James Merrill Langdon Hammer,2015-04-14 Langdon Hammer has given us the first biography of the poet James Merrill 1926-95 whose life is surely one of the most fascinating in American literature Merrill was born to high privilege and high expectations as the son of Charles Merrill the charismatic cofounder of the brokerage firm Merrill Lynch and Hellen Ingram a muse ally and antagonist throughout her son s life Wounded by his parents bitter divorce he was the child of a broken home looking for repair in poetry and love This is the story of a young man escaping yet also reenacting the energies and obsessions of those powerful parents It is the story of a gay man inventing his identity against the grain of American society during the eras of the closet gay liberation and AIDS Above all it is the story of a brilliantly gifted fiercely dedicated poet working every day to turn his life into art After college at Amherst and a period of adventure in Europe Merrill returned to the New York art world of the 1950s he was friendly with W H Auden Maya Deren Truman Capote Larry Rivers Elizabeth Bishop and other midcentury luminaries and began publishing poems plays and novels In 1953 he fell in love with an aspiring writer David Jackson They explored boys and bars as they made their life together in Connecticut and later in Greece and

Key West At the same time improbably they carried on a forty year conversation with spirits of the Other World by means of a Ouija board The board became a source of poetic inspiration for Merrill culminating in his prizewinning uncanny one of a kind work The Changing Light at Sandover In his virtuosic poetry and in the candid letters and diaries that enrich every page of this deliciously readable life Merrill created a prismatic art of multiple perspectives and comic self knowledge expressing hope for a world threatened by nuclear war and environmental catastrophe Holding this life and art together in a complex evolving whole Hammer illuminates Merrill s chronicles of love loss and the poignant personal journey they record
