New Perspectives on Academic Writing Bernd Herzogenrath,2022-11-17 Particularly for the disciplines of the humanities and social sciences for which writing is their lifeblood the crisis in academic writing has become existential It is not hard to diagnose the disease and its causes This book showcases what we desperately need radical alternatives experiments we can try out ways of writing that don t just tweak the system but plot a different course altogether This isn t just about finding new genres for these only change the surface appearance without altering the underlying dynamic Rather the editor and contributors focus on finding new ways to join thinking both with writing and the things of which and with which we write Each chapter brims with the kind of liveliness outspokenness and urgency that their theme demands Far from tiptoeing around the edifice of academia they are intent on stirring things up reigniting their scholarship with a fuse of activism in the hope of setting off an explosion that could send ripples throughout the academy

Loving Writing Wendy M.K. Shaw, 2021-09-23 This writing textbook bridges factual critical and expressive modes of writing to help students develop a reflective sense of why and how to write for university professional and public audiences Exploring the ways in which writing builds tools for argument both in and beyond the university it enables students to break out of the dusty and formulaic patterns of writing that too often threaten to render academic studies irrelevant In a playful personal essayistic style it examines existing academic writing methods and develops new modes of narrative based expression rooted in the humanities Reflective analysis invites emerging writers to self consciously craft convincing and impassioned writing practices using an expanded methodological toolbox It aims to imbue academic writing with the expressive potential of artistic research by transforming existing methods of articulating analysis within a broader expressive system developing skills more typical of creative writing such as providing a setting considering frame engaging emotions expansion and concision If we believe in the value of our thoughts discoveries and arguments we must enable them to sing Loving Writing can be used as a textbook for advanced or introductory college writing courses and provides innovative guidance to liberal arts students seeking to develop their writing abilities
