George, 1996-01-01 A wonderful book theoretically challenging ethnographically rich and exquisitely written Toby Alice Volkman Ford Foundation Fascinating and compelling Examines with great subtlety the cultural construction of violence and in putting forward a notion of political affect moves beyond prevailing ideas of emotion in ways that have great significance for anthropology and other fields as well Benjamin Orlove University of California Davis Reason and Passion Michael G. Peletz, 2022-07-15 This book provides a historical and ethnographic examination of gender relations in Malay society in particular in the well known state of Negeri Sembilan famous for its unusual mixture of Islam and matrilineal descent Peletz analyzes the diverse ways in which the evocative heavily gendered symbols of reason and passion are deployed by Malay Muslims Unlike many studies of gender this book elucidates the cultural and political processes implicated in the constitution of both feminine and masculine identity It also scrutinizes the relationship between gender and kinship and weighs the role of ideology in everyday life Peletz insists on the importance of examining gender systems not as social isolates but in relation to other patterns of hierarchy and social difference His study is historical and comparative it also explores the political economy of contested symbols and meanings More than a treatise on gender and social change in a Malay society this book presents a valuable and deeply interesting model for the analysis of gender and culture by addressing issues of hegemony and cultural domination at the heart of contemporary cultural studies This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996

The Past Before Us Romila Thapar, 2013-10-14 The claim that India uniquely among civilizations lacks historical writing distracts us from a more pertinent question how to recognize the historical sense of societies whose past is recorded in ways very different from European conventions Romila Thapar a distinguished scholar of ancient India guides us through a panoramic survey of the historical traditions of North India revealing a deep and sophisticated consciousness of history embedded in the diverse body of classical Indian literature The history recorded in such texts as the Ramayana and the Mahabharata is less concerned with authenticating persons and events than with presenting a picture of traditions striving to retain legitimacy amid social change Spanning an epoch from 1000 BCE to 1400 CE Thapar delineates three strains of historical writing an Itihasa Purana tradition of Brahman authors a tradition composed mainly by Buddhist and Jaina monks and scholars and a popular bardic tradition The Vedic corpus the epics the Buddhist canon and monastic chronicles inscriptional evidence regional accounts and literary forms such as royal biographies and drama are all scrutinized afresh not as sources to be mined for factual data but as genres that disclose how Indians of ancient times represented their own past to themselves

Decentring and Diversifying Southeast Asian Studies Goh Beng Lan, 2011 This admirable book contains fascinating autobiographical accounts by some of Southeast Asia's most eminent scholars concerning their struggle to find their own voices in interpreting the region to which they belong The book should be indispensable to anyone interested in thinking about knowledge production and its politics in a postcolonial world In the views of these scholarly Southeast Asians we are made to see in very personal terms the link between the global crisis in the social sciences and the need to find remedies for it that are neither Eurocentric nor parochially anti Western Professor Alexander Woodside Professor of Chinese and Southeast Asian History University of British Columbia Vancouver Canada This book marks the shift of the centre of Southeast Asian Studies from the West to Southeast Asia The insights provided by the authors are not simply explanations of colonial and postcolonial experiences of major Southeast Asian scholars Rather the book provides a unique set of intellectual genealogies that show that distinctions between humanities and social sciences are less important than the development of distinctive local and regional traditions and practices of scholarship Goh Beng Lan's introduction frames the collection through her subtle deconstruction of international discourses on Southeast Asia This introduction then allows the reader to view the different generations of Southeast Asian scholars in their social political and academic contexts The end result is a combined view of the state of the art of Southeast Asian Studies a view that is greater than the sum of its national parts Professor Adrian Vickers Chair of Southeast Asian Studies University of Sydney and Director Australian Centre for Asian Art and Archaeology The collection represents a coming of age of scholars from Southeast Asia What we hear is not bluster that comes from a wounded pride or doctrinal certainties but a quiet confidence that acknowledges the multiple currents in which their scholarship has been formed and a willingness to engage the perspective of the other both within and without The reflexivity in this volume sets the stage for scholars from the region to develop perspectives and concepts to address the challenges of the new configuration of the Asia being ushered in by ASEAN

Professor Prasenjit Duara Raffles Professor of Humanities and Director of Research Humanities and Social Sciences National University of Singapore Sjahrir Rudolf Mrázek,2018-05-31 A comprehensive biography of the Indonesian nationalist leader and Prime Minister of the Indonesian Republic Sutan Sjahrir This work is both a study of an individual and the social conditions that shaped him The author has conducted extensive research and interviews with those who knew Sjahrir personally politically and by reputation Roaming through Seductive Gardens G.L. Koster,2021-11-01 In the field of Nusantara literary studies systematic interpretations of individual literary works are still a relatively rare phenomenon This book shows how such interpretations can be fruitfully produced for traditional Malay literature Taking his cue from ideas in modern literary theory anthropology and the study of western medieval literature the author describes the major conventions of traditional Malay narrative and develops a comprehensive model of traditional Malay poetics comprising both oral and written traditions By applying this model to a series of readings of individual works including heroic epics and Panji romances the texts come to life Malay Kingship in Kedah Maziar Mozaffari Falarti,2013-01-01 The Kedah Sultanate is the oldest unbroken independent kingship lines in the Malay world with 1 000 years of history and arguably one of the oldest in the Islamic world In this study the author examines key geopolitical and spiritual attributes of Malay kingship that have traditionally cemented the ruler the peoples and the environment Malay Literature of the 19th Century Siti Hawa Hj. Salleh,2010 The Rope of God James T. Siegel,2000 The Acehnese a Muslim people of Sumatra fought Dutch attempts to colonize them for forty years After its pacification Acehnese society evolved peacefully yet nonetheless the Acehnese participated fully in the Indonesian revolution and in a rebellion against the Indonesian central government not long after Based on field work done in the early 1960s James Siegel s The Rope of God traces the evolution in Islam in the economy and in the structure of the family to show how it was that Aceh mobilized itself as a society from the time of the colonial war to the emergence of the republic At a time when this Indonesian society is once again in movement this influential study has gained a certain new relevance To bridge this span of time since its initial publication in 1969 Siegel has added two additional chapters to his original volume one a description of political elements today and the other a previously published piece on Acehnese domestic politics Important when it first appeared The Rope of God continues to be of enduring importance today and will be warmly welcomed back into print James Siegel is Professor of Anthropology and Asian Studies Cornell University and is the author of New Criminal Type in Jakarta A Counter Revolution Today among other books The State and Ethnic Politics in SouthEast Asia David Brown,2003-09-02 Ethnic tensions in Southeast Asia represent a clear threat to the future stability of the region David Brown s clear and systematic study outlines the patterns of ethnic politics in Burma Singapore Indonesia Malaysia Thailand The study considers the influence of the State on the formation of ethnic groups and investigates why some countries are more successful in managing their ethnic politics than others Fluid Iron Tony Day, 2002-08-31 Fluid Iron is the first extended treatment of state formation in Southeast Asia from early to contemporary times and the first book length analysis of Western historical and ethnographic writing on the region It includes critical assessments of the work of Clifford Geertz O W Wolters Benedict Anderson and other major scholars who have written on early colonial and modern Southeast Asian history and culture Making use of the ideas of Weber Marx Foucault and postmodern and postcolonial theory Tony Day argues that culture must be restored to the study of Southeast Asian history so that the state and historical developments in the region can be returned to their own alternative historical contexts and trajectories He employs a wide range of contemporary scholarship as well as Southeast Asian literary and historical texts inscriptions and temples to explore the kinds of concepts and practices kinship networks cosmologies gender identities bureaucracies rituals violence and aesthetics that have been used for centuries to build states Highly readable and accessibly written Fluid Iron demonstrates that Southeast Asian state building has taken place in a part of the world that has always been a crossroads of cultural and transcultural change Day urges Southeast Asians to learn more about the history of their own state formations so they can safeguard not only human freedom but also the incongruity of their unique region in the years ahead Sharia and Social Engineering R. Michael Feener, 2013-12 Arguing for new consideration of calls for implementation of Islamic law as projects of future oriented social transformation this book presents a richly textured critical overview of the day to day workings of one of the most complex experiments with the implementation of Islamic law in the contemporary world that of post tsunami Aceh The Anthropology of Christianity Fenella Cannell, 2006-11-07 Ethnographies exploring the vastly different ways that Christianity is experienced and understood by different groups around the world Picturing Islam Kenneth M. George, 2011-09-19 Picturing Islam Art and Ethics in a Muslim Lifeworld explores issues of religion nationalism ethnicity and globalization through the life and work of the prominent contemporary Indonesian artist Abdul Djalil Pirous Presents a unique addition to the anthropology of art and religion Demonstrates the impact of Islam ethnicity nationalism and globalization on the work and life of an internationally recognized postcolonial artist Weaves together visual and narrative materials to tell an engrossing story of a cosmopolitan Muslim artist Looks at contemporary Islamic art and the way it has been produced in the world s largest Muslim nation Indonesia The State and the Transnational Politics of Migrants: A Study of the Chins and the Acehnese in Malaysia Sheila Murugasu, 2017-04-13 This book is an exploration of the various types of transnational politics that the Chin and Acehnese people are engaged in particularly in the Malaysian state As with so many migrants elsewhere in the world who try to organize themselves transnationally the Chin and Acehnese have needed to negotiate a challenging socio political landscape that is the Malaysian state Here the author illustrates that migrants don t just travel with their hopes for the future but with grievances and identities which are rooted in their homelands This is a book for those interested in reading an account that reflects the complexities of migrant life in the 21st century an era replete with fluid labour markets deregulated air travel porous borders and political leaders who move transnationally acting as binding agents for the far flung communities they seek to represent

Mapping the Acehnese Past R. Michael Feener, Patrick Daly, Anthony Reed, 2011-01-01 Aceh has become best known in our times for its twin disasters the worst earthquake and tsunami of modern times in December 2004 and a long running separatist conflict that rent Indonesia for most of its independent history Although this book emerged from the process of recovery from those traumas it turns the spotlight on a more positive and neglected claim Aceh has on our attention as the Southeast Asian maritime state that most successfully and creatively maintained its independent place in the world until 1874 Like Burma Siam and Vietnam all better protected by geography Aceh has its own story to tell of a unique culture struggling for survival through the European colonial era Unfortunately the sources for this story are scattered since Aceh's own records have not well survived the ravages of climate civil war and eventual foreign conquest To recover its cosmopolitan history an unparalleled range of sources and skills had to be brought together Aceh's central role in the creation of Malay literature out of Arabic Persian Indian and Indonesian elements had to be explored with reference to texts surviving in a dozen world libraries Teuku Iskandar Amirul Hadi The rich archeological record neglected through the long years of conflict had again to be brought into play Daniel Perret and the extensive relations of the Aceh sultanate with the Ottoman Empire Ismail G ksoy and Ismail Kad Andrew Peacock Annabel Gallop Portugal Jorge Alves England Annabel Gallop and the Netherlands Sher Banu and Jean Taylor had to be explored chiefly in European archives by experts in these respective fields The result of this combined work in this volume is the most comprehensive picture so far of sources for the history of Aceh
