestern United States

Understanding Masculinities Mac an Ghaill, Mairtin, 1996-03-01 Masculinity is gaining increasing popular and academic interest At one level football hooligans absent fathers Essex man and new men are regular media presences At the same time masculinity is the subject of increasingly sophisticated theoretical discussion and there are a wide range of accounts of what masculinity means Understanding Masculinities is the first introductory text to examine the range of different theoretical and methodological approaches to the understanding of masculinity It brings together overviews of the key theoretical debates with new empirical material focusing on different social and cultural arenas and the wide range of masculinities which exist It discusses education unemployment sport sexuality HIV and black masculinities Understanding

Masculinities critically explores the gendered and sexual dynamics of these masculinities challenging and transforming our conventional assumptions Understanding Masculinities will be important reading for undergraduate and masters students of sociology women s studies gender and psychology It will also be of interest to anyone concerned with broadening their understanding of masculinity

What is Africanness? Contesting nativism in race, culture and sexualities Charles Ngwena, 2018-01-01 What is Africanness Contesting nativism in race culture and sexualities by Charles Ngwena 2018 ISBN 978 1 920538 82 8 Pages 306 Print version Available Electronic version Free PDF available About the publication What is Africanness Contesting nativism in culture race and sexualities by Charles Ngwena Professor of Law at the Centre for Human Rights Faculty of Law University of Pretoria is a peer reviewed monograph aiming to contribute to the ongoing scholarly conversation in and beyond South Africa about who is African and what is African It aims to implicate a reductive sameness in the naming of Africans nativism by showing its teleology and effects and offers an alternative understanding of how Africans can be named or can name themselves The book develops an epistemology for constructing the hermeneutics of Africanness today long after the primal colonial moment and its debasing racialising ideology It interrogates the making of Africa in colonial discourses and the making of an African race and African culture s and sexuality ies in ways that are not just historically conscious but also have a heuristic capacity to contest nativism from the outside as well as from within The arguments in this book go beyond problematising African identity by addressing an existential gap in theory for explicating African social identity The book develops an interpretive method a hermeneutics for locating and deciphering African identifications in ways that are historically conscious and conjunctural The hermeneutics look to the present and the future in addition to the past so that African identifications are not nailed to a mast but remain invested with mobility and the capacity to mutate radically and make new and unexpected beginnings

Comments Charles Ngwena s timely and original book is a wonderful read rich in theory and insight and an essential companion for those interested in exploring the multiplicity of histories cultures and subjectivities that constitute the diversity of Africanness and African identities Professor Cathi Albertyn School of Law University of the Witwatersrand Editor South African Journal on Human Rights This is a brilliant exploration of liberating and affirming ways to speak of African identities and sexualities reminding us there can be creative beauty where pain and dispossession have resided Rudo Chigudu Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria This is a masterpiece Not only does the author capture the discourse and debates on Africanness he aptly examines them before offering his views on decentring the race of Africanness with the important recognition of Africa as land of diverse identifications Prof Serges Djoyou Kamga Thabo Mbeki African Leadership Institute UNISA

Scandalous Bodies Smaro Kamboureli,2011-04-07 Scandalous Bodies is an impassioned scholarly study both of literature

by diasporic writers and of the contexts within which it is produced It explores topics ranging from the Canadian government's multiculturalism policy to media representations of so called minority groups from the relationship between realist fiction and history to postmodern constructions of ethnicity from the multicultural theory of the philosopher Charles Taylor to the cultural responsibilities of diasporic critics such as Kamboureli herself Smaro Kamboureli proposes no neat or comforting solutions to the problems she addresses Rather than adhere to a single method of reading or make her argument follow a systematic approach she lets the texts and the socio cultural contexts she examines give shape to her reading In fact methodological issues and the need to revisit them become a leitmotif in the book Theoretically rigorous and historically situated this study also engages with close reading not the kind that views a text as a sovereign world but one that opens the text in order to reveal the method of its making Her practice of what she calls negative pedagogy a self reflexive method of learning and unlearning of decoding the means through which knowledge is produced allows her to avoid the pitfalls of constructing a narrative of progress Her critique of Canadian multiculturalism as a policy that advocates what she calls sedative politics and of the epistemologies of ethnicity that have shaped for example the first wave of ethnic anthologies in Canada are the backdrop against which she examines the various discourses that inform the diasporic experience in Canada

Scandalous Bodies was first published in 2000 and received the Gabrielle Roy Prize for Canadian Criticism

The Asian Gang Revisited Claire E. Alexander, 2024-01-11 In her groundbreaking ethnography The Asian Gang published in 2000 Claire Alexander explored the creation of Asian Muslim masculinities in South London Set against the backdrop of the moral panic over Asian gangs in the mid 1990s and based on 5 years of ethnographic fieldwork the book explored the idea of the gang friendships and the role of brothers in the formation performance and negotiation of ethnic religious and gendered identities The Asian Gang Revisited picks up the story of the Asian gang over the subsequent two decades examining the changing identities of the original participants as they transition into adulthood in the context of increased public and political concerns over Muslim masculinities spanning the War on Terror grooming gangs and increased Islamophobia Building on her ongoing relationships with the men over 25 years the book explores education employment friendship marriage and fatherhood and religious identity and examines both the changes and the continuities that have shaped this group It traces the lives of its participants from their teenage years through to their early mid 40s A unique longitudinal study of this small diverse but still close cohort of men the book offers an intimate rich and textured account of what it means to be a Muslim man in contemporary Britain
