Prison Conditions In Poland:

Prison Conditions in Poland Herman Schwartz, Human Rights Watch (Organization), 1988 The Human Rights Watch Global Report on Prisons Human Rights Watch (Organization), 1993 14 After a riot Political Prisoners in Poland International Committee for Political Prisoners, 1927 Europe in Prisons Tom Daems, Luc Robert, 2017-11-06 This volume explores the role that European institutions have come to play in regulating national prisons systems The authors introduce and contribute to advancing a new research agenda in international penology Europe in prisons which complements the conventional comparative approach prisons in Europe The chapters examine the impact if any that institutions such as the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment and the European Court of Human Rights have had on prison policy throughout Europe With contributions from a wide range of countries such as Albania Austria Belgium Ireland Norway and Spain this edited collection offers a wide ranging and authoritative guide to the effects of European institutions on prison policy Political Trials in Poland 1981-1986 Andrzej Swidlicki, 2024-04-01 First published in 1988 Political Trials in Poland 1981 1986 describes the major political trials which took place in Poland between 1981 and 1986 Based on extensive original research using both official and unofficial information from Poland and interviews with Solidarity activists it shows how the trials constituted an attempt by the Jaruzelski regime to break the back of the independent Solidarity movement by judicial and penal measures It discusses how the authorities abused the law and how the law itself leaves much to be desired and it charts the different human rights that were violated in each case It considers the implications of the abuse of law in this way for the rule of law and the image of the state in communist countries This book will be of interest to students of history and political science Comparing Prison Systems Nigel South, Robert P. Weiss, 2014-01-02 This book provides in depth original and critical analyses by leading scholars of the penal systems of 16 nations around the world focusing on changes in social structure culture and punishment since 1975 Contributors provide an international and comparative context in which to understand the impact of recent profound economic social and political changes on penal theory and practice Human Rights Watch World Report 1992 Human Rights Watch, 1991 Criminality and Criminal Justice in Contemporary Poland Konrad Buczkowski, Beata Czarnecka-Dzialuk, Witold Klaus, Anna Kossowska, Irena Rzeplińska, Dagmara Woźniakowska-Fajst, Dobrochna Wójcik, 2016-03-09 Criminality has accompanied social life from the outset It has appeared at every stage of the development of every community regardless of organisation form of government or period in history This work presents the views of criminologists from Central Europe on the phenomenon of criminality as a component of social and political reality Despite the far advanced homogenisation of culture and the coming together of the countries that make up the European Union criminality is not easily captured by statistics and simple comparisons There can be huge variation not only on crime reporting systems and information on convicts but also on definitions of the same crimes and their formulations in the criminal codes of the individual European countries This book fills a gap in the English language criminological literature on the causes and determinants of criminality in Central Europe Poland as the largest country in the region whose political post war path has been similar to the other countries in this part of Europe is subject to an exhaustive and original look at criminality as part of the political and social reality The authors offer a contribution to the debate in the social and criminal policy of the state over the problems of criminality and how to control it

Poland's Solidarity Movement and the Global Politics of Human Rights Robert Brier, 2021-06-10 In the historiography of human rights the 1980s feature as little more than an afterthought to the human rights breakthrough of the previous decade Through an examination of one of the major actors of recent human rights history Poland's Solidarity movement Robert Brier challenges this view Suppressed in 1981 Poland's Solidarity movement was supported by a surprisingly diverse array of international groups US Cold Warriors French left wing intellectuals trade unionists Amnesty International even Chilean opponents of the Pinochet regime By unpacking the politics and transnational discourses of these groups Brier demonstrates how precarious the position of human rights in international politics remained well into the 1980s More importantly he shows that human rights were a profoundly political and highly contested language which actors in East and West adopted to redefine their social and political identities in times of momentous cultural and intellectual change

Material Detention Conditions, Execution of Custodial Sentences and Prisoner Transfer in the EU Member States Gert Vermeulen, 2011 In 2008 for the European Union the introduction of the Framework Decision the principle of mutual recognition to judgments in criminal matters imposing custodial sentences or measures involving deprivation of liberty for the purpose of their enforcement sparked discussions as to whether the practical operation of the instrument would be compatible with its very objective being the enhancement of detained persons social rehabilitation prospects Transferring detained people back to their respective Member State of residence and or nationality within the mutual recognition framework is somewhat precarious in light of the variety of Member States legal and prison systems In this context and following a call for tender by the European Commission the authors of this book conducted the largest study to date on Member States material detention conditions early conditional release provisions and sentence execution modalities In addition to exploring the diversity of legal frameworks the study also assessed practitioners views on the cross border execution of custodial sentences in the EU The book contains individual Member State reports resulting from legal practitioners analyses backed by additional information drawn from monitoring and evaluation conducted at the Council of Europe Committee for the Prevention of Torture and United Nation levels This will be essential reading for EU policy makers judicial and law enforcement authorities and defense lawyers Additionally it will be an asset to everyone who is involved in or taking an interest in detention issues and cross border execution of judgements involving deprivation of liberty in the EU Series Institute for International Research on Criminal Policy IRCP Vol 41

Long-Term Imprisonment and

Human Rights Kirstin Drenkhahn, Manuela Dudeck, Frieder Dünkel, 2014-07-11 Prisons and imprisonment have become a commonplace topic in popular culture as the setting and rationale for fiction and documentaries and most people seem to have a clear notion of what it is like in prison ranging from the idea of the prison cell as a cosy nook with fast internet access to that of a dungeon with a hard bed and a diet of bread and water But what is prison really like Do prisoners have the same rights as everyone else What are the similarities and differences between prisons in different European countries This book answers all of these questions whilst also presenting cutting edge research on the living conditions of long term prisoners in Europe and considering whether these conditions meet international human rights standards Bringing together leading experts in the field with comprehensive coverage of the issues in Belgium Croatia Denmark England Finland France Germany Lithuania Poland Spain and Sweden this book offers the first comparative study on the subject Whereas past research in this area has concentrated on the Anglo American experience this book offers a truly comparative European approach and pays due attention to the differences in prison systems between the post Soviet countries and continental Europe This book will be key reading for academics and students of criminology criminal justice and penology and will also be of interest to students and practitioners of law Country Reports on Human Rights Practices ,1991 National Courts and EU Law Bruno de Witte, Juan A. Mayoral, Urszula Jaremba, Marlene Wind, Karolina Podstawa, 2016-06-24 National Courts and EU Law examines both how and why national courts and judges are involved in the process of legal integration within the European Union As well as reviewing conventional thinking the book presents new legal and empirical insights into the issue of judicial behaviour in this process The expert contributors provide a critical analysis of the key questions examining the role of national courts in relation to the application of various EU legal instruments Prison Conditions in Israel and the Occupied Territories ,1991 Human Rights in Developing Countries, Yearbook 1994 Peter R. Baehr, Hilde Hey, Jacqueline Smith, Theresa Swinehart, 2024-01-15 Since 1985 seven Yearbooks have appeared containing articles on recent developments with regard to human rights in developing countries Besides topical information on current issues and trends that pertain to these countries in general the Yearbook describes the current situation in a selected group of developing countries The Yearbook 1994 contains national reports on Angola China Ghana Honduras Pakistan Sri Lanka and Tanzania The authors and editors of the Yearbook use a broad definition of human rights meaning not merely civil and political rights but economic social and cultural rights as well This broad and modern perspective on the issue is reflected in the contents of the national reports and in the thematic studies in the first part of the book covering a wide range of issues relevant to human rights in the developing world Among the topics covered by the thematic studies this year are the Convention on the Rights of the Child the influence of recognized human rights standards in the national politics of Eastern Europe the social cost of adjustment and human rights protection and an evaluation of recent positive measures taken in the sphere of North South cooperation The Yearbook is an initiative of human rights institutes in Austria Denmark Norway Sweden and the Netherlands
