Shadow Educational System Adult Resource Development

Odd Nordhaug

Shadow Educational System Adult Resource Development:

The Shadow Educational System Odd Nordhaug, 1991 Education and training for adults have taken a back seat compared to the traditional education system Today however a more institutionalized system of lifelong learning is emerging in many countries This book offers a comprehensive framework of the field and presents studies of determinants and outcomes of adult education and personnel training Resources in Education, 2001 Power in Practice Ronald M. Cervero, Arthur L. Wilson, 2001-05-16 The single most important contribution to our field's knowledgebase in the past two decades The authors have managed to shift the focus of adult education back to the social concerns that were taken for granted when the field was founded We are ready for this long overdue book Indeed we have been yearning for this book It will tilt our field back towards its moral center B Allan Quigley chair Department of Adult Education St Francis Xavier University Nova Scotia Power in Practice is a wonderful book full of case studies updated theories new perspectives and evidence that adult education can and does change people's lives Michael Newman senior lecturer in adult education University of Technology Sydney Australia Adult educators know that they can no longer focus solely on the needs of learners without responsibly addressing the political and ethical consequences of their work Power in Practice examines how certain adult education programs practices and policies can become a subtle part of power relationships in wider society It provides a rich array of real world cases that highlight the pivotal role of adult educators as knowledge and power brokers in the conflict between learners and the social forces surrounding them The authors discuss how to teach responsibly develop effective adult education programs and provide exemplary leadership in complex political contexts including the workplace and higher education Educators in the middle of power struggles will learn how to become more politically aware while actively shaping their enterprises to meet important social needs Higher Education and Lifelong Learners Hans Georg Schütze, Maria Slowey, 2000 This edited collection explores the varying interpretations of lifelong learning by experts from ten countries International Perspectives on Competence Development Knud Illeris, 2012-07-26 In today's complex and ever changing world it has become obvious that even highly developed knowledge and skills are no longer sufficient to meet new challenges situations and problems facing individuals organisations and nations This raises an enormous and potentially confusing issue for educators and trainers how is it possible to generate and assess abilities to deal with challenges and problems unknown or not even in existence at the time when the learning takes place The book builds on the experiences and insights of its expert contributors all of whom have worked with studied and analysed competences and how they are developed Their collected work presents Comprehensive explanation and analysis of the concept and nature of competence Specific contexts of competence development e.g. in the public sector or small business Competence development as a national strategy for building an up to date education and training system With chapters from around the world including the UK USA Canada Australia Scandinavia this book illustrates in an engaging and convincing manner the importance and innovative nature of the concept of competences resulting in a varied differentiated and empathetic guide to the topic It will appeal to educators both in academic and management circles as well as students and administrators of education Adult and Continuing Education: Adult education - viewed from the disciplines Peter Jarvis, Colin Griffin, 2003 This collection draws on books journals reports and historical papers to map the vast field of education for adults This collection will make many major works more readily available Lifelong Education for Adults C.J. Titmus, 2014-06-28 Lifelong Education for Adults An International Handbook is the first work intended to offer international encyclopedic coverage of research and studies in the whole field of adult education With 127 articles written by international specialists this work will be an invaluable reference source for all those who are engaged in educational activities for adults either as full time planners administrators of educational programmes or part time adult educators There are for example articles on education for work and for living on population education peace and environmental education and on learning for personal development and role fulfilment Conceptual frameworks practical issues relating to instructional methods counselling curriculum and evaluation and developments in distance learning group learning and adult learning are some of the topics discussed Systems of adult education worldwide as well as adult education processes and practices are covered region by region The problems and initiatives of the developing countries are given attention alongside those of advanced countries The collection of articles assembled in this Handbook is unique in the range and depth of treatment given to the field of adult education This volume will thus be of great interest to all engaged in educational activities for adults in adult schools community centres institutions of higher education as well as educationalists planners and decision makers throughout the world who are involved in adult education at all levels Strengthening Adult and Continuing Education Alan B. Knox, 1993-07-07 Drawing on case studies from over 30 countries Knox explains how agency leaders can adapt strategic planning guidelines to identify objectives create effective communication among stakeholders and give the supportive guidance feedback encouragement and recognition that is essential for successful programming Shows how principles and methods of strategic planning can be applied with equal effectiveness across a wide range of programs including distance learning continuing professional education correctional education staff development and adult education for minorities Transition to the Knowledge Society University of British Columbia.
