

The Moment

The moment when, after many years of hard work and a long voyage you stand in the centre of your room, house, half-acre, square mile, island, country, knowing at last how you got there, and say, I own this, is the same moment when the trees unloose their soft arms from around you, the birds take back their language, the cliffs fissure and collapse, the air moves back from you like a wave and you can't breathe.

No, they whisper. You own nothing.
You were a visitor, time after time climbing the hill, planting the flag, proclaiming.
We never belonged to you.
You never found us.
It was always the other way round.

The Magazine of Poetry and Literary Review Charles Wells Moulton, 1892 Behind the Poem Robert Hull, 2019-08-09 Published in 1988 this book is a teacher s eye view of how children come to write and rewrite poems and of how they make aesthetic choices in their writing Drawing on over twenty years experience of teaching poetry in primary and secondary schools Robert Hull presents a detailed account of the process of writing poetry in the classroom The reader is invited almost in confidence to be witness to a skilled teacher s planning recognition and definition of children s emergent understanding and expertise The author adopts a non behaviourist model which stresses difficulty and uncertainty rejecting a simplistic

The Life and Poetry of Frank Stanford James McWilliams,2025-07-01 The full throated biography fans have been yearning for Kirkus Starred Review April 2025 When twenty nine year old Frank Stanford put three bullets in his chest on June 3 1978 he ended a life that had been inextricably linked with poetry since childhood Deeply influential but largely unknown outside his corner of the poetry world this prodigy of the American South inspired a cult following that has kept his reputation and work flickering on the periphery of the American literary tradition ever since The Life and Poetry of Frank Stanford offers for the first time a comprehensive study of Stanford's life and work introducing to a broad readership poetry that remains both captivating to poets and in its celebration of everyday experience over academic erudition accessible to those who rarely read poetry Stanford's poems range from one line to his 15 283 line epic The Battlefield Where the Moon Says I Love You The vital thread running through all of his poetry is an ear for language that vies with Walt Whitman in its expansiveness and generosity Stanford's omnivorous attraction to vernacular particularly Black and rural vernacular centered on an admiration for the marginalized and eccentric Blending the Southern Gothic of Faulkner and O'Connor with a racially egalitarian vision his poetry thrives on the stories and traditions of the oppressed and forgotten The themes that preoccupied Stanford's prolific output language sex death class geography commercialism surrealism film race also preoccupied the poet in his daily life which was marked by heavy drinking philandering mental instability emotional abuse and through it all an inveterate desire for beauty Constantly attentive to this tension biographer James McWilliams traces the short and painfully complicated life of this hidden talent who left a lifetime's worth of poetry that through its grounding in the mundane achieved a vision of the transcendent Lyric Poetry and Space Exploration from Einstein to the Present Margaret Greaves,2023-05-23 Poetry and astronomy often travel together in the political sphere from Milton's meeting with Galileo under house arrest to NASA's practice of launching poems into space Anchored in the post war period but drawing on a long history of poetry and science Lyric Poetry and Space Exploration from Einstein to the Present charts the surprising connection between poetry and extra terrestrial space In an era defined by the vast scales of globalization environmental disaster and space travel poets bring the small scales of lyric intimacy to bear on cosmic immensity While outer space might seem the domain of more popular genres lyric poetry has ancient and enduring associations with cosmic inquiry that have made it central to post war space culture As the Cold War played out in space American institutions and media from NASA to Star Trek enlisted poetry to present space exploration as a peaceful mission on behalf of humankind Meanwhile poets from across the globe have turned to the cosmos to contest American imperialism challenging conventional ideas about lyric poetry in the process Poets including Elizabeth Bishop Adrienne Rich Seamus Heaney Derek Walcott Agha Shahid Ali and Tracy K Smith invoke the extra terrestrial to interrogate national histories alongside their craft Dazzled by the aesthetics of astronomy but wary of its imperial uses poets employ astronomical figures and methods to imagine how we might care for both ourselves and others on a shared planet
