Rocks Life In Early Sydney:

Rocks Grace Karskens,2013-04-18 The Rocks is Sydney s earliest surviving neighbourhood Grace Karskens builds up a vivid picture of the lives of its earliest white inhabitants A wealth of historical documents pictures maps and archaeological evidence allows her to recover the words and gestures tastes and habits aspirations and fears of the dealers publicans labourers artisans watermen washerwomen servants and prostitutes who lived there What sort of town did these people make What did it look like How did they treat their neighbours And what of other human relations how did men and women behave sexually What did they think was moral behaviour What were their marriages like How did they bring up their children Grace Karskens shows it was a place very different from the usual images of a brutal gaol colony it was rather a preindustrial town a face to face society marked more by movement and opportunity dialogue and negotiation than by coercion discipline and punishment

The Art of Time Travel Tom Griffiths,2017-07-03 No matter how practised we are at history it always humbles us No matter how often we visit the past it always surprises us Winner of the Ernest Scott Prize and shortlisted for the NSW Premier s Literary Award for Non fiction A rare feat of imagination and generosity Mark McKenna With every sentence they write historians must walk the tightrope between discipline and imagination empathy and evidence In this landmark work eminent historian and award winning author Tom Griffiths shares his passion for the fascinating complex craft of history or as he calls it the art of time travel In fourteen portraits Griffiths illuminates how historians such as Inga Clendinnen Judith Wright Geoffrey Blainey and Henry Reynolds have approached their craft In prose both earthy and elegant he shows the new insights they have brought to Australian history and in so doing reshapes our shared knowledge of this continent The Art of Time Travel is an exhilarating book that will forever change the way you think of Australia s past If the past is a foreign country Tom Griffiths makes the perfect travelling companion Let him be your eyes and ears on our shared history Most of all follow his heart Clare Wright

Chiselled Horizons: A Multi-Cultural Approach to Visual Literacy Taina Brown,Alejandro Mises Castellanos,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Shaping visual literacy has been at the forefront of contemporary discourse as images have increasingly surpassed words in becoming the primary vehicles to persuade our emotions Visually encoded domains of symbols and signs inform the educational public and entertainment industries increasingly as an undifferentiated whole aided by globalizing media forces in various forms Whether top down peer peer one to many or many to many this volume attempts to derive sets of rules used to visually decode patterns present in certain media formats press cinema television and maps among others and the place of the spectator in their respective dynamics The topics discussed transition through various approaches to deconstruct mass media influences to engage critical thinking skills and ending with a collection of chapters dedicated to exploring their effects upon children and the capacity to be implemented to foster collaboration based creative learning environments

Archaeology of Australia Since 1788 Susan Lawrence, Peter Davies, 2010-10-21 This volume provides an important new synthesis of archaeological work carried out in Australia on the post contact period It draws on dozens of case studies from a wide geographical and temporal span to explore the daily life of Australians in settings such as convict stations goldfields whalers camps farms pastoral estates and urban neighbourhoods The different conditions experienced by various groups of people are described in detail including rich and poor convicts and their superiors Aboriginal people women children and migrant groups The social themes of gender class ethnicity status and identity inform every chapter demonstrating that these are vital parts of human experience and cannot be separated from archaeologies of industry urbanization and culture contact The book engages with a wide range of contemporary discussions and debates within Australian history and the international discipline of historical archaeology The colonization of Australia was part of the international expansion of European hegemony in the eighteenth and nineteenth century The material discussed here is thus fundamentally part of the global processes of colonization and the creation of settler societies the industrial revolution the development of mass consumer culture and the emergence of national identities Drawing out these themes and integrating them with the analysis of archaeological materials highlights the vital relevance of archaeology in modern society

Girls' Violence Christine Alder, Anne Worrall, 2010-03-18 This critical collection brings together some of the best contemporary research on the perceived increase in girls violence With perspectives from the United States Canada Australia and the United Kingdom the work challenges official definitions and media representations of girls and violence Contributors discuss whether violence by girls has actually increased what kind of behavior by girls is classified as violent how attitudes toward girls behavior have changed in what contexts girls behave violently and look at the links between girls violence and the broader issues of the social construction and social control of adolescent femininities With diverse essays representing different geographical and disciplinary perspectives this book offers at times contradictory evidence and conflicting views However common concerns are clear and the reader is rewarded with a rich exploration of the struggles of girls and young women to take control of their lives in material and ideological conditions that continue to restrict their options and opportunities

The Wreck Meg Keneally, 2020-09-01 In 1820 Sarah McCaffrey fleeing arrest for her part in a failed rebellion thinks she has escaped when she finds herself aboard the Serpent bound from London to the colony of New South Wales But when the mercurial captain's actions drive the ship into a cliff Sarah is the only survivor Adopting a false identity she becomes the right hand woman of Molly Thistle who has grown her late husband's business interests into a sprawling real estate and trade empire As time passes Sarah begins to believe she might have found a home until her past follows her across the seas

Ireland in the World Angela McCarthy, 2015-06-12 This international edited book collection of ten original contributions from established and emerging scholars explores aspects of Ireland's place in the world since the 1780s It imaginatively blends comparative transnational and personal perspectives to examine migration in a range of diverse geographical locations including Ireland

Scotland Wales Australia New Zealand the United States Canada Argentina Jamaica and the British Empire more broadly Deploying diverse sources including letters interviews press reports convict records and social media contributors canvas important themes such as slavery convicts policing landlordism print culture loyalism nationalism sectarianism politics and electronic media A range of perspectives including Catholic and Protestant men and women convicts and settlers are included and the volume is accompanied by a range of striking images Gender, crime and empire Kirsty

Reid, 2017-03-01 Between 1803 and 1853 some 80 000 convicts were transported to Van Diemen s Land Revising established models of the colonies which tend to depict convict women as a peculiarly oppressed group Gender crime and empire argues that convict men and women in fact shared much in common Placing men and women ideas about masculinity femininity sexuality and the body in comparative perspective this book argues that historians must take fuller account of class to understand the relationships between gender and power The book explores the ways in which ideas about fatherhood and household order initially informed the state s model of order and the reasons why this foundered It considers the shifting nature of state policies towards courtship relationships and attempts at family formation which subsequently became matters of class conflict It goes on to explore the ways in which ideas about gender and family informed liberal and humanitarian critiques of the colonies from the 1830s and 1840s and colonial demands for abolition and self government An

Archaeology of Nineteenth-Century Consumer Behavior in Melbourne, Australia, and Buenos Aires, Argentina

Pamela Ricardi, 2019-07-23 This book compares consumer behavior in two nineteenth century peripheral cities Melbourne Australia and Buenos Aires Argentina It provides an analysis of domestic archaeological assemblages from two inner city working class neighborhood sites that were largely populated by recently arrived immigrants The book also uses primary historical documents to assess the place of these cities within global trade networks and explores the types of goods arriving into each city By comparing the assemblages and archival data it is possible to explore the role of choice ethnicity and class on consumer behavior This approach is significant as it provides an archaeological assessment of consumer behavior which crosses socio political divides comparing a site within a British colony to a site in a former Spanish colony in South America As two geographically politically and ethnically distinct cities it was expected that archaeological and archival data would reveal substantial variation In reality differences although noted were small Broad similarities point to the far reaching impact of colonialism and consumerism and widespread interconnectedness during the nineteenth century This book demonstrates the wealth of information that can be gained from international comparisons that include sites outside the British Empire Imperial Underworld Kirsten McKenzie, 2016-01-14 During a major overhaul of British imperial policy following the Napoleonic Wars an escaped convict reinvented himself as an improbable activist renowned for his expos s of government misconduct and corruption in the Cape Colony and New South Wales Charting scandals unleashed by the man known variously as Alexander Loe Kaye and William Edwards Imperial Underworld offers a radical new account of the legal constitutional and administrative transformations that unfolded during the British colonial order of the 1820s In a narrative rife with daring jail breaks infamous agents provocateurs and allegations of sexual deviance Professor Kirsten McKenzie argues that such colourful and salacious aspects of colonial administrations cannot be separated from the real business of political and social change The book instead highlights the importance of taking gossip paranoia factional infighting and political spin seriously to show the extent to which ostensibly marginal figures and events influenced the transformation of the nineteenth century British Empire

The Women of Little Lon Barbara Minchinton, 2021-08-16 A vivid account of a remarkable but little known chapter in Melbourne s history Sex workers in nineteenth century Melbourne were judged morally corrupt by the respectable world around them But theirs was a thriving trade with links to the police and political leaders of the day and the leading brothels were usually managed by women While today a city lane is famously named after Madame Brussels the identities of the other flash madams the dressed girls who worked for them and the hundreds of women who solicited on the streets of the Little Lon district of Melbourne are not remembered Who were they What did their daily lives look like What became of them Drawing on the findings of recent archaeological excavations rare archival material and family records historian Barbara Minchinton brings the fascinating world of Little Lon to life Barbara Minchinton is a historian and independent researcher For several years she collaborated with a team of archaeologists on the interpretation of artefacts from Melbourne s Little Lon district She is the co editor of The Commonwealth Block Melbourne a historical archaeology of the city s working class and immigrant communities and the author of The Women of Little Lon

Vagrant Lives in Colonial Australasia Catharine Coleborne, 2024-04-04 Investigating the history of vagrants in colonial Australia and New Zealand this book provides insights into the histories and identities of marginalised peoples in the British Pacific Empire Showing how their experiences were produced shaped and transformed through laws and institutions it reveals how the most vulnerable people in colonial society were regulated marginalised and criminalised in the imperial world Studying the language of vagrancy prosecution narratives of mobility and welfare vagrant families gender and mobility and the political social and cultural interpretations of vagrancy this book sets out a conceptual framework of mobility as a field of inquiry for legal and historical studies Defining mobility as population movement and the occupation of new social and physical space it offers an entry point to the related histories of penal colonies and new settler societies It provides insights into shared histories of vagrancy across New South Wales Victoria Tasmania and New Zealand and explores how different jurisdictions regulated mobility within the temporal and geographical space of the British Pacific Empire

‘We are a farming class’ Peter Woodley, 2025-04-03 Notions of an arcadian farming life permeate settler Australian understandings of themselves and their nation Qualities of hard work perseverance resourcefulness and a steady devotion to family and community the historian John Hirst s Pioneer Legend are idealised in this nation But the people from whom the legend is derived have rarely been studied in depth They are more the stuff of myth and fond imagining than of concerted examination

To what extent is the legend built on lived experience How have farming people thought of themselves and their contribution to a wider national mythos We are a farming class examines the lives of people in the farmlands surrounding Dubbo in the New South Wales central west between the 1870s and the 1950s from free selection and the establishment of agriculture to the dawning of postwar prosperity and change What emerges is a closely documented ethnographically rich portrait of a way of life and culture at once distinctive and surprising recognisable and unknown The Palgrave Handbook of Prison Tourism Jacqueline Z. Wilson, Sarah Hodgkinson, Justin Piché, Kevin Walby, 2017-05-17 This extensive Handbook addresses a range of contemporary issues related to Prison Tourism across the world It is divided into seven sections Ethics Human Rights and Penal Spectatorship Carceral Retasking Curation and Commodification of Punishment Meanings of Prison Life and Representations of Punishment in Tourism Sites Death and Torture in Prison Museums Colonialism Relics of Empire and Prison Museums Tourism and Operational Prisons and Visitor Consumption and Experiences of Prison Tourism The Handbook explores global debates within the field of Prison Tourism inquiry spanning a diverse range of topics from political imprisonment and persecution in Taiwan to interpretive programming in Alcatraz and the representation of incarcerated Indigenous peoples to prison graffiti This Handbook is the first to present a thorough examination of Prison Tourism that is truly global in scope With contributions from both well renowned scholars and up and coming researchers in the field from a wide variety of disciplines the Handbook comprises an international collection at the cutting edge of Prison Tourism studies Students and teachers from disciplines ranging from Criminology to Cultural Studies will find the text invaluable as the definitive work in the field of Prison Tourism The Harbour Scott Bevan, 2017-11-01 The finest harbour deserves the finest book A colourful fascinating and enduring account of the greatest waterway in the hemisphere Simon Winchester This book is a joy to read And essential for anyone who loves Sydney Harbour And who doesn't Ken Done In the bestselling tradition of Peter Ackroyd's The Thames a celebration of one of the world's great waterways Everyone knows Sydney Harbour At least we think we do Everyone can see the harbour whether we have ever been to Sydney or not By as little as a word or two the harbour floats into our mind's eye The Bridge The Opera House Fireworks on New Year's Eve When we see those images we feel a sense of belonging No matter who we are or where we're from we see the harbour and we feel good In this beautiful authoritative and meditative journey Scott Bevan takes us from cove to cove by kayak yacht and barge to gather the harbour's stories past and present from boat builders ship captains and fishermen to artists divers historians and environmentalists from signs of ancient life to the submarine invasion by the Japanese and the natural beauty that inspires people every day This is the ultimate story of Sydney Harbour a city's heart and a country's soul Law and Politics in British Colonial Thought S. Dorsett, I. Hunter, 2010-11-08 A collection that focuses on the role of European law in colonial contexts and engages with recent treatments of this theme in known works written largely from within the framework of postcolonial studies which implicitly discuss colonial deployments of European law and politics via the concept of ideology Black

Founders Cassandra Pybus, 2006 Black Founders changes the way we think about the foundation of Australia. In an evocative and compelling narrative, distinguished historian and prize-winning author Cassandra Pybus reveals how the settlement of Australia was a multi-racial process from the outset. Pybus has uncovered that our black founders were originally slaves from America who sought freedom with the British during the American Revolution, only to find themselves abandoned and unemployed in England once the war was over.

BOOK JACKET Fettered Frontier Jennifer Harrison, 2023-04-28. Historian Jennifer Harrison's latest book Fettered Frontier: Founding the Moreton Bay Settlement 1822-1826, a companion volume to Shackled Female Convicts at Moreton Bay 1826-1839 (2016), investigates the struggle to locate and establish an outpost in remote Moreton Bay. She uses original government correspondence, diaries, journals, and maps, and also examines the many mangled foundation stories from the time of the original site at Redcliffe and its removal to a location on the Brisbane River. The search for the river involved several exploratory voyages, the discovery of convict timber getters who had totally lost their bearings, and the helpful local Aboriginal people. The stream, shrouded by mangroves, was finally discovered. A significantly sized waterway, it was appropriately named for Governor Sir Thomas Brisbane, as was the campsite on its bank. Much research has concentrated on accurately re-creating economic, climatic, and legal back stories, together with defining the characters who made the decisions in London, Port Jackson, Sydney, and locally, as well as the convicts who undertook the heavy manual work.

Happy 200th Birthday Brisbane, you have come a long way.
