Shadow Kibes:

Amitav Ghosh's The Shadow Lines Arvind Chowdhary, 2002 The Shadow Lines is a highly innovative complex and celebrated novel of Amitav Ghosh published in 1988. It received the prestigious Sahitya Academy Award. In the following year not only literary critics but also some noted litterateurs have acclaimed it for what it has been able to achieve as a work of art. Its focus is a fact of history, the post-partition scenario of violence, but its overall form is a subtle interweaving of fact, fiction, and reminiscence. It is a novel in which Amitav Ghosh has been able to realise his artistic conception through an art form which is cohesive. However, it remains somewhat inaccessible to some readers; they are particularly mystified by its non-linear mode. This volume of critical essays on The Shadow Lines is being presented in the hope that it will enable the reader to gain an insight into the meaning and structure of the novel. In the first part of the book, the contributors bring out the various aspects/elements of the novel. The second part has essays which look at the novel from some current critical perspectives: feminist, post-colonial, and historicist. But the emphasis of these essays is upon practice and not theory. The idea is that the reader learns about a specific approach by seeing it applied to The Shadow Lines. The third part has a single but significant essay, The Shadow Lines in Context, which relates the novel to Ghosh's other works, both fiction and non-fiction. Though the book is primarily addressed to the student, it is hoped that it will interest the common discernible reader as well. Shadowlines Stephen Kinnane, 2020-06-01 A powerful and lyrical work by a writer of vision and imagination, Shadow Lines is the story of Jessie Argyle, born in the remote East Kimberley and taken from her Aboriginal family at the age of five, and Edward Smith, a young Englishman escaping the rigid strictures of London. In a society deeply divided on racial lines, Edward and Jessie met, fell in love, and against strong opposition eventually married. Despite unrelenting surveillance and harassment, the Smith home was a centre for Aboriginal cultural and social life for over thirty years. The Shadow Lines Amitav Ghosh, 2005-05-03 A stunning novel following two families, one British, one Bengali, from the New York Times bestselling author of Sea of Poppies. The New Republic Opening in Calcutta in the 1960s, Amitav Ghosh's radiant second novel follows an English family and a Bengali family as their lives intertwine across the generations in both tragic and comic ways. The narrator, Indian-born and English-educated, traces events back and forth in time from the outbreak of World War II to the late twentieth century through years of Bengali partition and violence, observing the ways in which political events invade private lives in an ambitious, funny, poignant saga. A K Ramanujan Amusing, sad, wise, and truly international in scope.
