New Literary Hybrids in the Age of Multimedia Expression Marcel Cornis-Pope, 2014-11-15 Begun in 2010 as part of the Histories of Literatures in European Languages series sponsored by the International Comparative Literature Association the current project on New Literary Hybrids in the Age of Multimedia Expression recognizes the global shift toward the visual and the virtual in all areas of textuality the printed verbal text is increasingly joined with the visual often electronic text This shift has opened up new domains of human achievement in art and culture The international roster of 24 contributors to this volume pursue a broad range of issues under four sets of questions that allow a larger conversation to emerge both inside the volume's sections and between them The four sections cover 1 Multimedia Productions in Theoretical and Historical Perspective 2 Regional and Intercultural Projects 3 Forms and Genres and 4 Readers and Rewriters in Multimedia Environments The essays included in this volume are examples of the kinds of projects and inquiries that have become possible at the interface between literature and other media new and old They emphasize the extent to which hypertextual multimedia and virtual reality technologies have enhanced the sociality of reading and writing enabling more people to interact than ever before At the same time however they warn that as long as these technologies are used to reinforce old habits of reading writing they will deliver modest results One of the major tasks pursued by the contributors to this volume is to integrate literature in the global informational environment where it can function as an imaginative partner teaching its interpretive competencies to other components of the cultural landscape Reading Experimental Writing

Georgina Colby, 2019-11-06 Bringing together internationally leading scholars whose work engages with the continued importance of literary experiment this book takes up the question of reading in the contemporary climate from culturally and linguistically diverse perspectives

,2002 A Century of the Marx Brothers Joseph Mills,2009-03-26 In 1905 Julius Marx began his vaudeville career with the singing group The Leroy Trio and was abandoned in the middle of the tour It was an inauspicious start for the person who would become Groucho A hundred years later the Marx Brothers have permeated our culture from the plastic noses and glasses worn at parties to a Smithsonian exhibition which explains DNA recombination using A Night at the Opera Although they completed relatively few films together the brothers have become icons recognizable even to people who have never seen their movies Most scholarly work on the Marx Brothers has focused on biographical aspects of their careers and lives A Century of the Marx Brothers suggests a myriad of other useful approaches to their film and stage productions The collection s eleven essays examine the Marx Brothers work from a number of critical perspectives ranging from reader response theory to film semiotics The contributors include international scholars in a variety of fields such as literature cultural studies performance studies and film history Unoriginal Genius Marjorie Perloff,2010-12 Marjorie Perloff here explores this intriguing development in contemporary poetry the embrace of unoriginal writing Paradoxically she argues such citational and often constraint based poetry is more accessible and in a sense personal than was the hermetic poetry of the 1980 s and 90 s

Reading the Difficulties Thomas Fink,Judith Halden-Sullivan,2014-02-28 Definitions of what constitutes innovative poetry are innumerable and are offered from every quarter Some critics and poets argue that innovative poetry concerns free association John Ashbery others that experimental poetry is a re staging of language Bruce Andrews or a syntactic and cognitive break with the past Ron Silliman and Lyn Hejinian The tenets of new poetry abound But what of the new reading that such poetry demands The essays in Reading the Difficulties offer case studies in and strategies for reading innovative poetry They allow readers to interact with verse that deliberately removes many of the comfortable cues to comprehension poetry that is frequently non narrative non representational and indeterminate in subject theme or message Book jacket

A Common Strangeness Jacob Edmond,2012-06-01 Why is our world still understood through binary oppositions East and West local and global common and strange that ought to have crumbled with the Berlin Wall What might literary responses to the events that ushered in our era of globalization tell us about the rhetorical and historical underpinnings of these dichotomies In A Common Strangeness Jacob Edmond exemplifies a new multilingual and multilateral approach to literary and cultural studies He begins with the entrance of China into multinational capitalism and the appearance of the Parisian fl neur in the writings of a Chinese poet exiled in Auckland New Zealand Moving among poetic examples in Russian Chinese and English he then traces a series of encounters shaped by economic and geopolitical events from the Cultural Revolution perestroika and the June 4 massacre to the collapse of the Soviet Union September 11 and the invasion of Iraq In these encounters Edmond tracks a shared concern with strangeness through which poets contested old binary oppositions as they reemerged in new post Cold War forms Reading as Belief J. Bettridge,2009-10-26 Reading as Belief advances the provocative idea that the disruptive techniques of recent innovative poetry require readers to become believers occupying the same philosophical ground as the religious faithful Pairing the poets Charles Bernstein and Bruce Andrews with John Calvin and Jonathan Edwards and drawing on the work of diverse thinkers such as Wendy Brown Ludwig Wittgenstein Walter Benjamin Stanley Cavell William James and Gilles Deleuze this book demonstrates how belief faith and language attuned critical inquiry share an epistemology one concerned with making meaning in the absence of certainty Bettridge argues that recognizing such common ground helps overcome the cultural and philosophical impasse following the collapse of modernity s central narratives about language and liberal subjectivity The Poetry and Poetics of Michael Heller Jon Curley,Burt Kimmelman,2015-07-01 The Poetry and Poetics of Michael Heller A Nomad Memory is the first comprehensive treatment of a singularly important American poet of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Michael Heller b 1937 has amassed a body of poetry and criticism that places him in the vanguard of modern literature and this essay collection provides the first extensive critical treatment of his varied career This book s multifaceted appraisal of his engagement with poetry as well as crucial ideas across various traditions establishes him as a preeminent writer among his contemporaries and younger generations and as a major poet in any era Anne Carson Elizabeth Sarah Coles,2023 The scene with which I begin this chapter is the kind of scene that interests Carson In the words of her Essay on What I Think About Most 1999 a disquisition on mistake in stanzas of unrhyming verse the wilful creation of error is the action of the master contriver the poet what Aristotle would call an imitator of reality Like the true mistakes of poetry the matter Carson confesses to think about most Streb s choreographed falls perform the conversion of human error into an art form Under the dancer s regime and by an extraordinary coup of artifice the emotions of mistake shame exposure thrill are handed to us putting our own contradictions and odd longings centre stage Virginia Woolf in Context Bryony Randall,Jane Goldman,2012-12-17 Covering a wide range of historical theoretical critical and cultural contexts this collection studies key issues in contemporary Woolf studies American Poetry as Transactional Art Stephen Fredman,2020-06-02 Explores the ways American poetry engages with visual art music fiction spirituality and performance art Many people think of poetry as a hermetic art as though poets wrote only about themselves or as if the subject of poetry were finally only poetry its forms and traditions Indeed much of what constitutes poetry in the lyric tradition depends on a stringently controlled point of view and aims for a timeless intransitive utterance Stephen Fredman's study proposes a different perspective American Poetry as Transactional Art explores a salient quality of much avant garde American poetry that has so far lacked sustained treatment namely its role as a transactional art Specifically Fredman describes this role as the ways it consistently engages in conversation talk correspondence going beyond the scope of its own subjects and forms its existential interactions with the outside world Poetry operating in this vein draws together images ideas practices rituals and verbal techniques from around the globe and across time not to equate them but to establish dialogue to invite as many guests as possible to the World Party which Robert Duncan has called the symposium of the whole Fredman invites new readers into contemporary poetry by providing lucid and nuanced analyses of specific poems and specific interchanges between poets and their surroundings He explores such topics as poetry's transactions with spiritual traditions and practices over the course of the twentieth century the impact of World War II on the poetry of Charles Olson and George Oppen exchanges between poetry and other art forms including sculpture performance art and ambient music the battle between poetry and prose in the early work of Paul Auster and in Lyn Hejinian's My Life The epilogue looks briefly at another crucial transactional occasion teaching American poetry in the classroom in a way that demonstrates that it is at the center of the arts and at the heart of American culture

Kenneth Goldsmith's Recent Works on Paper Daniel Morris, 2019-12-09 Kenneth Goldsmith's Recent Works on Paper is the first critical book devoted to Kenneth Goldsmith the acclaimed conceptual poet pedagogue and provocateur The book's focus is on Capital Wasting Time on the Internet Against Translation and Theory all published within a year of Goldsmith's controversial reading of a poem based on the Michael Brown autopsy report at Brown University in March 2015 These four books address issues of historiography translation pedagogy authorship and celebrity culture Each book serves a retrospective function for an author who is mid career taking stock of his considerable impact on U S and world poetics at the very moment when critics are challenging the ethics of his aesthetic judgment in the wake of the controversy surrounding The Body of Michael Brown The author focuses on how Goldsmith stages and in some cases transforms his metamorphic identity as a post humanist information manager His performance in these four books complicates the current image of him among many critics and fellow poets as one of Hillary Clinton's basket of deplorables who displayed extremely poor judgment while contributing to a culture of racial insensitivity by performing The Body of Michael Brown
