

Lecture 3.1: Different Economic Systems

Chapter 3: Economic Systems

Capitalism vs. Socialism

- What is an Economic System?

- The system of rules, laws, and methods put in place by society to answer the 3 Fundamental Economic Questions:

1. What is Produced?
2. How to Produce it?
3. For Whom are the goods produced?

- 2 Different Methods are employed by all advanced societies to answer the fundamental economic questions:

- Government: The decision making unit within a society that has an exclusive right to use coercion or non-voluntary means in interactions between members of society
- Market: The collection of all buyers and sellers of a good who interact voluntarily with each other

- Definition of Capitalism and Socialism

- Socialism: an economic system based on private ownership of the factors or means of production
 - Synonym: free market system

Lecture 3.2 Property Rights

Chapter 3: Capitalism vs. Socialism

- Private Property, or the Private Ownership of property (including the means of production) consists of 3 interlocking rights:

1. The Right of Control and Exclusive Use
2. The Right to Acquire or Transfer Property
3. Right to Restitution for Damages to one's property

- What is property?
 - Property is any of the external things of this world that are subject to ownership
 - EX: cars, bonds, houses, computers, computer businesses, trademarks

- Private Property as a Natural Right

- A Natural Right is a right that exists by Natural Law
- Natural Law is a belief that rights inherent in human nature and discoverable by reason rather than revelation
- Natural Rights are rights to be free from arbitrary interference of others, including the state. This is often referred to as being free or having negative rights.
 - EX of natural, negative rights: private property, freedom of religion

The Political Economy of Wasta: Use and Abuse of Social Capital Networking Mohamed A. Ramady, 2015-11-23 The term wasta stems from the Arabic root for middle or medium and describes the phenomenon of using connections to find job government services or other favors to circumvent bureaucracy or bypass the system as a whole The effects of wasta may be both positive or negative and is not a phenomenon that is particular to the Arab or Muslim world but also to many other cultures and regions of the world with similar concepts popularly known as ubuntu guanxi harambee naoberschap or old boy network used in African Chinese and European societies By its very nature wasta is an area of grey or even black information and like corruption to which it is most often associated is hard to assess although country corruption perception indexes attempt to provide a quantifiable basis In the final analysis such ratings are based on perceptions of corruption and this perception may vary strongly depending on different societal structures and cultural modes whether these are extended family systems tribal clans or more atomized societies where relationships are essentially transactional and rule based In a western perspective where wasta may be considered as a form of corruption in other societies it may be perceived as something natural and not criminal and using one's wasta in tribal societies to help clan members is seen as a duty The difference stems from the innocent use of wasta to make introductions as opposed to its abuse in placing unqualified persons in positions The volume brings together academics and professional experts to examine a range of multi faceted social economic and political issues raised by the use and abuse of social networking covering various topics like wasta interpersonal connections in family and business ties The relationship between inequality adjusted human development and corruption perception indexes in the Gulf region wasta and business networking assessing the economic cost of wasta wasta and its impact on quality oriented education reform and the perceptions of young people The use of wasta to overcome socio cultural barriers for women and men The volume also offers insights into social relations and ethics and how the use of wasta contradicts with common held religious principles along with some country studies on Islamic principles and the use of wasta Mohamed Ramady is a Visiting Associate Professor King Fahd University of Petroleum and Minerals Saudi Arabia

Rationality and Legality of Non-market Economy Treatment in Antidumping Law Shao Long, 2024-01-03 This book serves as a comprehensive study of and provides rich insight into non market economy treatment including its past present and estimated future practices and implications It explores the introduction of the market and non market economy dichotomy into international trade law It traces the origin and development of non market economy treatment against changing international economic and political background The book examines this treatment in light of the rationale underlying anti dumping reflecting its alleged significance of ensuring fair trade It in particular investigates the varied non market economy treatment practices responding concerns of China's rising as a large state led economy analyzing the deviation of NME treatment into an all in trade tool The book argues against preconceived bias and unilateral protectionism It highlights the universal existence of government involvement in the market and proposes objective assessment of its impact on fair trade Final proposition of the book is depoliticizing trade reforming comprehensively international trade rules to carefully calibrate different values including promoting fairness and enhancing global social welfare It envisages a multi dimension overhaul of international trade rules to rebalance trade interests rather than roughly labeling an economy to confer different treatment the practices of which lead to separation and chaos The book is of particular relevance and interest to economies in transition and among policy makers academicians and legal practitioners engaged in trade remedies and trade rules reconstruction SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP MOTIVATION SORIN BLAGA,2020-01-01 This research enriches social entrepreneurship motivation theory by suggesting that whichever entrepreneurial path is chosen extrinsic and intrinsic motivations apply yet appear to have different weightings in stimulating intentions to pursue entrepreneurship as well as being inversely related The Geography of the World Economy 5th Edition Paul Knox,John Agnew,Linda McCarthy,2014-04-04

The book aims to show that the deterministic vision embodied in conventional economic modelling is neither consistent with nor supported by the state of the art in mathematics logic and physical science DeCanio recognizes that economic agents are intrinsically free and somewhat unpredictable which is essential for economic and social theory Housing the Nation - a Singapore Policy Story Kim Hin / David Ho,2020-12-17

Chapter 1 takes a close look at a unique and state of the art dynamic structural public housing macroeconomic model DSPHM based on an open economy for several key macroeconomic variables actual and expected as well as the demand for new HDB flats sold This Chapter readily adopts the DSPHM for simulating two scenarios namely a no change first scenario and a public housing deregulation second scenario Chapter 2 explores the relationship between several economic factors and the demand for public housing in Singapore and Hong Kong deploying the innovative and versatile system dynamics model to shed better understanding on the policy implications of assisted ownership housing The Chapter assesses the demand for new flats of the Singapore and Hong Kong economies under certain macroeconomic policy changes suitable for their unique situations Chapter 3 is concerned with the underlying structural relationships that affect Singapore's public housing policy to potentially privatize the HDB concessionary rate mortgages for HDB homebuyers Such a potential privatization infuses and sustains price competitiveness among the domestic private banks in Singapore and lead to improved efficiency among them as well as the Singapore economy at large Chapter 4 is concerned with the binomial option pricing model proposed by Cox Ross and Rubinstein 1979 which is appropriate to represent the movement of the underlying HDB resale flat prices subject to private market forces in HDB's large scale public housing secondary resale market The HDB Main Upgrading Program MUP is a heavily subsidized and highly targeted public housing policy Since its inception in 1992 the HDB has budgeted some S 3 billion to finance the MUP policy Chapter 5 recognizes housing affordability to be always an issue of concern to many Singaporean homebuyers because shelter forms one of the basic life necessities The corresponding private residential market in Singapore offers quality and premium private residential accommodation for homebuyers who prefer the private residential market The appropriate affordability model is a multi factor housing affordability index HAI model which considers the ability to provide down payment and to service the mortgage taken up Lastly Chapter 6 offers the book's conclusion Charting a New Course Mike Mansfield,1976
