Prints Of The 20th Century A History:

Prints of the 20th Century Riva Castleman, 1988 Works from the collection of New York City's Museum of Modern Art illustrate a history survey of modern printmaking and of the styles techniques and modes of such masters as Chagall Klee Matisse Miro Picasso and Rauschenberg Prints of the 20th Century Riva Castleman, 1976-10-01 Prints of the Twentieth Century : a History ; with Illustrations from the Collection of the Museum of Modern Art Castleman, Riva, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), Musée d'art moderne (New York, N.Y.), 1976 Prints of the Twentieth Century Riva Castleman, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 1976 Directory of Museums Kenneth Hudson, Ann Nicholls, 1975-06-18 Empires of Print Patrick Scott Belk, 2017-05-08 At the turn of the twentieth century the publishing industries in Britain and the United States underwent dramatic expansions and reorganization that brought about an increased traffic in books and periodicals around the world Focusing on adventure fiction published from 1899 to 1919 Patrick Scott Belk looks at authors such as Joseph Conrad H G Wells Conan Doyle and John Buchan to explore how writers of popular fiction engaged with foreign markets and readers through periodical publishing Belk argues that popular fiction particularly the adventure genre developed in ways that directly correlate with authors experiences and shows that popular genres of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries emerged as one way of marketing their literary works to expanding audiences of readers worldwide Despite an over determined print space altered by the rise of new kinds of consumers and transformations of accepted habits of reading publishing and writing the changes in British and American publishing at the turn of the twentieth century inspired an exciting new period of literary invention and experimentation in the adventure genre and the greater part of that invention and experimentation was happening in the magazines Prints of the Twentieth Century Riva Castleman, 1976 This book explores the significance of printmaking to art movements such as Expressionism Surrealism and Pop Art The full range of printmaking techniques is covered and all major artists in the medium are discussed from Pierre Bonnard and Edvard Munch through Pablo Picasso to David Hockney Frank Stella and the contemporary avant garde Australian national bibliography, 1961 The Directory of Museums & Living Displays Kenneth Hudson, Ann Nicholls, 1985-06-18 Violent Women in Print Clare Bielby, 2012 West Germany's terrorist period of the 1970s is still a troubling and fascinating subject for Germans not least because of the high proportion of women involved most notoriously Ulrike Meinhof The present study examines the West German print media of the 1960s and 1970s from the right wing Bild to the left leaning Der Spiegel to explore how violent women both terrorists and others were represented in image and text This is the first book to explore print media representations of German terrorism from an explicitly gendered perspective and one of very few books in English to address Contemporary Chinese Print Media Zheng Yi, 2013-10-01 This book examines the transformations in form genre and content of contemporary Chinese print media It describes and analyses the role of post reform social stratification in the media focusing particularly on how the changing practices and institutions of the industry correspond to and accelerate the emergence of a relatively affluent urban leisure reading market. It argues that this reinvention of Chinese print media vis-à-vis the creation of a post-socialist taste class culture is an essential part of the cultural and affective transformations in contemporary Chinese society and demonstrates how the reinvention of such taste culture effectively creates through new kinds of reading materials and carefully demarcated target audiences a middle class civility that serves as the locus of the new niche media market.

Poetic Modernism in the Culture of Mass Print Bartholomew Brinkman, 2016-12-15 How scrapbooking, book collecting and other ways of handling print media informed modernist poetry. In Poetic Modernism in the Culture of Mass Print, Bartholomew Brinkman argues that an emerging mass print culture conditioned the production, reception and institutionalization of poetic modernism from the latter part of the nineteenth century through the middle of the twentieth century with lasting implications for the poetry and media landscape. Drawing upon extensive archival research in the United States and Britain, Brinkman demonstrates that a variety of print collecting practices including the anthology, the periodical, the collage, poem volumes of selected and collected poems and the modern poetry archive helped structure key formal and institutional sites of poetic modernism. Brinkman focuses on the generative role of book collecting practices and the negotiation of print ephemera in scrapbooks. He also traces the evolution of the modern poetry archive as a particular case of the mid-twentieth century rise of literary archives and identifies parallels between the beginning of mass print culture at the end of the nineteenth century and the growth of digital culture today. Advocating for a transatlantic modernism that stretches roughly from 1880 to 1960, one that incorporates both popular and canonical poets, Brinkman successfully extends the geographical, historical and vertical dimensions of modernist studies. Poetic Modernism in the Culture of Mass Print will appeal not only to scholars and students of literary modernism, modern periodical studies, book history, print culture, media studies, history of art, history of museum studies but also to librarians, archivists, museum curators and information science professionals.

Print Culture in Southern Africa Caroline Davis, Archie Dick, Elizabeth le Roux, Dennis Walder, 2021-07-29 Print Culture in Southern Africa is concerned with the institutions and processes informing textual production, circulation and consumption in the region over a broad historical period from the late 18th century to the present day. The book is organised around three closely related themes. Firstly, it presents original research into the formation of reading publics and the impact of reading cultures by uncovering obscure but important reading communities and circuits of book distribution and reception.

A second theme is the relationship between print and politics with a particular focus on the networks of power how control over the production and circulation of printed books has shaped literary and cultural development The third theme is transnational print culture and how the control exercised by publishers in Europe and America has shaped literature and society in southern Africa Drawing together interdisciplinary research and diverse methodologies the collection encompasses a range of perspectives including literary studies anthropology publishing studies the history of the book and art history and many of the chapters are based on previously unexamined archives and collections The volume contributes to current debates and opens up new and exciting ways of furthering the study of postcolonial literature and African book history The chapters included in this book were originally published in the Journal of Southern African Studies A Guide to the Historical Collection of Prints Exhibited in the Second Northern Gallery British Museum. Department of Prints and Drawings,1887 Impressions of the 20th Century Victoria and Albert Museum,2001-10 Drawing on the Victoria Albert s magnificent collection of 20th century prints this concise history of printmaking is presented through the work of internationally renowned artists Each year of the century is represented by a print or a set of prints revealing the versatility of the medium and offering insights into the development of different techniques From etchings and woodblock prints to abstract lithographs and screenprints this book shows how artists have been pushing forward the boundaries of the fine art print over the last 100 years
