500 words and longer entries 2000 words A significant number of entries appearing in the first edition have been revised and updated Citations and references are provided for each entry Engineering News ,1914 Lumberman's Review ,1919 The Electrical World and Engineer ,1905 Coal Age ,1925 Vols for 1955 62 include Mining guidebook and buying directory Municipal Journal and Engineer ,1910 Municipal Journal and Public Works ,1913 Thornton and Tully's Scientific Books, Libraries and Collectors Andrew Hunter,2016-12-05 In the 25 years since the last edition of Thornton and Tully's Scientific Books Libraries and Collectors was published scientific publishing has mushroomed developed new forms and the academic discipline and popular appreciation of the history of science have grown apace This fourth edition discusses these changes and ponders the implications of developments in publishing at the end of the twentieth century while concentrating its gaze upon the dissemination of scientific ideas and knowledge from Antiquity to the industrial age In this shift of focus it departs from previous editions and for the first time a chapter on Islamic science is included Recurrent themes in several of the ten essays in the present volume are the definition of science itself and its transmutation by publishing media and the social context Two essays on the collecting of scientific books provide a counterpoint and the book is grounded on a rigorous chapter on bibliographies The timely publication of Scientific Books Libraries and Collectors comes at the coincidence of the advent of electronic publishing and the millennium a dramatic moment at which to take stock

Caring Responsibilities in European Law and Policy Eugenia Caracciolo di Torella,Annick Masselot,2020-02-28 This book explores the emerging engagement of EU law with care and carers The book argues that the regulation of care by the EU is crucial because it enables the development of a broad range of policies It contributes to the sustainability of society and ultimately it enables individuals to flourish Yet to date the EU approach to regulating the caring relationship remains piecemeal and lacks the underpinning of a cohesive strategy Against this backdrop this book argues that the EU can and must take leadership in this area by setting principles and standards in accordance with the values of the treaty in particular gender equality human dignity solidarity and well being The book further makes a case for a stronger protection for carers who should not only be protected against discrimination but should also be supported valued and put in a position to make choices and lead full lives In order to achieve this a proactive approach to rebalancing the relationship between paid and unpaid work is necessary Ultimately the book puts forward a series of legal and policy recommendations for a holistic approach to care in the EU Editor & Publisher ,1928 The fourth estate Transnational Associations ,2005
