Private Industrial Investment In Pakistan 1960 1970:

Private Industrial Investment in Pakistan Rashid Amjad, 2007-12-03 This book examines the behaviour of private industrial investment in Pakistan in the 1960s in the first half of which it rose at an unprecedented rate followed by sharp decline and then stagnation for the rest of the period The approach adopted is institutional and empirical The developments studied appeared to be very much the product of the institutional setting of Pakistan which was different from that of most advanced countries but possibly not so dissimilar from that in many other developing countries Pakistan Rashid Amjad, Shahid Javed Burki, 2015-04-13 This book discusses the fundamental constraints that need to be overcome to move the economy of Pakistan to higher growth Contemporary Pakistan Veena Kukreja, 2003-02-24 Veena Kukreja provides a rare reasoned analysis of the political processes at work in contemporary Pakistan and an objective understanding of the problems and crises confronting the country The author points out that for 25 out of the 53 years of its existence the military has been the arbiter of Pakistan's destiny The military she maintains regards its dominance of Pakistani politics not only as a right but as a duty As a result state security has taken precedence over the need to create participatory political processes and institutions The book points out that the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2001 and the resulting US offensive in Afghanistan has put the military regime in Islamabad in a tight spot Caught between unyielding ulemas a faltering economy and American pressure to demolish militant networks in Pakistan these recent developments combined with the dangerous cleavage within Pakistani society could well push that country into another bout of instability and even anarchy The situation is made more complex by the nexus between terrorism and drugs New Perspectives on Pakistan's Political Economy Matthew McCartney, S. Akbar Zaidi, 2019-09-19 This volume makes a major intervention in the debates around the nature of the political economy of Pakistan focusing on its contemporary social dynamics This is the first comprehensive academic analysis of Pakistan's political economy after thirty five years and addresses issues of state class and society examining gender the middle classes the media the bazaar economy urban spaces and the new elite The book goes beyond the contemporary obsession with terrorism and extremism political Islam and simple civilian military relations and looks at modern day Pakistan through the lens of varied academic disciplines It not only brings together new work by some emerging scholars but also formulates a new political economy for the country reflecting the contemporary reality and diversification in the social sciences in Pakistan The chapters dynamically and dialectically capture emergent processes and trends in framing Pakistan's political economy and invite scholars to engage with and move beyond these concerns and issues

Dispatches from Pakistan Madiha R. Tahir, Qalandar Bux Memon, Vijay Prashad, 2014-05-01 Since 9 11 Pakistan has loomed large in the geopolitical imagination of the West A key ally in the global war on terror it is also the country in which Osama bin Laden was finally found and killed and the one that has borne the brunt of much of the ongoing conflict's collateral damage Despite its prominence on the front lines and on the front pages Pakistan has been depicted by Western observers simplistically in terms of its corruption its fundamentalist Islamic beliefs and its propensity for violence Dispatches from Pakistan in contrast reveals the complexities the challenges and the joys of daily life in the country from the poetry of Gilgit to the graffiti of Gwadar from an army barrack in Punjab to the urban politics of Karachi This timely book brings together journalists activists academics and artists to provide a rich in depth and intriguing portrait of contemporary Pakistani society Straddling a variety of boundaries geographic linguistic and narrative Dispatches from Pakistan is a vital attempt to speak for the multitude of Pakistanis who in the face of seemingly unimaginable hardships from drone strikes to crushing poverty remain defiantly optimistic about their future While engaging in conversations on issues that make the headlines in the West the contributors also introduce less familiar dimensions of Pakistani life highlighting the voices of urban poets rural laborers industrial workers and religious feminist activists and recovering Pakistani society's inquilabi revolutionary undercurrents and its hopeful overtones Contributors Mahvish Ahmad Nosheen Ali U of California Berkeley Shafqat Hussain Trinity College Humeira Iqtidar King's College London Amina Jamal Ryerson U Hafeez Jamali U of Texas at Austin Iqbal Khattak Zahra Malkani Raza Mir Hammad Nasar Junaid Rana U of Illinois at Urbana Champaign Maliha Safri Drew U Aasim Sajjad Akhtar Lahore U of Management Sciences Ayesha Siddiqi Sultan i Rome Government Jahanzeb Postgraduate College Swat Pakistan Saadia Toor Staten Island College

Pakistan - The Political Economy of Growth, Stagnation and the State, 1951-2009 Matthew McCartney, 2011-06-07 This book provides a comprehensive reassessment of the development of the economy of Pakistan since independence to the present It employs a rigorous statistical methodology which has applicability to other developing economies to define and measure episodes of growth and stagnation and to examine how the state has contributed to each Contesting the orthodox view that liberalisation has been an important driver of growth in Pakistan the book places the state at the centre of economic development rather than the market It examines the state in relation to its economic roles in mobilising resources and promoting a productive allocation of those resources and its political roles in managing the conflict inherent in economic development The big conclusions for economic growth in Pakistan are that liberalisation the market and the external world economy in fact have less influence than that of the state and conflict Overall the book offers analyses of the different successive approaches to promoting economic growth and development in Pakistan relates these to medium term economic outcomes periods of growth and stagnation and thereby explains how the mechanisms by which the state can better promote growth and development

Bonded Histories Gyan Prakash, 2002 To the modern world the notions that freedom is an innate condition of human beings and that money possesses the power to bind people appear as natural facts Bonded Histories traces the historical processes by which these notions became established as dominant discourses in India during colonial rule and continued into post colonial India Gyan Prakash locates the formulation of these discourses in the history of bonded labour in southern Bihar He focuses on the emergence and subsequent transformation of the relationship of reciprocal power and dependence between landlords and labourers The author explores the way in which these transformations were connected with broader shifts in the political economy of this part of the subcontinent with the changing structures of agricultural production land tenure and revenue demand with local social hierarchies and the ideology of castes and with Hindu cosmologies spirit cults and their articulation in ritual practices Publisher description

Explaining Pakistan's Long-Run Growth Moazam Mahmood, Rabia Ikram, 2025-05-14 This book explains the behaviour of output and its growth over time It does so by deliberating over a choice among three fundamental models the Samuelson Swan Solow neoclassical model the Harrod Domar model and the Keynesian model to choose one fit for purpose The criteria for goodness of fit are some mathematical properties of growth models The model chosen for meeting these properties is the Keynesian model which is a bit better on all these counts The chosen Keynesian model of aggregate demand has been used to explain the observed behaviour of Pakistan s long run growth of gross domestic product GDP Pakistan s GDP growth over the long run between 1973 and 2019 is marked by a statistically significant hiatus at approximately 1992 Pre 1992 GDP growth on trend approximated 6 percent per annum Post 1992 it drops on trend to approximately 4 percent per annum Applied to the hiatus in Pakistan s GDP growth after 1992 this model shows that pre 1992 high GDP growth is explained by high investment growth paired with a low marginal propensity to consume MPC while post 1992 lowered GDP growth is explained by lower investment growth paired with a higher MPC Thus Pakistan s higher GDP growth pre 1992 was investment led while its lower GDP growth post 1992 has been consumption led The book then traces the causality of these trends in investment and consumption to a falling trend in public investment This is linked to an increasingly austere regulatory policy environment while private investment fails to step in and maintain aggregate investment
