Refugee Lifeworlds Y-Dang Troeung, 2022-08-29 Utilizing the concept of aphasia this book demonstrates how Cambodian refugee narratives resist state violence and take head on hegemonic discourses across popular and scholarly spaces that prop up colonial imperial capitalist heteropatriarchal and ableist formations of the Cold War in Cambodia The Making and Breaking of Minds: How social interactions shape the human mind Isabella Sarto-Jackson, 2022-04-05 The human brain has a truly remarkable capacity It reorganizes itself flexibly adjusting to fluctuating environmental conditions a process called neuroplasticity Neuroplasticity provides the basis for wide ranging learning and memory processes that are particularly profuse during childhood and adolescence At the same time the exceptional malleability of the developing brain leaves it highly vulnerable to negative impact from the surroundings Abusive or neglecting social environments as well as socioeconomic deprivation and poverty cause toxic stress and complex traumas that can severely compromise cognitive development emotional processing self perception and executive brain functions The neurophysiological changes entailed impair emotional regulation lead to heightened anxiety and afflict attachment and the formation of social bonds Neuroplastic changes following severely adverse experiences are not something that a person grows out of and gets over These experiences alter the neurobiological and biochemical makeup and cause people to live in an emotionally relabeled world in which the evaluation of any social cue their behavior cognition and state of mind are biased towards the negative Even more worrying detrimental neurophysiological consequences are not limited to the traumatized individual but are often transmitted to subsequent generations through a process of social niche construction thereby creating a vicious cycle Thus the making and breaking forces of the brain are epitomized by parents alloparents peers and our socioeconomic niche This book expounds on the formative role that the social environment plays in healthy brain development especially during infancy childhood and adolescence Based on scientific findings the book advocates for bold measures and responsible stewardship to combat child abuse maltreatment and child poverty By bringing together insights from neuroscience evolutionary biology and social education work it lays out a fact based transdisciplinary endeavor that aims at rising to the societal challenge of providing a rewarding perspective to youth at risk It will be a valuable resource for academics from social education pedagogy cognitive science neuroscience as well as professionals in the fields of social work pedagogy education child welfare Alcoholism: A Review of its Characteristics, Etiology, Treatments, and Controversies Irving Maltzman, 2012-12-06 Alcoholism A Review of Its Characteristics Etiology Treatment and Controversies provides an accurate picture of the current state of research and treatment effectiveness in the field of alcoholism Using compelling evidence Irving Maltzman describes how the field has been distorted by the behavior therapy approach A distinguished experimental psychologist at the University of California Los Angeles Professor Maltzman has written a comprehensive important work marked by incisive argument Alcoholism is an excellent reference for academics as well as professionals working in addictions treatment
