

APRIL IS SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS MONTH

HOW DO WE TALK ABOUT SEXUAL VIOLENCE? HOW DO WE TAKE ACTION AGAINST IT?

Arm yourself with the truth and tips to start leading the way in sexual assault prevention.

THE FACTS: SEXUAL ASSAULT IN THE U.S.

Every day in the U.S., over 500 women are sexually assaulted

That number doesn't even account for all the sexual assaults that go unreported

1 in 3 teens suffer physical, sexual, emotional or verbal abuse from a dating partner

1 in 5 women are sexually assaulted while in college

For every 100 cases of rape, there are only...

12 ARRESTS

9 PROSECUTIONS

THE POWER OF EARLY EDUCATION

Teaching safety and respect as part of early education is critical to preventing sexual violence.

Why is this important?

At-risk children without adequate early education are 70% more likely to be arrested for a violent crime

Children without healthy attachments (relationships with those responsible for their care) can have difficulty with emotional and social development later on

5 Things to Teach Our Kids About Safety and Consent

1 Always ask before touching, and heed the answer

2 Value the importance and truth in the words "stop" and "no," whether they're saying it or hearing it and the persons who commit them again with a summary of what research has unveiled while highlighting areas of recommended future research This book is suitable for an undergraduate or graduate level course for a variety of social science fields It is invaluable for treatment providers law enforcement officers detectives or policy makers Looking Back, Moving Forward DIANE Publishing Company,1995-07 Recognizes the progress of the past two decades in the response to sexual assault cases by law enforcement agents prosecutors and emergency medical care providers Speaks to the development of rape crisis centers and other victim services that concentrate on meeting the needs of the victim Centers on the belief that the system that addresses sexual assault in the community must be victim centered expanding the role of the victim from that of an important witness to an active participant in case related decision making Includes Workbook References Sex Crimes and Sex Offenders Donna Vandiver,Jeremy Braithwaite,2016-12-08 Sex Crimes and Sex Offenders Research and Realities provides an overview of social scientific theory and research on sex crimes and sex offenders Most other books on the market are focused on a single issue such as treatment rape pedophilia theory etc This book is unique in that it covers the most current theory and research along with individual cases of sex crimes e g Kobe Bryant Jerry Sandusky and other case studies effectively linking theory and research with the realities of sex crimes and sex offenders as well as their victims Vandiver Braithwaite and Stafford are careful to dispel myths and to focus on the heterogeneity of sex crimes and sex offenders and not on any one issue or population or theory Instead they weave a framework using a full range of theoretical concepts and research data to integrate their discussions of crimes offenders victims treatments and policy implications The result is a valuable resource for students and early stage researchers investigating sex crimes or offenders Victims of Sexual Violence Colleen A. Ward,Fathiah Inserto,1990 This handbook is an answer to the need for a text which incorporates factual analytical and practical aspects of the topic to provide a comprehensive basis for understanding and assisting victims of sexual abuse Its coverage includes information on the extent of the problem of sexual offences in Singapore and on the relevant legal institutional provisions Part I analysis of the causes of sexual violence and the social and psychological effects of sexual assault Part II guidelines on how to help victims of sexual violence Parts III and IV and finally some suggestions on how existing services might be improved Part V Rape Law Reform Cassia Spohn,Julie Horney,2013-11-27 This book evolved from our interest in rape as feminists and as social scientists As feminists we were concerned about the treatment of rape victims and the attrition in rape cases under traditional rape law and we welcomed legal reforms designed to improve the situation As social scientists we wondered about the efficacy of legal changes aimed at an inherently resistant court system We also were curious about the lack of studies examining the impact of these changes we were particularly surprised to find that no one had attempted to analyze the impact of the reforms in more than one jurisdiction Convinced that untangling the effects of the reforms from the effects of contextual factors required a multijurisdictional study we decided to undertake the project We quickly discovered that evaluating rape law reform in several jurisdictions would be no easy task We had decided that such an evaluation would require monthly data on the outcome of rape cases before and after the reforms were implemented as well as qualitative data on the attitudes of criminal justice officials toward the reforms Because states do not generate monthly data on case outcomes we would have to collect the data ourselves from court records maintained by individual jurisdictions To obtain an adequate number of cases for the time series analysis we would have to select our sites from large urban jurisdictions scattered throughout the United States

Social Psychology and Human Sexuality Roy F. Baumeister, 2001 Presents a selected group of influential articles dealing specifically with the social aspects of sexuality topics covered include differences between male and female sexuality virginity harassment rape and coercion and jealousy Treating Stress In Families..... Charles

Figley, 2013-05-24 Provides an overview of the causes and treatment approaches for counseling families under stress and focuses on several examples of extreme tension A Natural History of Rape Randy Thornhill, Craig T. Palmer, 2001-02-23

A biologist and an anthropologist use evolutionary biology to explain the causes and inform the prevention of rape In this controversial book Randy Thornhill and Craig Palmer use evolutionary biology to explain the causes of rape and to recommend new approaches to its prevention According to Thornhill and Palmer evolved adaptation of some sort gives rise to rape the main evolutionary question is whether rape is an adaptation itself or a by product of other adaptations Regardless of the answer Thornhill and Palmer note rape circumvents a central feature of women's reproductive strategy mate choice This is a primary reason why rape is devastating to its victims especially young women Thornhill and Palmer address and claim to demolish scientifically many myths about rape bred by social science theory over the past twenty five years The popular contention that rapists are not motivated by sexual desire is they argue scientifically inaccurate Although they argue that rape is biological Thornhill and Palmer do not view it as inevitable Their recommendations for rape prevention include teaching young males not to rape punishing rape more severely and studying the effectiveness of chemical castration They also recommend that young women consider the biological causes of rape when making decisions about dress appearance and social activities Rape could cease to exist they argue only in a society knowledgeable about its evolutionary causes The book includes a useful summary of evolutionary theory and a comparison of evolutionary biology's and social science's explanations of human behavior The authors argue for the greater explanatory power and practical usefulness of evolutionary biology The book is sure to stir up discussion both on the specific topic of rape and on the larger issues of how we understand and influence human behavior The Victimization and Exploitation of Women and Children Ronald B.

Flowers, 1994-01-01 The means by which women and children are most often subjected to victimization are discussed here along with the causes and the legal avenues available Part One examines family issues including child abuse domestic violence and missing or abducted children and Part Two examines their sexual exploitation Part Three explores violent crimes against children e.g. murder rape and assault while Part Four is a study of violence against women Prostitution
