Shakespeare And Domestic Loss Forms Of Deprivation Mourning And Recuperation:

Shakespeare and Domestic Loss Heather Dubrow, 2004-01-05 This 1999 book examines Shakespeare's engagement with forms of deprivation which threatened domestic security in early modern England Shakespeare's Domestic Tragedies Emma Whipday, 2019-01-03 Reassess the relationship between Shakespeare's Hamlet Othello Macbeth and the emerging genre of domestic tragedy by other early modern playwrights Performances of Mourning in

Shakespearean Theatre and Early Modern Culture T. Döring, 2006-07-11 This study takes a look at a controversial question what do the acts and shows of grief performed in early modern drama tell us about the religious culture of the world in which they were historically staged Drawing on performance studies it provides detailed readings of play texts to explore the politics pathologies and parodies of mourning The Cambridge Introduction to Shakespeare's Poetry Michael Schoenfeldt, 2010-10-07 Shakespeare's poems aside from the enduring appeal of the Sonnets are much less familiar today than his plays despite being enormously popular in his lifetime This Introduction celebrates the achievement of Shakespeare as a poet providing students with ways of understanding and enjoying his remarkable poems It honours the aesthetic and intellectual complexity of the poems without making them seem unapproachably complicated outlining their exquisite pleasures and absorbing enigmas Schoenfeldt suggests that today's readers are better able to analyze aspects of the poems that were formerly ignored or the source of scandal the articulation of a fervent same sex love for example or the incipient racism inherent in a hierarchy of light and dark By engaging closely with Shakespeare's major poems Venus and Adonis Lucrece The Phoenix and the Turtle the Sonnets and A Lover's Complaint the Introduction demonstrates how much these extraordinary poems still have to say to us Performing Privacy and Gender in Early Modern Literature M.

Trull, 2013-05-07 This book argues that the early modern public private boundary was surprisingly dynamic and flexible in early modern literature drawing upon authors including Shakespeare Anne Lock Mary Wroth and Aphra Behn and genres including lyric poetry drama prose fiction and household orders An epilogue discusses postmodern privacy in digital media

A Midsummer Night's Dream Regina Buccola, 2009-12-08 A Midsummer Night's Dream is one of Shakespeare's most widely studied comedies This guide offers students an introduction to its critical and performance history including notable stage productions TV and film versions as well as opera and ballet It includes a keynote chapter outlining major areas of current research on the play and four new critical essays Finally a guide to critical web based and production related resources and an annotated bibliography provide a basis for further individual research Cultural Reformations Brian

Cummings, James Simpson, 2010-06-24 The deepest periodic division in English literary history has been between the medieval and the early modern Cultural Reformations initiates discussion on many fronts in which both periods look different in dialogue with each other Cures for Chance Erin Ellerbeck, 2021-11-01 Adoption allows families to modify either overtly or covertly what is considered to be the natural order Cures for Chance explores how early modern English theatre questioned the inevitability of the biological family and proposed new models of familial structure financial inheritance and gendered familial authority Because the practice of adoption circumvents sexual reproduction its portrayal obliges audiences to reconsider ideas of nature and kinship This study elucidates the ways in which adoptive familial relations were defined described and envisioned on stage particularly in the works of Shakespeare and Middleton In the plays in question families and individual characters create alter and manage familial relations Throughout Cures for Chance adoption is considered in the broader socioeconomic and political climate of the period Literary works and a wide range of other early modern texts including treatises on horticulture and natural history and household and conduct manuals are analysed in their historical and cultural contexts Erin Ellerbeck argues that dramatic representations of adoption test conventional notions of family by rendering the family unit a social construction rather than a biological certainty and that in doing so they evoke the alteration of nature by human hands that was already pervasive at the time

Childhood and Children's Books in Early Modern Europe, 1550-1800 Andrea Immel, Michael Witmore, 2013-11-05 This volume of 14 original essays by historians and literary scholars explores childhood and children's books in Early Modern Europe 1550 1800 The collection aims to reposition childhood as a compelling presence in early modern imagination a ready emblem of innocence mischief and playfulness The essays offer a wide ranging basis for reconceptualizing the development of a separate literature for children as central to evolving early modern concepts of human development and socialization Among the topics covered are constructs of literacy as revealed by the figure of Goody Two Shoes notions of pedagogy and academic standards a reception study of children's reading based on book purchases made by Rugby school boys in the late eighteenth century an analysis of the first international best seller for children the abbe Pluche's Spectacle de la nature and the commodification of child performers in Jacobean comedies

Quoting Death in Early Modern England S. Newstok, 2008-12-17 An innovative study of the Renaissance practice of making epitaphic gestures within other English genres A poetics of quotation uncovers the ways in which writers including Shakespeare Marlowe Holinshed Sidney Jonson Donne and Elizabeth I have recited these texts within new contexts

The Concept of Nature in Early Modern English Literature Peter Remien, 2019-02-14 The Concept of Nature in Early Modern English Literature traces a genealogy of ecology in seventeenth century literature and natural philosophy through the development of the protoecological concept of the oeconomy of nature Founded in 1644 by Kenelm Digby this concept was subsequently employed by a number of theologians physicians and natural philosophers to conceptualize nature as an interdependent system Focusing on the middle decades of the seventeenth century Peter Remien examines how Samuel Gott Walter Charleton Robert Boyle Samuel Collins and Thomas Burnet formed the oeconomy of nature Remien also shows how literary authors Ben Jonson George Herbert Andrew Marvell Margaret Cavendish and John Milton use the discourse of oeconomy to explore the contours of humankind's relationship with the natural world This book participates in an intellectual history of the science of ecology while prompting a re evaluation of how we understand the relationship between literature and ecology in the early modern period 1 Henry IV Stephen Longstaffe, 2011-08-18 An introduction to Shakespeare's I Henry IV introducing its critical and performance history current critical landscape and new directions in research on the play Imagining Adoption Marianne Novy, 2011-05-06 Imagining Adoption looks at representations of adoption in an array of literary genres by diverse authors including George Eliot Edward Albee and Barbara Kingsolver as well as ordinary adoptive mothers and adoptee activists exploring what these writings share and what they debate Marianne Novy is Professor of English and Women's Studies University of Pittsburgh Essays in Memory of Richard Helgerson Roze Hentschell, Kathy Lavezzo, 2012 Essays in Memory of Richard Helgerson Laureations brings together new essays by leading literary scholars of the British and European middle ages and early modern period who have been influenced by the groundbreaking scholarship of Richard Helgerson The contributors evince the ongoing impact of Helgerson's work in critical debates including those of nationalism formal analysis and literary careerism Adulterous Alliances Richard Helgerson, 2000-11 The result is an unexpected prehistory of the nineteenth and twentieth century cult of domesticity BOOK JACKET Remembering, Forgetting and City Builders Dr Haim Yacobi, Dr Tovi Fenster, 2012-11-28 Remembering Forgetting and City Builders critically explores how urban spaces are designed planned and experienced in relation to the politics of collective and personal memory construction Bringing together case studies from North America South Asia Eastern Europe and the Middle East the book analyzes how contested national ethnic and cultural sentiments clash in planning and experiencing urban spaces Going beyond the claim that such situations exist in many parts of the world because communities construct their past memories within their current daily life and future aspirations the book explores how the very acts of planning and urban design are rooted in the existing structures of hegemonic power With contributors from the fields of architecture geography planning anthropology and sociology urban studies and cultural studies the book provides a rich interdisciplinary view into the conflicts over memory and belonging which are spatially expressed and mediated through the official planning apparatus John Norden's The Surveyor's Dialogue (1618) Mark Netzloff, 2016-05-06 This edition provides the first complete modern version of John Norden's The Surveyor's Dialogue Norden's text a series of dialogues between a fictional surveyor and several interlocutors including a tenant farmer an aristocrat landowner a manorial officer and a socially mobile land buyer is remarkable for its unique commentary on the agrarian roots of English capitalism In his extensive introduction Mark Netzloff situates the text in relation to a number of early modern contexts He discusses the use of dialogue and other literary forms in proto scientific writing and the role of print in the increasing professionalism of early surveyors Netzloff also examines the impact of capital formation on agrarian and manorial class relations discussing topics such as popular protest and revolt cottagers and the rural poor regionalism and urbanization and the transformation of the natural environment through deforestation enclosure and the appropriation of commons Alongside a thorough annotation of technical and historical terms the edition provides a list of textual variants

among early modern versions of the text This critical edition of The Surveyor's Dialogue constitutes an important contribution to early modern scholarship and it will be invaluable to scholars from a range of fields including the history of science economic and agrarian history and literary and cultural studies

Childhood, Education and the Stage in Early Modern England Richard Preiss, Deanne Williams, 2017-05-02 What did childhood mean in early modern England To answer this question this book examines two key contemporary institutions the school and the stage The rise of grammar schools and universities and of the professional stage featuring boy actors reflect the culture's massive investment in children In this collection an international group of well respected scholars examines how the representation of children by major playwrights and poets reflected the period's educational and cultural values This book contains chapters that range from Shakespeare and Ben Jonson to the contemporary plays of Tom Stoppard and that explore childhood in relation to classical humanism medicine art and psychology revealing how early modern performance and educational practices produced attitudes to childhood that still resonate to this day

Andrew Marvell A. D. Cousins, 2016-03-02 This monograph studies how across the Folio of 1681 Marvell's poems engage not merely with different kinds of loss and aspiration but with experiences of both that were in mid seventeenth century England disturbingly new and unfamiliar It particularly examines Marvell's preoccupation with the search for home and with redefining the homeland in times of civil upheaval In doing so it traces his progression from being a poet who plays sophisticatedly with received myth to being one who is a national mythmaker in rivalry with his poetic contemporaries such as Waller and Davenant Although focusing primarily on poems in the Folio of 1681 this book considers those poems in relation to others from the Marvell canon including the Latin poems and the satires from the reign of Charles II It closely considers them as well in relation to verse by poets from the classical past and the European especially English present

Strange Communion Jacqueline Vanhoutte, 2003 Strange Communion concerns the development in Tudor culture of a tendency to identify the common good with the health of the motherland Playwrights polemicists and politicians such as John Bale Richard Morison and William Shakespeare among others relied on maternal representations of England to evoke a sense of common purpose Vanhoutte examines how such motherland tropes came to describe England how they changed in response to specific political crises and how they came by the end of the sixteenth century to shape literary ideals of masculinity While Henrician propagandists appealed to Mother England in order to enforce dynastic privilege their successors modified nationalist symbols as to qualify absolute monarchy The accessions of two queens thus encouraged a convergence of nationalist and patriarchal ideologies in late Tudor works evocations of the national family tend to efface class distinctions while reinforcing gender distinctions Dr Jacqueline Vanhoutte is an assistant professor at the University of North Texas
