Science Fiction Serials Roy Kinnard, 2015-08-13 Destination Moon George Pal s 1950 Technicolor epic is generally cited as the first noteworthy science fiction film Usually ignored or casually dismissed in genre histories are the serials the low budget chapterplays exhibited as Saturday matinee fare and targeted almost exclusively at children Lacking stars and top notch writers or directors the serials went largely unnoticed and unacknowledged by either critics or by the film industry Yet serials were financially important to the Hollywood studios and were often free to exploit risky or outlandish subjects that producers of distinguished movies would not touch Influential serials such as The Phantom Empire 1935 and Flash Gordon 1936 finally brought science fiction themes to the big screen. Filmmakers employ various images to suggest the strangeness of outer space but protective spacesuits most powerfully communicate its dangers and the frailty of humans beyond the cradle of Earth. Many films set in space however forgo spacesuits altogether reluctant to hide famous faces behind bulky helmets and ill fitting jumpsuits. This critical history comprehensively examines science fiction films that portray space travel realistically and sometimes not quite so by having characters wear spacesuits. Beginning A with the pioneering Himmelskibet 1918 and Woman on the Moon 1929 it discusses B other classics in this tradition including Destination Moon 1950 Riders to the Stars 1954 and 2001 A Space Odyssey 1968 C films that gesture toward realism but betray that goal with melodramatic villains low comedy or improbable monsters D the distinctive spacesuit films of Western Europe Russia and Japan and E America s spectacular real life spacesuit film the televised Apollo 11 moon landing 1969 Movie Monsters in Scale Mark C.

REFLECTIONS OF A "B"- MOVIE JUNKIE Jim Driscoll, 2008-12-30 Reflections Of A B Movie Junkie is a tribute to the old B Movies of the Saturday Matinees of yesteryear Actually it is more of a homage to them or at least 6 genres of those film types that were so prevalent back in primarily the 40 s and 50 s Their research and discussion however in some instances dates all the way back to the beginning of the talkies of motion picture content and can extend in the other direction into the early 70s These 6 genres include the popular B Western The Comedy Teams The Jungle Adventures Sci Fi Fantasy Horror and the Serial or Chapter Plays so popular with the week end Matinee crowds back then These film types filled up our Saturday afternoons and evenings with exciting adventure curious wonder spine tingling horror and non stop action Often filmed on a shoe string budget and in a limited time frame many of these classics came to be looked upon by many fans as being so truly bad that they were good in a bad sort of way They are thus categorized reviewed and discussed for the most part in a lovingly personal style especially when compared to the film types we are subjected to in today s market They had their place in film history and that time is long since gone But for some of us they have never been equaled which for others may indeed be a good thing

Television Series of the 1950s Vincent Terrace,2016-05-16 Often regarded as the first golden era of television the 1950s was a decade when many classic programs from I Love Lucy and Gunsmoke to The Honeymooners and Perry Mason among others made their debuts Even after these shows departed the airwaves they lived on in syndication entertaining several generations of viewers Devoted and casual fans alike can probably remember basic facts about these shows like the names of Lucy and Ricky s neighbors or the town where Marshall Matt Dillon kept the law But more elusive facts like the location of the most successful defense attorney in Los Angeles Suite 904 of the Brent Building might be harder to recall In Television Series of the 1950s Essential Facts and Quirky Details Vincent Terrace presents readers with a cornucopia of information about 100 programs from the decade Did you know for example that the middle initial of Dobie Gillis friend Maynard G Krebs stood for Walter Or that Ralph Kramden s electric bill came to only 39 cents a month Or that on I Love Lucy Ricky originally performed at Manhattan s Tropicana Club These are but a few of the hundreds of fun and intriguing trivia facts contained within this volume Shows from all four networks ABC CBS NBC and DuMont as well as select syndicated programs are represented here This is not a book of opinions or essays about specific television programs but a treasure trove of the facts associated with each of these programs Readers will discover a wealth of fascinating information that for the most part cannot be found anywhere else In some cases the factual data detailed herein is the only such documentation that exists currently on bygone shows of the era Television Series of the 1950s is the ideal reference for fans of this decade and anyone looking to stump even the most knowledgeable trivia expert
