Areford, 2017-07-05 Structured around in depth and interconnected case studies and driven by a methodology of material contextual and iconographic analysis this book argues that early European single sheet prints in both the north and south are best understood as highly accessible objects shaped and framed by individual viewers Author David Areford offers a synthetic historical narrative of early prints that stresses their unusual material nature as well as their accessibility to a variety of viewers both lay and monastic This volume represents a shift in the study of the early printed image one that mirrors the widespread movement in art history away from issues of production style and the artist toward issues of reception function and the viewer Areford s approach is intensely grounded in the object especially the unacknowledged material complexity of the print as a portable malleable and accessible image that depended on a response that was not only visual but often physical emotional and psychological Recognizing that early prints were not primarily designed for aesthetic appreciation the author analyzes how their meanings stemmed from specific functions involving private devotion protection indulgences the cult of saints pilgrimage exorcism the art of memory and anti Semitic propaganda Although the medium s first century was clearly transitional and experimental Areford explores how its potential to impact viewers in new ways both positive and negative was quickly realized      Art and Humanist Ideals William Kelly, Jenny Zimmer, 2003 In a radical departure from the conventional art history text this unique volume brings together a number of the world's great artist image makers and thinkers on issues of art and its expression for contemporary humanity With early seminal texts by novelist Thomas Mann theologian Paul Tillich art historian Herbert Read as a foundation the content then moves through late 20th century to post September 11 material with contributions by Lucy R Lippard Barry Schwartz Suzi Gablik Vaclav Havel Philippa Hobbs Elizabeth Rankin Guenter Grass Doreen Mellor Douglas Kellner Robert Godfrey Ricardo Levins Morales Nigel Spivey and others It bridges grass roots to academic cultural dialogue Focusing on prints limited editions hand pulled posters and photographs it includes images from poster collectives work by Peter Schumann from the cheap art movement photographs by Judith Joy Ross Dominic Hsieh and Nick Ut's powerful image Vietnam Napalm There are drawings and limited edition prints by leading artist printmakers from Europe Africa Asia the Middle East Australia and North and South America It is a book that intelligently celebrates the engagement of art with life with issues of social justice peace human rights paying tribute to the seldom acknowledged contribution of Modern Art to humanist thought In so doing it reassesses what have been regional perspectives as compared to the world wide contribution of humanist art      The Evolution of the Book Frederick G.
