Prints and Related Drawings by the Carracci Family Diane DeGrazia, 1979 Prints and Related Drawings by the Carraccci Family Diane Bohlin DeGrazia, Ludovico Carracci (Peintre, Italie), National Gallery of Art (Washington, DC), Agostino Carracci (Peintre, Dessinateur, Italie), Annibale Carracci (Peintre, Dessinateur, Italie), Francesco Carracci (Painter), 1979 Prints and Related Drawings by the Carracci Family Diane DeGrazia Bohlin, National gallery of art (Washington, D.C.), 1979 Prints and Related Drawings by the Carracci Family Diane DeGrazia Bohlin, National gallery of art (Washington, D.C.), 1979 Prints and Printmaking Antony Griffiths, 1996 Introductory text that touches on the basics of various printmaking techniques and briefly describes the history of each Sculpture in Print, 1480-1600 Anne Bloemacher, Mandy Richter, Marzia Faietti, 2021-04-19 Sculpture in Print 1480 1600 is the first in depth study dedicated to the intriguing history of the translation of statues and reliefs into print The multitude of engravings woodcuts and etchings show a highly creative handling of the original antique or contemporary work of art The essays in this volume reflect these various approaches to and challenges of translating sculpture in print They analyze foremost the beginnings of the phenomenon in Italian and Northern Renaissance prints and they highlight by means of case studies amongst many other topics the interrelated terminology between sculpture and print lost models in print the inventive handling of fragments as well as the transformation of statues into narrative contexts Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1982 Jusepe de Ribera 1591-1652 Alfonso E. Pérez Sánchez, Nicola Spinosa, Andrea Bayer, 1992 Forbidden Desire in Early Modern Europe Noel Malcolm, 2024 Forbidden Desire is a pioneering study of the history of male male sex in the whole of Early Modern Europe including the European colonies and the Ottoman world The Craft of Art Georgia Museum of Art, 1995 In this collection of nine essays some of the preeminent art historians in the United States consider the relationship between art and craft between the creative idea and its realization in Renaissance and Baroque Italy The essays all previously unpublished are devoted to the pictorial arts and are accompanied by nearly 150 illustrations Examining works by such artists as Michelangelo Titian Volterrano Giovanni di Paolo and Annibale Carracci along with aspects of the artists creative processes work habits and aesthetic convictions the essayists explore the ways in which art was conceived and produced at a time when collaboration with pupils assistants or independent masters was an accepted part of the artistic process The consensus of the contributors amounts to a revision or at least a qualification of Bernard Berenson's interpretation of the emergent Renaissance ideal of individual genius as a measure of original artistic achievement we must accord greater influence to the collaborative appropriative conventions and practices of the craft workshop which persisted into and beyond the Renaissance from its origins in the Middle Ages Consequently we must acknowledge the sometimes rather ordinary beginnings of some of the world's great works of art an admission say the contributors that will open new avenues of study and enhance our understanding of the complex

connections between invention and execution With one exception these essays were delivered as lectures in conjunction with the exhibition The Artists and Artisans of Florence Works from the Horne Museum hosted by the Georgia Museum of Art in the fall of 1992 The Paintings and Related Drawings of Giacomo Cavedone (1577-1660) Laura Giles, 1986

Fuseli's Milton Gallery Luisa Cale, 2006-12-21 Fuseli's Milton Gallery challenges the antipictorial theories and canons of Romantic period culture Between 1791 and 1799 Swiss painter Henry Fuseli turned Milton's Paradise Lost into a series of 40 pictures Fuseli's project and other literary galleries developed within an expanding market for illustrated books and a culture of anthologization used to reading British and other classics in terms of the visualization of key moments in the text Thus transformed into repositories of virtual pictures literary texts became ideal sources of subjects for painters Illustrating British literature was a way of inventing a national grand style to fit the needs of a consumer society Cale calls into question the separation of reading and viewing as autonomous aesthetic practices To turn readers into spectators meant to place readers and reading within the dizzying world of associations offered by an emerging culture of exhibitions Attending to the energized reading effects developed by Fuseli's Gallery we rediscover a new side of the Romantic imagination which is not the solitary mentalist experience preferred by Wordsworth and Coleridge nor divorced from the senses let alone a refuge from the crowded public spaces of the Revolutionary period Rather Fuseli's embodied aesthetic exemplifies the associationist psychology espoused by the radical circle convening around the publisher Joseph Johnson including Joseph Priestley and Mary Wollstonecraft This book analyses exhibitions as important sites of Romantic sociability and one of many interrelated mediums for the literature debates and controversies of the Revolutionary period Siting Federico Barocci and the Renaissance Aesthetic Peter Gillgren, 2017-07-05 Focusing on what he calls the performative gaze the author explores the artistic world of the Urbino painter Federico Barocci 1535-1612 in the context of Renaissance culture Through analysis of Barocci's works Gillgren also sheds new light on Renaissance aesthetic communication generally The first part of the book discusses the poetics of Early Modern painting based on contemporary theories of Reception Aesthetics hermeneutics and phenomenology but grounded in Renaissance culture itself through numerous examples from Early Modern painting The author discusses works by such artists as Botticelli Raphael Titian Velázquez and Poussin from the point of view of their spectator status The second part deals specifically with the art of Federico Barocci showing in detail how his works relate to aspects of the gaze and to their intended spectators Gillgren's method is unusual in that he takes care to set the images within their original physical contexts lighting space framing materials angle of viewer approach as much as possible through careful analysis of early descriptions of now destroyed or modified chapels The third section of the volume contains a brief catalogue of Barocci's paintings presented in a chronological order with a full bibliography and with details about the painting's original locations European Drawings 4 Nicholas Turner, 2001-01-03 The collection of drawings at the Getty Museum was started in 1981 with the purchase of Rembrandt's Nude Woman with a Snake and has steadily expanded since then so that now at the turn of the new millennium it stands at more than six hundred drawings and is sheet for sheet one of the best anywhere The Getty goal is to create from the finest examples a collection of the different Western European schools of drawing before 1900 with special emphasis on the work of the most important and accomplished draftsmen The collection now contains superb examples of the work of Leonardo da Vinci Raphael Michelangelo D rer Rembrandt Claude Lorraine Watteau Gainsborough David Millet Manet Van Gogh and Degas This is the fourth in the series of catalogues describing the drawings in the Getty Museum Most of the drawings discussed in the present volume were chosen for the collection in the period of 1994 to 1998 and include examples from the Italian German Dutch and Flemish French Spanish and British schools Also included are several gifts from private collectors which mark the start of a tradition that it is hoped will continue in the future The catalogue entries for these new acquisitions are organized first by national school and then by artist The book also includes a bibliography and indexes of artists former owners related drawings prints and works in other media

Poussin and France Todd Olson, Nicolas Poussin, 2002-01-01 Nicolas Poussin perhaps the most famous French painter of the seventeenth century lived and worked for many years in Rome Yet he remained deeply engaged with cultural and political transformations occurring in France argues Todd R Olson in this original exploration of Poussin s paintings their production and their reception Poussin s references to ancient literature and sculpture addressed a political elite the Robe nobility whose humanist education in classical antiquity equipped them to relate Greek and Roman history to contemporary events and to deploy ancient precedents in legalistic and political arguments When the French civil war known as the Fronde erupted in the middle of the seventeenth century the paintings that Poussin exported to France responded directly in both subject and style to the crisis in monarchical authority and the disenfranchisement of his Robe patrons Olson demonstrates that Poussin s association with a disgraced political group his loss of official support and his exile in Italy imbued his history paintings with a symbolic weight The painter s audience considered the hardearned pleasures of his restrained difficult pictorial style a benchmark of integrity as well as a criticism of the Regency s indiscriminate collecting practices and taste for foreign luxury Poussin transformed the easel painting its making and collection into an expression of cultural and political commitments binding a community Olson s fresh insights reveal the importance of this painter s work to a learned and powerful French constituency at a critical moment in French history and demonstrate that Poussin s famously timeless style was far more responsive to historical contingencies than has been previously recognized

Seventeenth-century Art & Architecture Ann Sutherland Harris, 2005 Encompassing the socio political cultural background of the period this title takes a look at the careers of the Old Masters and many lesser known artists The book covers artistic developments across six countries and examines in detail many of the artworks on display

Visual Cultures of Secrecy in Early Modern Europe Timothy McCall, Sean Roberts, 2013-04-01 Secrets in all their variety permeated early modern Europe from the whispers of ambassadors at court to the emphatically publicized books of home remedies that flew from presses and booksellers shops

This interdisciplinary volume draws on approaches from art history and cultural studies to investigate the manifestations of secrecy in printed books and drawings staircases and narrative paintings ecclesiastical furnishings and engravers tools Topics include how patrons of art and architecture deployed secrets to construct meanings and distinguish audiences and how artists and patrons manipulated the content and display of the subject matter of artworks to create an aura of exclusive access and privilege Essays examine the ways in which popes and princes skillfully deployed secrets in works of art to maximize social control and how artists printers and folk healers promoted their wares through the impression of valuable mysterious knowledge The authors contributing to the volume represent both established authorities in their field as well as emerging voices This volume will have wide appeal for historians art historians and literary scholars introducing readers to a fascinating and often unexplored component of early modern culture Michelangelo in Print Bernadine Barnes, 2017-07-05

In seeing printed reproductions as a form of response to Michelangelo's work Bernadine Barnes focuses on the choices that printmakers and publishers made as they selected which works would be reproduced and how they would be presented to various audiences Six essays set the reproductions in historical context and consider the challenges presented by works in various media and with varying degrees of accessibility while a seventh considers how published verbal descriptions competed with visual reproductions Rather than concentrating on the intentions of the artist Barnes treats the prints as important indicators of the use of and public reaction to Michelangelo's works Emphasizing reception and the construction of history her approach adds to the growing body of scholarship on print culture in the Renaissance The volume includes a comprehensive checklist organized by the work reproduced Funerary Inscriptions in Early Modern Europe, 2025-05-26

This volume brings together studies that consider funerary inscriptions from Early Modern Europe 1400 1800 from various angles their material dimension their literary character the content of what they are stating their relation to sculpted and other decorations and the wider context of a culture of commemoration and remembrance The central question is how were funerary inscriptions used to shape the memory of a deceased person in such a way as to determine how s he would be remembered and what s he would be commemorated for How would this image fit in the contemporary collective culture of remembrance or in narrower spheres as for instance specific religious groups or denominations Contributors are Faith D Acker Kaylee P Alexander Ramona Baltolu Jens Borchert Pickenhan Veronika Brandis Christopher Joby Jan L de Jong Katharina Kagerer Rodney Lokaj Anu M nd Luise Mervin John Nassichuk Stefania Pasti Snezana Rajic Robert Seidel Federica Vermot Arsenii Vetushko Kalevich Maia Wellington Gahtan and Stamatis Zochios Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28

First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition
