Integration Matters C. P. Gause, 2008 The United States is more racially culturally and linguistically diverse now than at any given point in its history Urbanization and immigration are key contributors to population growth and shifts particularly in the southeastern part of the country Educators are scrambling to determine how best to serve different demographics and many families in new places are trying to adjust to unfamiliar school systems For all concerned this period of adjustment is marked by significant personal curricular and institutional development However one group of individuals has not maintained pace with the rest African American males continue to lag behind their counterparts in every measured educational variable as outlined by the No Child Left Behind legislation despite the educational social and economic changes of the past fifty years since the 1954 landmark Brown vs Board of Education decision This book beyond providing educators parents and students with a critique of present day educational experiences for those who are the other in America particularly the black male conceptually integrates queer legal theory the tenets of critical spirituality and notions of collaborative activism to construct a blueprint for realizing academic achievement and academic success for all students

Minority Student Retention Alan Seidman, 2019-05-23 Student retention continues to be a vexing problem for all colleges and universities In spite of the money spent on creating programs and services to help retain students until they achieve their academic and personal goals and graduate the figures have not improved over time This is particularly true for minority students who have a greater attrition rate than majority students Demographic information shows that the minority population in the United States is growing at a faster rate than the majority It is imperative that educational institutions find ways to help improve retention rates for all students but particularly minority students Retention rates should not differ appreciably among different racial ethnic groups The Journal of College Student Retention Research Theory and Practice is the only scholarly peer reviewed journal devoted solely to college student retention It has published many articles on minority student retention and this topic continues to garner much attention This book is a compilation of the very best of these articles selected on the basis of reviews by a cadre of experts in the education field The articles discuss African American Latino Latina Asian and Asian Pacific Native American and biracial students and institutional commitments to retaining a diverse student population For those interested in this vital area the collection will teach and inspire them to achieve greater heights and pay additional attention to retaining minority students in our colleges and universities     Crossroads Louise Carus Mahdi, Nancy Geyer Christopher, Michael Meade, 1996 Thinkers and activists from many orientations and traditions are now coming together to explore ways to reconstitute rites of passage as a form of community healing for our public and personal ills Crossroads is a comprehensive collection of over fifty cutting edge writings on diverse aspects of the transition to adulthood In no uncertain terms Crossroads opens our eyes to our responsibility to the adolescents who are now growing up without sacred rituals and hence without knowledge of spiritual roots in their culture Many of the writers have first hand experience and first rate ideas of how to transform this cultural crisis Crossroads also challenges us to integrate our own inner adolescent Piercing insight with realistic hope Marlon Woodman The Ravaged Bridegroom     Educating African American Males Olatokunbo S. Fashola, 2005-03-23 Engage in exploratory discussion on African American male achievement Why do some students return to school year after year excited and engaged Why do other students dread school have negative feelings toward school or feel unequipped by the challenge or demands of school Educating African American Males offers multiple perspectives on this topic from top scholars in the field of urban education Contributions in this book represent the proceedings from a conference co sponsored by the U S Department of Education and Howard University and devoted to African American male achievement This exciting new resource brings this important discussion to the field and offers unique perspectives covering sociological emotional economic pedagogical and cognitive realms Educating African American Males makes bold strides in moving away from low test scores high dropout and expulsion rates and high disciplinary problems and toward the constructive aim of achieving high quality education for all students
