Shadow Of The Bear:

Shadow of the Bear Brian Payton, 2008-12-11 We've been meeting bears in the wilderness and in our dreams since the dawn of human history Celebrated in art and myth since we began drawing on the walls of caves they cast a long shadow over our collective subconscious Wherever bears endure they are an indicator of the health of their ecosystem Their decline some to the edge of extinction foretells a bigger story that of our planet's peril In a series of remarkable journeys Brian Payton travels the world in search of the eight remaining bear species Along the way he confronts poachers in the jungles of Cambodia witnesses the cruelty of the bear bile trade in China and delves into the politics of panda sex From the reclusive spectacled bears of Peru to the man eating sloth bears of India Payton captures the power and beauty of these fascinating creatures while exploring their unique place within very different cultures Vivid characters exotic landscapes and deft storytelling make for an unforgettable trek down the braided path of bear and human history The Shadow of the Bear

Grainger, 1899 An Other Tongue Alfred Arteaga, 1994 As our millennium draws to a close we find ourselves in the midst of great and rapid global changes with nations and political systems dissolving all around us and the world becoming one of shifting identities of peoples unified and divided by such distinctions as nationality ethnicity race religion and colonial status The articulation and construction of these distinctions the very language of difference is the subject of An Other Tongue This collection of essays by a group of distinguished scholars including Norma Alarcón Gayatri Spivak Tzvetan Todorov and Gerald Vizenor explores the interconnections between language and identity The Chicanos the U S Mexico borderland polyglots whose sense of history nationality and race is as mixed as their language are the book's prime example But the authors recognize that border zones like diasporas and post colonial relations occur globally and their discussion of hybrid or mestizo identities ranges from the United States to the Caribbean to South Asia to Ireland Drawing on personal experience readings of poetry and fiction and cultural theory the authors detail the politics of being human through the mediation of language What does shadow mean to the Native American Indian or diaspora to the East Indian immigrant How does British colonialism yet affect Irish and Indian nationalist literary production Why is the split between Eastern and Western European language use necessarily schizophrenic So much of our sense of difference today is constructed as we speak and An Other Tongue speaks with eloquence to this phenomenon and will be of great interest to those concerned with the discourse of post colonial studies critical theory and the remapping of world literature Contributors Norma Alarcón Alfred Arteaga Juan Bruce Novoa Cordelia Chvez Candelaria Michael G Cooke Edmundo Desnoes Eugene C Eoyang David Lloyd Lydie Moudileno Jean Luc Nancy Tejaswini Niranjana Ada Savin Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Michael Smith Tzvetan Todorov Luis A Torres Gerald Vizenor
