R. Austin Freeman Oliver Mayo, 1980 The Anthropologist at Large: a Dr John Thorndyke Mystery R. Austin Freeman, 2015-01-27 Then as to the hair it was as I mentioned to you circular in section and of very large diameter Now I have examined many thousands of hairs and the thickest that I have ever seen came from the heads of Japanese but the hairs from this hat were as thick as any of them But the hypothesis that the burglar was a Japanese received confirmation in various ways Thus he was short though strong and active and the Japanese are the shortest of the Mongol races and very strong and active Then his remarkable skill in handling the powerful caretaker a retired police sergeant suggested the Japanese art of ju jitsu while the nature of the robbery was consistent with the value set by the Japanese on works of art Finally the fact that only a particular collection was taken suggested a special and probably national character in the things stolen while their portability you will remember that goods of the value of from eight to twelve thousand pounds were taken away in two hand packages was much more consistent with Japanese than Chinese works of which the latter tend rather to be bulky and ponderous Still it was nothing but a bare hypothesis until we had seen Futashima and indeed is no more now I may after all be entirely mistaken The Anthropologist at Large R.
