Private Landscapes:

Private Landscapes Pamela Burton, Marie Botnick, 2002 When we think of the gardens of Southern California we tend to think of the enormous semiarid landscapes of the Huntington and Rancho Los Alamitos often built on the sprawling grounds of former ranches But there is another garden tradition in Southern California the modest rectangular suburban plots designed by the most famous architects of mid century modernism Richard Neutra Rudolph Schindler Gregory Ain Raphael Soriano Harwell Hamilton Harris A Quincy Jones and John Lautner These architects saw the garden as an outdoor extension of the space of the houses they designed rather than a neo Spanish fantasy to be added later by a landscapist Their modern gardens made use of low maintenance drought resistant plants and made room for informal outdoor living by children and adults with an emphasis on recreation and exercise The first book of its kind Private Landscapes profiles twenty significant gardens and their accompanying houses by these celebrated architects Using contemporary photographs by Julius Shulman and newly commissioned color images along with plans and plant lists Private Landscapes provides a never before seen look at these gardens As beautiful and practical now as they were 50 years ago these designs continue to provide inspiration for gardeners and designers everywhere

Private Landscapes Caroline Seeböhm, Christopher Simon Sykes, 1989 Despite a plethora of gardening books today few show gardens in their entirety with all the elements and their interrelationships This elegant and inspirational volume fills the gap presenting 19 American and English gardens in minute detail through watercolor plans and 400 gorgeous full color photos

Landscape and Branding Nicole Porter, 2015-10-05 Landscape and branding explores the way landscape is conceptualised conceived represented and designed by professionals in a brand driven age Landscape incorporating tangible physical space as well as intangible concepts narratives images and experiences of place is constructed by a number of creative industries This book tests the hypothesis that place branding a powerful marketing and management practice increasingly blurs the distinction between the promotion of landscape and its production in design terms Place branding involves the strategic and systematic composition of single minded experiential and market friendly place identities which are consistently communicated across various media including physical space How does this implicate or transform notions of place nature landscape experience and the qualitative value of landscape itself How does this affect the role of landscape architecture To answer these questions place branding theory and practice is critically examined alongside an in depth case study of one specific landscape the Blue Mountains Australia Projects undertaken between 1995 and 2015 including a branding strategy for the region media campaigns television cinema and several landscape architectural works in the public and private domain are comparatively analysed focusing on the discourse conventions and values informing their production and the landscape narratives they convey and smaller plants that thrive in New Mexico's many life zones and growing areas is now available in a long awaited new edition Landscape architect Baker H Morrow considers the significant factors that impact planting in New Mexico including soil conditions altitude drought urban expansion climate change and ultraviolet radiation to provide the tools for successful gardens and landscapes in the state Added photographs and sketches identify the forms and uses of plants including many new species that have become widely available in the region since the 1990s The latest recommendations for specific cities and towns include more photos for ease of reference and botanical names have also been updated With ingenuity and efficient water management Morrow demonstrates how to create landscapes that provide shade color oxygen soil protection windscreening and outdoor enjoyment Bulletin ,1980-05 The Interior Landscapes of Breaking Bad Erin Bell,Cheryl D. Edelson,Will Gray,Matthew Paproth,2019-05-03 Already acknowledged by Metacritic and the Guinness World Records as the highest rated series in the history of television Breaking Bad has elicited an unprecedented amount of criticism Writers both popular and academic columnists as well as eager commenters have addressed every imaginable topic from the show's characterization and major scenes to fine details such as Walt's knack for picking up habits from those he kills and the symbolism inherent within the cars that characters own This book considers another perspective one relatively unexplored to date By considering the series from the perspective of its interior spaces two possibilities emerge Firstly the spaces become a tangible record of their characters inner lives one that provides something like an objective correlative or photographic negative of their thought processes and approach to the world They provide more and richer ways to trace the course of character action and themes throughout the series Secondly Breaking Bad's spaces are not simply acted upon or within they interact with characters as well Interpreted through the theories of Judith Butler Michel de Certeau and many others the series homes labs RVs and elevators take on new significance The collection plumbs the interior spaces of Breaking Bad from many angles Ultimately these diverse perspectives enrich an appreciation for the series and its innovative handling of interiors both literal and metaphorical They also suggest new ways of reading the series ensuring it can continue to be explored by academics students and fans well into the future Public Spaces, Private Gardens Lake Douglas,2011-05-17 Landscape architect Lake Douglas employs written accounts archival data historic photographs lithographs maps and city planning documents many of which have never been published until now to explore public and private outdoor spaces in New Orleans and those who shaped them Public Spaces Private Gardens an informative stroll through the last two hundred years of the designed landscapes and horticultural past of New Orleans offers a fresh look at the cultural landscape of one of America's most interesting and historic cities Landscapes in History Philip Pregill,Nancy Volkman,1999-01-25 The definitive one stop reference to the history of landscape architecture now expanded and revised This revised edition of Landscapes in History features for the first time new information rarely available elsewhere in the literature on landscape architecture in India China Southeast Asia and Japan It also expands the discussion of the modern period including current

North American planning and design practices This unique highly regarded book traces the development of landscape architecture and environmental design from prehistory to modern times in Europe the Middle East Asia and North America It covers the many cultural political technological and philosophical issues influencing land use throughout history focusing not only on design topics but also on the environmental impact of human activity Landscape architects urban planners and students of these disciplines will find here The most comprehensive in depth and up to date overview of the subject Hundreds of stunning photographs and design illustrations A scholarly yet accessible treatment drawing on the latest research in archaeology geography and other disciplines The authors own firsthand observations and travel experiences Insight into the evolution of landscape architecture as a discipline Useful chapter summaries and bibliographies Gardens and Landscapes in Historic Building Conservation Marion Harney, 2014-04-03 This comprehensive guide on historic garden and landscape conservation will help landscape professionals familiarise themselves with what the conservation of historic gardens garden structures and designed landscapes encompasses The aim of the series is to introduce each aspect of conservation and to provide concise basic and up to date knowledge within five volumes sufficient for the professional to appreciate the subject better and to know where to seek further help Gardens Landscapes in Historic Building Conservation is an essential guide for everyone with an interest in the conservation of historic gardens and designed landscapes worldwide The latest assessment of the origins scope and impact of gardens and designed landscapes is vital reading Covering history and theory survey and assessment conservation and management and the legislative framework the book considers all aspects of garden and landscape conservation and related issues It explores the challenge of conserving these important sites and surviving physical remains and a conservation movement which must understand protect and interpret those remains This book demonstrates how the discipline of the history and conservation of gardens and landscapes has matured in recent decades recognising the increased participation of professional contract and curatorial managers in the management of these sites and in conserving and interpreting landscapes Drawing on a wide range of sources combining academic and professional perspectives the book provides information and advice relevant to all involved in trying to preserve one of England s greatest cultural contributions and legacy for future generations to enjoy With chapters by all the leading players in the field and illustrated by copious examples this gives essential guidance to the management and conservation of historic gardens and designed landscapes Community Eco-Gardens Dennis Swiftdeer Paige, 2020-11-30 Part how to part personal narrative this book provides a practical guide for creating native species ecogardens It chronicles the author s 20 year journey of environmental awakening With the help of the greater community a neglected five acre condominium landscape is transformed into a stunning range of multi seasonal prairie woodland and wetland micro habitats This illustrated account describes the process of ecological reconciliation and traces his discovery of the higher self along the way Natural Landscaping John Diekelmann, Robert M. Schuster, 2002 In response to demand from landscape architects and home gardeners Natural Landscaping returns to print in an updated and expanded second edition It is unique in its focus on plant communities it approaches landscape design as the establishment of natural ecosystems rather than mere planting of specimens Emphasizing the natural landscapes of the northeastern United States and eastern Canada this book o reviews landscaping principles and techniques o introduces native plant species for grasslands forests edge areas and small wetlands o illustrates how to evaluate a site and plan for visual effect and maintenance o presents the issues involved in restoring bogs ponds and other wetlands o offers practical advice on reducing chemical use while still combating invasive plants o addresses social legal design and planting problems often encountered on residential sites o discusses natural landscaping for public parklands civic buildings school grounds and corporate properties

Roman Landscape: Culture and Identity Diana Spencer, 2010 This survey explores how and why Romans of the late Republic and early Principate were fascinated with landscaped nature Thematic discussions and case studies work through what landscape represented and how studying Roman identity in terms of place environment and the natural world helps us better to understand Rome itself

Landscapes of Defence John R. Gold, George Revill, 2014-09-15 This is a key text on the very topical themes of power defence and space Landscapes of Defence is an exciting collection of theoretical and empirical material from very well known contributors designed to help students understand how landscapes of defence fit in with some of the broader concepts of space power and place to which they are introduced in the 1st year The book is split into four sections and each section contains an introduction placing the subsequent chapters in context There is also a comprehensive introduction and afterword to tie the book s broad themes together 2nd and 3rd year undergraduates in urban and cultural geography will be the key market for this title as well as strong secondary market in departments of Sociology Anthropology Law and Planning

Last Landscapes Ken Worpole, 2004-10-03 Last Landscapes is an exploration of the cult and celebration of death loss and memory It traces the history and design of burial places throughout Europe and the USA ranging from the picturesque tradition of the village churchyard to tightly packed cities of the dead such as the Jewish Cemetery in Prague and P re Lachaise in Paris Other landscapes that feature in this book include the war cemeteries of northern France Viking burial islands in central Sweden Etruscan tombs and early Christian catacombs in Italy the 17th century Portuguese Jewish cemetery Beth Haim at Ouderkerk in the Netherlands Forest Lawns in California Derek Jarman s garden in Kent and the Stockholm Woodland Cemetery It is a fact that architecture began with the tomb yet as Ken Worpole shows us in Last Landscapes many historic cemeteries have been demolished or abandoned in recent times notably the case with Jewish cemeteries in Eastern Europe and there has been an increasing loss of inscription and memorialization in the modern urban cemetery Too often cemeteries today are both poorly designed and physically and culturally marginalized Worse cremation denies a full architectural response to the mystery and solemnity of death The author explores how modes of disposal burial cremation inhumation in mausoleums and wall tombs vary across Europe and North America according to religious and other cultural influences And Last Landscapes raises profound questions as to how in an age of mass cremation architects and landscape designers might create meaningful structures and settings in the absence of a body since for most of history the human body itself has provided the fundamental structural scale This evocative book also contemplates other forms of memorialization within modern societies from sculptures to parks most notably the extraordinary Duisberg Park set in a former giant steelworks in Germany s Ruhr Valley      Experiential Landscape Kevin Thwaites,Ian Simkins,2006-12-05 Incorporating a review of key philosophical and theoretical themes and offering a socially responsive design vocabulary Kevin Thwaites and Ian M Simkins provide the reader with a greater understanding of the human environment relationship

Cultural Landscape Report for Fort Hill Lynn Kneedler-Schad,Katharine Lacy,Larry Lowenthal,1996      Inhabiting the Landscape Nicola Whyte,2009-02-16 The discipline of landscape history has recently taken a new turn away from the analysis of past land use and environments towards an understanding of landscape as a social construct This book is a significant step along this exciting new road Focusing on Norfolk in the post medieval centuries Nicola Whyte recaptures the essential character of ordinary people s experience of landscape She shows how perceptions were deeply rooted in the comprehension of material antiquities the annual round of work public events and religious ritual and the complex web of rights and jurisdictions mapped out in the fields People valued and gave meaning to the landscape for a wide range of reasons many of them unconnected with the economic potential of the land Landscape features outside the confines of the church and the graveyard pilgrimage routes crosses wells and springs played an important part in the ideological shift of the Reformation Parish boundaries and in particular the annual ritual of beating the bounds at Rogationtide reveal much about the shifting pattern of local allegiances and competition over resources Places of execution and the graves of suicides were mnemonic spectacles defining both geographical and behavioural limits The local history of enclosure and rights to commons is the story of nascent capitalism in rural England a clash of values between modern productivity and ancient tradition that involved the reinterpretation and renegotiation of the past Informed by the latest archaeological theory this book shows how landscape development was a dynamic experiential process in which world views changed as well as woods hedges and fields      Cultural Landscape Report for Sagamore Hill National Historic Site Regina M.
