filmmaker Beware of the Other Side(s) Heike Schwarz,2014-03-15 This interdisciplinary study examines the still vivid phenomenon of the most controversial psychiatric diagnosis in the United States multiple personality disorder now called dissociative identity disorder This syndrome comprehends the occurrence of two or more distinct identities that take control of a person s behavior paired with an inexplicable memory loss Synthesizing the fields of psychiatry and the dynamics of the disorder with its influential representation in American fiction the study researches how psychiatry and fiction mutually shaped a mysterious syndrome and how this reciprocal process created a genre fiction of its own that persists until today in a very distinct self referential mode Good Day Today Daniel Neofetou,2012-12-16 This book argues that the films of David Lynch pose a radical challenge to conservative and absolutist ideologies Return to Twin Peaks Jeffrey Andrew Weinstock,Catherine Spooner,2015-11-17 Return to Twin Peaks offers new critical considerations and approaches to the Twin Peaks series as well as reflections on its significance and legacy With texts that analyze the ways in which readers and viewers endow texts with meaning in light of historically situated and culturally shared emphases and interpretive strategies this volume showcases the ways in which new theoretical paradigms can reinvigorate and enrich understanding of what Twin Peaks was and what it has become since it went off the air in 1991 The Femme Fatale Julie Grossman,2020-09-18 Ostensibly the villain but also a model of female power poise and intelligence the femme fatale embodies Hollywood s contradictory attitudes toward ambitious women But how has the figure of the femme fatale evolved over time and to what extent have these changes reflected shifting cultural attitudes toward female independence and sexuality This book offers readers a concise look at over a century of femmes fatales on both the silver screen and the TV screen Starting with ethnically exoticized silent film vamps like Theda Bara and Pola Negri it examines classic film noir femmes fatales like Barbara Stanwyck in Double Indemnity as well as postmodern revisions of the archetype in films like Basic Instinct and Memento Finally it explores how contemporary film and television creators like Fleabag and Killing Eve s Phoebe Waller Bridge have appropriated the femme fatale in sympathetic and surprising ways Analyzing not only the films themselves but also studio press kits and reviews The Femme Fatale considers how discourses about the pleasures and dangers of female performance are projected onto the figure of the femme fatale Ultimately it is a celebration of how bad girl roles have provided some of Hollywood s most talented actresses opportunities to fully express their on screen charisma Another Me Heather Duerre Humann,2018-01-12 A figure from ancient folklore the doppelganger in fiction a character s sinister look alike continues to appear in literature television and film The modern day version of the Doppelganger or double goer in German is typically depicted in a form adapted to reflect present day social anxieties Focusing on a broad range of narratives the author explores 21st century representations in novels such as Audrey Niffenegger s Her Fearful Symmetry Jose Saramago s The Double television shows Orphan Black Battlestar Galactica Ringer and movies The Island The Prestige Oblivion Print, Text and Book Cultures in South Africa Andrew van der Vlies,2012-09-01 An explanation of the unique role

Transmedial Narratology and Contemporary Media Culture Jan-Noël Thon,2016-08-01 It has become something of a cliché within the field of narratology to assert the commercial aesthetic and sociocultural relevance of narrative representations but the fact remains that narratives are everywhere Whenever we read a novel or a comic watch a film or an episode of our favorite television series or play the latest video game we are likely to engage with narrative media Similarly the intermedial adaptations and transmedial entertainment franchises that have become increasingly visible during the past few decades are at their core narrative forms Since a significant part of contemporary media culture is defined by the narratives we tell each other via various media the media studies discipline needs a genuinely transmedial narratology Transmedial Narratology and Contemporary Media Culture focuses on the intersubjective construction of storyworlds as well as on prototypical forms of narratorial and subjective representation It provides not only a method for the analysis of salient transmedial strategies of narrative representation in contemporary films comics and video games but also a theoretical frame within which medium specific approaches from literary and film narratology from comics studies and game studies and from various other strands of media and cultural studies may be employed to further our understanding of narratives across media Jan No l Thon is a research associate in the Department of Media Studies at the University of Tbingen Germany He is the coeditor of a number of books on narrative and media studies including From Comic Strips to Graphic Novels Contributions to the Theory and History of Graphic Narrative and Storyworlds across Media Toward a Media Conscious Narratology Nebraska 2014

Being Human Ron Broglio,Frederick Young,2017-10-02 Technology and animals often serve as the boundaries by which we define the human In this issue contributors explore these categories as necessary supplements or as porous membranes which disturb the scaffolding of how the human is constructed A lingering question throughout is whether we have ever been human or if such a category is a non localizable ideal or perhaps a misnomer In this collection of essays internationally known theorists muddle the categorical boundaries such that animals and technologies become necessary components rather than limits for what it means to be human They examine a range of subjects including apophatic animality critical media objects to think with biosemiotic insect resonances the monstrous and horrific which dislodges our cultural animals and the problem of thinking of animality as stupidity Novels films digital objects scientific laboratories philosophical texts animals on the road and in the fields serve as sites for inquiry The result of these investigations is the spectral possibility that we are not the humans we make ourselves out to be This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki Engagements with Narrative Janine Utell, 2015-10-08 Balancing key foundational topics with new developments and trends Engagements with Narrative offers an accessible introduction to narratology As new narrative forms and media emerge the study of narrative and the ways people communicate through imagination empathy and storytelling is especially relevant for students of literature today Janine Utell presents the foundational texts key concepts and big ideas that form narrative theory and practical criticism engaging readers in the study of stories by telling the story of a field and its development Distinct features designed to initiate dialogue and debate include Coverage of philosophical and historical contexts surrounding the study of narrative An introduction to essential thinkers along with the tools to both use and interrogate their work A survey of the most up to date currents including mind theory and postmodern ethics to stimulate conversations about how we read fiction life writing film and digital media from a variety of perspectives A selection of narrative texts chosen to demonstrate critical practice and spark further reading and research Engagement sections to encourage students to engage with narrative theory and practice through interviews with scholars This guide teaches the key concepts of narrative time space character perspective setting while facilitating conversations among different approaches and media and opening paths to new inquiry Engagements with Narrative is ideal for readers needing an introduction to the field as well as for those seeking insight into both its historical developments and new directions The Multiple Worlds of Fringe Tanya R. Cochran, Sherry Ginn, Paul Zinder, 2014-08-21 With diverse contributions from scholars in English literature psychology and film and television studies this collection of essays contextualizes Fringe as a postmodern investigation into what makes us human and as an examination of how technology transforms our humanity In compiling this collection the editors sought material as multifaceted as the series itself devoting sections to specific areas of interest explored by both the writers of Fringe and the writers of the essays humanity duality genre and viewership
