Work Behavior of the World's Poor Mohammed

Sharif,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2003 The working poor of the world are observed to engage in long hours in hard jobs and to work more if wages are further reduced Mainstream economics brushes off this tendency to increase labour supply as wages fall as perverse because it does not fit the conventional wisdom and tries to explain it as a result of subsistence mentality limited aspiration or target income behaviour of the poor This however ignores the observed fact that the poor work long hard hours but most of the time fail to meet their minimum needs of subsistence and live impoverished lives in absolute poverty deficient of both food and physical rest This book postulates that the observed behaviour is the result of economic distress the working poor suffer and analyses it as a rational behaviour using the conventional utility maximization framework and derives both theoretical and empirical results consistent with the observation This book aims to correct a serious misconception persisting in the literature relating to the working poor labour supply behaviour that is almost universally observed It also goes onto develop using the supply function a methodology to determine the standard of subsistence income and physical rest for the worker

Determinants of Illegal Migration Robert Wiliater Sibarani, 2018-10-08 Deportation remains a critical issue within labour migration from East Java to Malaysia The research presented in this book focuses on the most predominant factors determining why workers from East Java migrate illegally to Malaysia. It finds out that the difference between wages before migration and expected wages in Malaysia, the low educational level below junior secondary school, being married and being between 15 and 30 years old increases the probability the workers from East Java migrate illegally to Malaysia. Based on the findings, the recommendations which are proposed to local government are to communicate actively with the migrant candidates to explain legal migration, to implement strict control against the presence of illegal agents and encourage opening more branches of PPTKIS (Private Agency for Placement of Indonesian Migrant Workers Abroad) in the remote areas in East Java.

2001 Guide to Educational Credit by Examination Jo Ann Robinson, Jacqueline E. Taylor, 2001

Environmental Economics Dodo J. Thampapillai, Matthias Ruth, 2019-05-14

Environmental Economics explores the ways in which economic theory and its applications as practised and taught today must be modified to explicitly accommodate the goal of sustainability and the vital role played by environmental capital. Pivoting around the first and second laws of thermodynamics as well as the principles of ecological resilience, this book is divided into five key parts which include extensive coverage of environmental microeconomics and macroeconomics. It drills down into issues and challenges including consumer demand, production and supply, market organisation, renewable and non-renewable resources, environmental valuation, macroeconomic stabilisation and international trade and globalisation. Drawing on case studies from forestry, water, soil, air quality and mining, this book will equip readers with skills that enable the analyses of environmental and economic policy issues with a specific focus on the sustainability of the economy. Rich in pedagogical features including key concepts boxes and review questions at the end of each chapter, this book will be a vital resource for upper-level undergraduate and postgraduate students studying not only environmental economics, ecological economics but also economics in general.
