Quran And Its Interpreters:

Qur'an and Its Interpreters, The, Volume 1 Mahmoud M. Ayoub, 1984-06-30 The Qur'an and Its Interpreters introduces the Western reader to the Qur'an as Muslims have understood it. The record of the Qur'an in the community as a force shaping the life of Muslims can be most clearly discerned through the vast literature of interpretation known as tafsir. This multivolume work is based on a large number of tafsir sources representing all the major religious schools and stages of Muslim history for the last one thousand years. It will cover the entire Qur'an. This first volume consists of an introduction to the science and sources of interpretation of the Qur'an and the first two surahs of the Qur'an. The treatment is comprehensive and thorough. While the work is based entirely on primary sources, this volume includes a substantial bibliography of works on the Qur'an in Western languages. The Qur'an is the word of God as it was revealed to the prophet Muhammad, interiorized by the community, then shaped into an earthly book whose original archetype is with God. Dr. Ayoub concerns himself not with the history of the Qur'an but with the way it was collected and fixed into an official codex, the recension of which has voiced the community's prayers and devotions, set its legal norms and moral standards, and occupied its best minds for more than thirteen hundred years. The Development of Exegesis in Early Islam Herbert Berg,2013-04-03 The most important debate in Islamic origins is that of the reliability of the lists of transmitters isnads that are said to guarantee the authenticity of the materials to which they are attached Many scholars have come to the conclusion that most traditions hadiths which claim to preserve the words and deeds of Muhammad and early Muslim scholars are spurious Other scholars defend hadiths and their isnads arguing for an early continuous written transmission of these materials The first purpose of this study is to summarize and critique the major positions on the issue of the authenticity of hadiths in general and exegetical hadiths in particular The second purpose is to devise a means of evaluating isnads that does not rely on circular arguments and to use it to determine if the hadiths in the Tafsir of al Tabari attributed to Ibn Abbas are genuine
