PERCY THE CRUEL PAINTER THE CASTLE WHAT NEXT GENERALSHIP AN UNFORESEEN FORESIGHT Walking Shadows: Sea Tales and Others Alfred Noyes, 2019-12-04 In Walking Shadows Sea Tales and Others Alfred Noyes presents a captivating collection of short stories that delve into the mystical and formidable relationship between humanity and the sea. Blending poetic prose with vivid imagery, Noyes employs a lyrical style that evokes the emotional tides of maritime life, capturing the essence of adventure, romance, and existential reflection. Each tale is steeped in the traditions of sea literature, reminiscent of classics while providing fresh insights into the human psyche against the backdrop of the ocean's vastness. The stories explore themes of isolation, longing, and the search for meaning, resonating deeply with readers who appreciate nuanced storytelling imbued with a sense of wonder and contemplation. Alfred Noyes (1880-1958) was a renowned English poet and playwright whose maritime fascination was partly inspired by his own coastal upbringing and scholarly inclinations toward maritime lore. His extensive travels and experiences at sea influenced his literary output, allowing him to authentically portray the complex interplay between human emotion and the elemental forces of nature. Noyes's vast body of work encompasses both lyrical poetry and narratives steeped in Romanticism, establishing him as a prominent voice in early 20th-century literature. This collection is highly recommended for readers who seek to explore the interplay of imagination and reality within the realm of maritime storytelling. Noyes's richly crafted narratives offer a profound commentary on the human condition, while their evocative language is sure to transport audiences to the sea's enchanting shores. Walking Shadows is a vital addition to the literary canon of sea tales, inviting reflection and reverie for both seasoned readers and newcomers alike.

Sigler, 1997 In American society, the ends and means of education have been debated vigorously throughout its history. Most Americans enthusiastically and eagerly supported the development of public education in the mid-19th century. They perceived it to be a positive force for mobility and democracy. While some complained that too much book learning was a waste of time, most Americans were delighted with the developments of the American educational system, which appeared to be a foundation for our political system. Women in the Shadows Jennifer Goodlander, 2016-10-31 Wayang kulit or shadow puppetry connects a mythic past to the present through public ritual performance and is one of the most important performance traditions in Bali. The dalang or puppeteer is revered in Balinese society as a teacher and spiritual leader. Recently, women have begun to study and perform in this traditionally male role, an innovation that has triggered resistance and controversy. In Women in the Shadows, Jennifer Goodlander draws on her own experience training as a dalang, as well as interviews with early women dalang and leading artists, to upend the usual assessments of such gender role shifts. She argues that rather than assuming that women performers are necessarily mounting a challenge to tradition, tradition in Bali must be understood as a system of power that is inextricably linked to gender hierarchy She examines the very idea of tradition and how it forms both an ideological and social foundation in Balinese culture Ultimately Goodlander offers a richer more complicated understanding of both tradition and gender in Balinese society Following in the footsteps of other eminent reflexive ethnographies Women in the Shadows will be of value to anyone interested in performance studies Southeast Asian culture or ethnographic methods
