Scientific Principles of Sports Training Dr. P. Gopinathan, Sports training is highly influenced by the scientific methods to achieve the best result The knowledge from various dimensions of science has to be incorporated during the process of training Now sports training methods acquired greater significance than ever before It is necessary to understand and adapt the proper training procedure through referring to the scientific literature The Principles of Nature Andrew Jackson Davis, 1871 The Idea of Progress John Bagnell Bury, 1921 Principles of European Prison Law and Policy Dirk van Zyl Smit, Sonja Snacken, 2009-01-08 In recent years European prison law and policy have emerged as a force to be reckoned with This book explores its development and analyses the penological and human rights foundations on which it is based It examines the findings of the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture the recommendations of the Council of Europe and the judgments of the European Court of Human Rights From these sources it makes the general principles that underlie European prison law and policy explicit emphasising the principle of using imprisonment as a last resort and the recognition of prisoners rights The book then moves on to apply these principles to conditions of imprisonment regimes in prison contacts between prisoners and the outside world and the maintenance of good order in prisons The final chapter of the book considers how European prison law and policy could best be advanced in future The authors argue that the European Court of Human Rights should adopt a more proactive approach to ensuring that imprisonment is used only as a last resort and that a more radical interpretation of the existing provisions of the European Convention on Human Rights will allow it to do so It concludes that the growing cooperation on prison matters within Europe bodes well for the increased recognition of prisoners rights across Europe In spite of some countervailing voices Europe should increasingly be able to give an international lead in a human rights approach to prison law and policy in the same way it has done with the abolition of the death penalty
