this monograph argues that the material conditions of many street workers the physical environments they live in and their effects on the workers bodies identities and spirits are represented reproduced and entrenched in the language surrounding their work As an ethnographic case study of a local system that can be extrapolated to other subcultures and the construction of identities this book disrupts some of the more prevalent academic and lay understandings about street prostitution by providing a thorough analysis of the material conditions surrounding street work and their connection to discourse McCracken offers an explanation of how constructions can be made differently in order to achieve representations that are generated by the marginalized populations themselves while placing responsibility for this marginalization on the society in which these people live New Sociologies of Sex Work Kate Hardy, Sarah Kingston, 2016-05-06 Sex work studies have seen an expansion in publications over the past decade drawing together disciplines from across the social sciences namely sociology criminology and social policy There has however been a tendency for research and writing to focus on the more obvious aspect of the sex industry the visible elements of female street prostitution and those features which attract media attention such as the criminalised aspects of the sex trade The sex industry is diverse in terms of its organisation presentation participants and how it is located in the broader context of globalisation and regulation there is a need for publications which demonstrate this breadth This book makes an outstanding contribution to the sociology of sex work through advancing theoretical policy methodological and empirical ideas as each chapter pushes the boundaries of a specific area by offering new and critical research as well as commentary Love, Romance, Sexual Interaction Nathaniel Pallone, 2018-01-16 This volume brings together in a single resource fourteen empirical studies examining a variety of emotions and behaviors covering many aspects of love romance and sexual interaction from recent issues of Current Psychology Scholars from universities and research centers bring under the empiricist's microscope a variety of emotions and behaviors ranging from dating relationships criteria for the ideal mate held by both men and women the relationship between perceptions of parents and partners in a direct test of psychoanalytic conceptualizations of mate selection how the media influence perceptions about love and romance sources of marital conflict gender differences in responses to infidelity and even the attitudes of consumers toward prostitution Contributors and topics of discussion include Albert Mehrabian and Jeffrey S Blum Physical Appearance Attractiveness and the Mediating Effect of Emotions Gordon L Flett Paul L Hewitt Brenley Shapiro and Jill Rayman Perfectionism Beliefs and Adjustment in Dating Relationships Robert Ervin Cramer Jeffrey T Schaefer and Suzanne Reid Identifying the Ideal Mate More Evidence for Male Female Convergence Glenn Geher Perceived and Actual Characteristics of Parents and Partners A Freudian Model of Mate Selection Claudia J Haferkamp Beliefs about Relationships in Relation to Television Viewing Soap Opera Viewing and Self Monitoring Blaine J Flowers and Brooks Applegate Marital Satisfaction and Conventionalization Examined Didactically Claudia J Haferkamp Dysfunctional Beliefs Self Monitoring and Marital Conflict Emily A Impett Kristin P Beals and Letitia A Peplau Testing the Investment Model of

 Nuttbrock, 2018-02-20 This is the only book that systematically examines transgender sex work in the United States and globally Bringing together perspectives from a rich range of disciplines and experiences it is an invaluable resource on issues related to commercial sex in the transgender community and in the lives of trans sex workers including mental health substance use relationship dynamics encounters with the criminal justice system and opportunities and challenges in the realm of public health The volume covers trans sex workers interactions with health social service and mental health

Buy Sex Sarah Kingston, Natalie Hammond, Scarlett Redman, 2020-05-10 Drawing on empirical data from women who pay for sexual services and those who provide services to women this ground breaking study is the first of its kind in the UK detailing the experiences of women who pay for sex in an explicit direct prearranged way Unlike previous research on clients which has predominantly focused on men who buy sex or women who engage in romance tourism in places such as the Caribbean this innovative research offers new and original insights into the demand side of commercial sex Too often it is assumed that only men pay for sex from women or other men Women are assumed to be service providers and are unimaginable as clients This book therefore offers a radical departure from existing scholarship on commercial sex In addition the book examines the experiences of couples who pay for commercial sex a client group that has received scant investigation The book explores women's reasons for their engagement in commercial sex services their backgrounds and characteristics their strategies for remaining safe and managing potential risks as well as their sexual health strategies The nature of sexual service bookings with women clients is also examined exploring the types of services women seek the places where bookings occur and the fees they pay Finally the experiences of men women and trans sex workers who provide sexual services to women are examined By drawing on our unique data and comparing it to the literature on men clients we present our theory Converging Sexualities We argue that commercial sex is a site of behavioural convergence and that women clients are behaving in ways that could be described as masculine or feminine Our study therefore offers new ways to understand sexuality This book will be of interest to researchers in the field of sexuality sex work and women's behaviour      Sex Workers and Their Clients Jerald L. Mosley, 2020-12-15 This book draws on the voices of sex workers and their clients to critically assess the criminalization of prostitution in favour of decriminalization It does so by contrasting their voices with the claims made by prohibitionists those advocating the prohibition of prostitution or at least the prohibition of the purchase of sexual services and notes scholarly research that gives context to those accounts and claims Each chapter is dedicated to a particular issue which is given currency in academic and public debates on sex work The first part of each chapter reviews the state of research and publicly aired contentions and the second part compares sex workers voices with claims from prohibitionists It highlights the gap between what many sex workers have to say about themselves and what theorizing prohibitionists say about all prostitution It argues that there is often a striking contrast in attitude perspective interpretation and valuation This books speaks primarily to prohibitionist thinking and sex work stereotyping and secondarily to the debate on decriminalization of sex work
