Church, Market, and Media Marcus Moberg, 2017-07-13 Marcus Moberg offers a new model of religion and religious life in the post war era through focusing on the role of markets and media as vectors of contemporary social and cultural change and therefore institutional religious change While there is wide agreement among sociologists of religion that there this area is transforming on a global scale there is less agreement about how these changes should best be approached and conceptualized In a time of accelerating institutional religious decline institutional Churches have become ever more susceptible to market associated discourse and language and are ever more compelled to adapt to the demands of the present day media environment Using discourse analysis Marcus Moberg tracks how new media and marketing language and concepts have entered Christian thinking and discourse Church Market and Media develops a framework that approaches changes in the contemporary religious field in direct relation to the changing socioeconomic makeup of contemporary societies on the whole Through focusing on the impact of markets and media within the contemporary religious setting of mainline institutional Christian churches in the Western world the book outlines new avenues for further theorizing the study of religious change

Religious Messages in the Media Terézia Rončáková, 2021-01-06 Can religious messages be transmitted through the media If so how and why Taking these questions as its starting point and focusing on the relationship between media and religion this book presents an analysis of the relationship between religion and the media It explores the inherent qualities of media communication channels and codes and the ways in which they affect the dissemination of religious messages as well as the arguments over religion used in public discourse The book also presents a critical analysis of church media in Slovakia and shows that although the media do have the capacity to convey religious messages they can only do so in a superficial manner and thus do not represent a suitable instrument for mediating deep spiritual content or serving as a vehicle for evangelization Another key finding here is that the differences between the basic argumentation structures of the religious and secular worlds are irreconcilable meaning that conservatives and progressives can expect little more than a basic sense of tolerance and decency from each other

Post-Secular Society Gustaaf Geeraerts, 2017-07-28 Post Secular Society argues for several characteristics of the secular the experience of living in a secular age and the experience of living without religion as a normal condition Religion in the West is often seen as marked by both innovation and disarray In spite of differing approaches and perspectives of secularization rational choice and de secularization many scholars agree that the West is experiencing a general resurgence of religion across most Western societies Post Secular Society discusses the changes in religion related to globalization and New Age forms of popular religion The contributors review religion that is rooted in the globalized political economy and the relationship of post secularism to popular consumer culture Also reviewed is innovative discourse as a religious belief system theories of the post secular religious and spiritual well being and healing practices in Finland and environmentalism This paperback edition includes a new preface by Peter Nynas

Searching God in the Media Market: Convergence of Theology and Media John Joshva Raja, 2011-09-26 This book is holding an excellent dialogue between theology and media disciplines It provides challenges to theologians to think about their perspectives attitudes and practices of media and technology while it also challenges those media personnel who are involved in religious broadcasting with nuance theological thinking This book on the one hand highlights the importance of recognizing the hermeneutic role of imagination aesthetical aspects and new genre of media and communication today and on the other hand critically engages with media institution and technology that work around only profit making and mere entertaining and thus alienating from real world practices and ideas within them This book brings out some controversies in this area to the light and hopes to initiate further discussions in this area of better community relationship and transformation through media and communication Having brought some new ideas into light this book brings back a good dialogue between theology and media which will help those involved in rediscovering God s mission within the churches within the media institutions and also within all those who serve humanity in various ways using the media and communication tools Islam in British media discourses Laurens de Rooij,2020-05-09 Media reporting on Islam and Muslims commonly relate stories about terrorism violence or the lack of integration with western values and society Yet there is little research into how non Muslims engage with and are affected by these news reports Inspired by the overtly negative coverage of Islam and Muslims by the mainstream press and the increase in Islamophobia across Europe this book explores the influence of these depictions on the thoughts and actions of non Muslims Building on extensive fieldwork interviews and focus groups Laurens de Rooij argues that individuals negotiate media reports to fit their existing outlook on Islam and Muslims Non Muslim responses to these reports de Rooij argues are not only re productions of local and personal contextuality but are co dependent and co productive to the reports themselves Belief in Media Mary E. Hess,2020-07-24 Most works on media developments and Christianity approach the subject from the perspective of the implications of new media technologies for traditional Christian practices or how churches can use new media to further their goals The common framework of analysis is a given reality of traditional institutional Christianity and how it interacts with affects and is affected by media Media are treated as a separate cultural reality This book presents in an accessible form the new directions that approach the interaction of media and religion from a cultural perspective and illustrates these new directions by a number of international and intercultural case studies and explorations Looking at how global media are constructing cultural forms structures and processes the authors show how these have become the life out of which individual and social meaning is created and practised Examining how individuals create religious meaning by interacting with media of various kinds crossing boundaries of traditional religious cultures and contemporary media cultures this book reveals how Christian institutions are also defined in the process of living culturally within their broader media context Towards a New Catholic Church in Advanced Modernity Staf Hellemans,Jozef Wissink,2012 A new Catholic Church is emerging in the West one that is very different from the Church before 1960 This book describes the new Church in the making its new position in society its new structuring and workings and its new frame of mind The book also looks in a prospective way at some basic issues the Church has to deal with such as imagining the Church in advanced modernity attracting both youth and adults rebuilding local communities refashioning liturgy and rethinking pastoral guidance The book is the result of an interdisciplinary endeavor by philosophers sociologists and theologians Series Tilburg Theological Studies Tilburger Theologische Studien Vol 5 Faith and Media Hans Geybels, Sara Mels, Michel Walrave, 2009 In the past ideologies and religions had a real impact on the media In the current era of mass media and communication strategies perception takes priority over identity and new questions arise how to introduce faith and religion in a pluralising and detraditionalising world What possibilities are offered by the new media How can technical innovations be incorporated in church communication Following the conference Belief in the Media April 2007 this publication focuses on the gap between the language of faith and the language of the general media The different contributors analyse from within but also from outside a church context the historical changes and challenges the Catholic Church and other faiths and denominations face with regard to their social communication and media strategies However it is not only the relationship of religious institutions with the media that is at stake but also the way in which the media cover topics such as the Middle East Muslim immigrant populations in Europe and the World Youth Day Journalists have to find new ways to get a grip on these issues too

God in the Corridors of Power Michael Ryan, Les Switzer, 2009-08-25 God in the Corridors of Power Christian Conservatives the Media and Politics in America is a comprehensive study of Christian conservative power in America s political culture how it was achieved how it is maintained and where it is going It came about in part because of an enduring influence in the school room the seminary and in the pulpit and in part because conservatives are so skilled at using commercial and non commercial media including religious media to disseminate their views to broader audiences Though their power has waxed and waned they continue to be a potent force in public policy today The authors argue that the astonishing electoral successes of Christian conservatives at all levels of national state and local government was made possible by linking political social media and religious interests with an emerging consensus about what constitutes a conservative mindset in American politics Christian conservatives unquestionably have been the most significant component in a coalition of religious conservatives traditionalist conservatives and neoconservatives that has driven the Republican Party now for almost two generations This multifaceted understanding of Christian conservative activists in religion and politics traces the impact Christian conservatives have had on American Christianity as a whole while also examining the limitations imposed on the Christian conservative agenda by American civil religion the Constitution and case law The authors explore women s reproductive rights in the debate over contraception and abortion and gay civil rights in the debate over gay marriage and family rights The debate over intelligent design and evolution is examined in the context of the campaign to transform public school education The run up to the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq is scrutinized against the background of the declared war on terrorism While the conservative religious and secular coalition within the Republican Party began to fragment even before the end of George W Bush s first term in office it remained a powerful force in the 2004 and 2008 elections The book concludes with some thoughts about the impact of Christian conservatives in politics media and
