Principles Of Art History Writing:

Principles of Art History Writing David Carrier, 1991 Principles of Art History Writing traces the changes in the way in which writers about art represent the same works. These differ in such deep ways as to raise the question of whether those at the beginning of the process even saw the same things as those at the end. David Carrier uses four case studies to identify and explain changing styles of restoration and the history of interpretation of selected works by Piero Caravaggio and van Eyck. Back cover

A World Art History and Its Objects David Carrier, 2008-11-28 Is writing a world art history possible? Does the history of art as such even exist outside the Western tradition? Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric? In this highly readable and provocative book David Carrier, a philosopher and art historian, does not attempt to write a world art history himself. Rather, he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written or whether it is even possible to do so. He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history. Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions, Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered when a visual object from one culture, for example, is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture. A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history.

Art History and Its Institutions Elizabeth Mansfield, 2005-08-18 Art History and Its Institutions focuses on the institutional discourses that shaped and continue to shape the field from its foundations in the nineteenth century. From museums and universities to law courts, labour organizations and photography studios, contributors examine a range of institutions considering their impact on movements such as modernism, their role in conveying or denying legitimacy, and their impact on defining the parameters of the discipline.

How to Write Art History Anne D'Alleva, 2006 An invaluable handbook How to Write Art History enables students to get the most from their art history course. In a clear and engaging style, Anne D'Alleva empowers readers to approach their coursework with confidence and energy. The book introduces two basic art historical methods: formal analysis and contextual analysis, revealing how to use these methods in writing papers and in class discussion. The common strengths and weaknesses of an art history essay are highlighted by using real examples of written work, and at each stage of the writing process, D'Alleva offers valuable advice on developing an argument convincingly. In addition, she explains the most effective methods of note taking and outlines strategies for reviewing images, essential tools when preparing for an exam. Providing a fascinating view of the study of art history within its historical context, this book will be particularly helpful for those considering a career in this rewarding discipline.

German Art History and Scientific Thought Mitchell B. Frank, 2017-07-05 A fresh contribution to the ongoing debate between Kunstwissenschaft (scientific study of art) and Kunstgeschichte (art history), this essay collection explores how German-speaking art historians of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century self-consciously generated a field of study. Prominent North American and European scholars provide new insights into how a mixing of diverse methodologies took place in order to gain a more subtle and comprehensive understanding of how art history became institutionalized and legitimized in Germany One common assumption about early art historical writing in Germany is that it depended upon a simplistic and narrowly defined formalism This book helps to correct this stereotype by demonstrating the complexity of discussion surrounding formalist concerns and by examining how German speaking art historians borrowed incorporated stole and made analogies with concepts from the sciences in formulating their methods In focusing on the work of some of the well known fathers of the discipline such as Alois Riegl and Heinrich Wölfflin as well as on lesser known figures the essays in this volume provide illuminating and sometimes surprising treatments of art history's prior and understudied interactions with a wide range of scientific orientations from psychology sociology and physiognomics to evolutionism and comparative anatomy

A Realist Theory of Art History Ian Verstegen, 2013 As the theoretical alignments within academia shift this book introduces a surprising variety of realism to abolish the old positivist theory dichotomy that has haunted Art History Demanding frankly the referential detachment of the objects under study the book proposes a stratified multi causal account of art history that addresses postmodern concerns while saving it from its errors of self refutation Building from the very basic distinction between intransitive being and transitive knowing objects can be affirmed as real while our knowledge of them is held to be fallible Several focused chapters address basic problems while introducing philosophical reflection into art history These include basic ontological distinctions between society and culture general and special history the discontinuity of cultural objects the importance of definition for special history scales facets and fiat objects as forms of historical structure the nature of evidence and proof historical truth and controversies Stressing Critical Realism as the stratified multi causal approach needed for productive research today in the academy this book creates the subject of the ontology of art history and sets aside a theoretical space for metaphysical reflection thus clarifying the usually muddy distinction between theory methodology and historiography in art history

High Art David Carrier, 2010-11-01 The great poet Charles Baudelaire 1821-1867 was also an extremely influential art critic High Art relates the philosophical issues posed by Baudelaire's art writing to the theory and practice of modernist and postmodernist painting Baudelaire wrote in an age of transition David Carrier argues an era divided by the Revolution of 1848 the historical break that played for him a role now taken within modernism by the political revolts of 1968 Moving from the grand tradition of Delacroix to the images of modern life made by Constantin Guys this movement from high to low from the unified world of correspondences to the fragmented images of contemporary city life motivates Baudelaire's equivalent to the post 1968 turn away from formalist art criticism Viewed from the perspective of the 1990s Carrier argues the issues raised by Baudelaire's criticism and creative writing provide a way of understanding the situation of art writing in our own time

Critical Terms for Art History, Second Edition Robert S. Nelson, Richard Shiff, 2010-03-15 Art has always been contested terrain whether the object in question is a medieval tapestry or Duchamp's Fountain But questions about the categories of art and art history acquired increased urgency during the 1970s when new developments in critical theory and other intellectual projects dramatically transformed the discipline. The first edition of Critical Terms for Art History both mapped and contributed to those transformations offering a spirited reassessment of the field's methods and terminology. Art history as a field has kept pace with debates over globalization and other social and political issues in recent years making a second edition of this book not just timely but crucial. Like its predecessor this new edition consists of essays that cover a wide variety of loaded terms in the history of art from sign to meaning ritual to commodity. Each essay explains and comments on a single term discussing the issues the term raises and putting the term into practice as an interpretive framework for a specific work of art. For example Richard Shiff discusses Originality in Vija Celmins's To Fix the Image in Memory a work made of eleven pairs of stones each consisting of one original stone and one painted bronze replica. In addition to the twenty-two original essays this edition includes nine new ones performance style memory monument body beauty ugliness identity visual culture visual studies and social history of art as well as new introductory material. All help expand the book's scope while retaining its central goal of stimulating discussion of theoretical issues in art history and making that discussion accessible to both beginning students and senior scholars.

Dialogues with Degas Kathryn Brown, 2023-12-14

Dialogues with Degas demonstrates the ongoing relevance of Edgar Degas to 20th and 21st century ideas and art practices. The first in-depth examination of this major artist's impact on contemporary art this book explores how contemporary practitioners have used Degas's creativity as a springboard to engage imaginatively and critically with themes of colonialism gender race and class. Individual chapters are devoted to dialogues between Degas's art and works produced by Frank Auerbach, Cecily Brown, Xinyi Cheng, Ryan Gander, Maggi Hambling, Damien Hirst, Howard Hodgkin, Chantal Joffe, Leon Kossoff, R. B. Kitaj, Juan Muñoz, Paula Rego, Jenny Saville, Yinka Shonibare, Cy Twombly and Rebecca Warren. Through close analyses of selected paintings, drawings, prints and sculptures Kathryn Brown explores how Degas's technical and compositional experiments have been extended or challenged in innovative ways. By experimenting with the materials and methods of existing works contemporary artists generate visual palimpsests that make new demands of the viewer and prompt a reconsideration of ideas that have informed histories of 19th century French art. The book overturns familiar conceptions of influence by eschewing a genealogical approach and prioritizing instead the analysis of non-linear encounters between artworks. This encourages a new conception of the agency of visual artefacts and of the conversations they are capable of entertaining with each other. While this study sheds new light on Degas's art and that of his interlocutors it also has methodological significance for the writing of art history Henri Matisse Catherine C. Bock Weiss, 2014-02-25 First published in 1996 The art of the extraordinary French artist Henri Matisse 1869 1954 has provided visual pleasures and intellectual challenges to its viewers for the last hundred years This is collection of gathered summarized and evaluated major literature on the artist primarily from France the United States Germany and the Scandinavian countries where major Matisse collections bear witness to early and intense interest in the artist s work Is Art History Global? James Elkins, 2013-10-18 This is the third volume in The Art Seminar James Elkin s series of conversations on art and visual studies Is Art History Global stages an international conversation among art historians and critics on the subject of the practice and responsibility of global thinking within the discipline Participants range from Keith Moxey of Columbia University to Cao Yiqiang Ding Ning Cuautemoc Medina Oliver Debroise Renato Gonzalez Mello and other scholars Polish Modernism and Jewish Identity Piotr Slodkowski, 2024-12-26 Modernist painter socialist realist Holocaust survivor and student of the Parisian Avant Garde Jewish Polish artist Henryk Streng was extraordinary for his aesthetic innovation during the two major traumas of 20th century European history the Holocaust and Stalinism Yet his legacy in the development of European modernism is rarely acknowledged In this book inspired by the 2021 exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art in Warsaw Piotr Slodkowski demonstrates that the work of Streng disrupts established notions of 20th century Polish art connecting local Polish art history with wider 20th century artistic movements and styles Traversing the 1920s Acad mie Moderne hubs of creativity in interwar Poland Nazi concentration camps and the Polish People s Republic under Soviet influence this book reveals the changing artistic phenomena of Poland between the 1920s and 1950s illustrating how Streng drew on his Jewish Polish identity and the legacy of genocide in his work Rather than deferring to the French Avant Garde Slodkowski sheds light on regional expressions of modernism and emphasises the complexity of identity and creativity in 20th century Poland In doing so this book brings Streng out of the shadows and into wider considerations of modernist European art and its development Our Beautiful, Dry, and Distant Texts James Elkins, 2010-11-01 Elkins argues that writing is what art historians produce and whether such writing is a transparent vehicle for the transmission of facts or an embattled forum for the rehearsal of institutional relations and constructions of history it is an expressive medium with the capacity for emotion and reflection Therefore it needs to be taken seriously for its own sake it is the testament of art history and of individual historians and it is only weakened and slighted by versions of history that imagine it either as uncontrolled dissemination or as objective discovery and reporting Proust/Warhol David Carrier, 2009 Proust Warhol Analytical Philosophy of Art employs three key intellectual tools the aesthetic theory of Arthur Danto the account of Proust by Joshua Landy and the analysis of the art of living by Alexander Nehamas Proust Warhol concludes with a discussion of an issue of particular importance for Warhol the relationship between art and fashion Jacket Types of Interpretation in the Aesthetic Disciplines Staffan Carlshamre, Anders Pettersson, 2003 Types of Interpretation in the Aesthetic Disciplines begins from the observation that interpretation even the special kind represented by interpretation of the arts is not a homogeneous activity The many different types of such interpretation vary with respect to objectives and criteria of adequacy and attempts to explain art interpretation in terms of a single unified logic are therefore bound to fail Five Swedish scholars and theorists from different disciplines literary studies philosophy and art history discuss the multiplicity of principles of interpretation and provide a descriptive analysis of the concept of interpretation itself that clarifies the main features of the rationale underlying the interpretation of literature and the arts Their discussion provides a much needed bridge between analytical aesthetics and theoretical discussion within the individual aesthetic disciplines The introduction and concluding remarks by the editors provide both a frame for discussion of the issues and a historical perspective on the debates about interpretation

Aesthetic Theory, Abstract Art, and Lawrence Carroll David Carrier, 2018-09-06 Boldly developing the central traditions of American modernist abstraction Lawrence Carroll s paintings engage with a fundamental issue of aesthetic theory the nature of the medium of painting in highly original frequently extraordinarily successful ways Aesthetic Theory Abstract Art and Lawrence Carroll explains how he understands the medium of painting shows what his art says about the identity of painting as an art discusses the place of his paintings in the development of abstraction and finally offers an interpretation of his art The first monograph devoted to him this philosophical commentary employs the resources of analytic aesthetics Art historians trace the development of art explaining how what came earlier yields to what comes later Taking for granted that the artifacts they describe are artworks art historians place them within the history of art Philosophical art writers define art explain why it has a history and identify its meaning Pursuing that goal Aesthetic Theory Abstract Art and Lawrence Carroll roams freely across art history focused at some points on the story of old master painting and sometimes on the history of modernism but looking also to contemporary art in order to provide the fullest possible philosophical perspective on Carroll s work

Interpreting Art Sam Rose, 2022-02-10 How do people make sense of works of art And how do they write to make others see the same way There are many guides to looking at art histories of art history and art criticism and accounts of various theories and methods but this book offers something very unlike the normal search for difference and division it examines the general and largely unspoken norms shared by interpreters of many kinds Ranging widely though taking writing within the Western tradition of art history as its primary focus Interpreting Art highlights the norms premises and patterns that tend to guide interpretation along the way Why for example is the concept of artistic intention at once so reviled and yet so hard to let go of What does it really involve when an interpretation appeals to an artwork s reception How can context be used by some to keep things under control and by others to make the interpretation of art seem limitless And how is it that artworks only seem to grow in complexity over time Interpreting Art reveals subtle features of art writing central to the often unnoticed interpretative practices through which we understand works of art In doing so the book also sheds light on possible alternatives pointing to how writers on art might choose to operate differently in the future
