Shadows Of Race And Class:

Shadows of Race and Class Raymond S. Franklin, 1991 In the Shadow of Race Victoria Hattam, 2007-09-15 Race in the United States has long been associated with heredity and inequality while ethnicity has been linked to language and culture In the Shadow of Race recovers the history of this entrenched distinction and the divisive politics it engenders Victoria Hattam locates the origins of ethnicity in the New York Zionist movement of the early 1900s In a major revision of widely held assumptions she argues that Jewish activists identified as ethnics not as a means of assimilating and becoming white but rather as a way of defending immigrant difference as distinct from race rooted in culture rather than body and blood Eventually Hattam shows the Immigration and Naturalization Service and the Census Bureau institutionalized this distinction by classifying Latinos as an ethnic group and not a race But immigration and the resulting population shifts of the last half century have created a political opening for reimagining the relationship between immigration and race How to do so is the question at hand In the Shadow of Race concludes by examining the recent New York and Los Angeles elections and the 2006 immigrant rallies across the country to assess the possibilities of forging a more robust alliance between immigrants and African Americans Such an alliance is needed Hattam argues to more effectively redress the persistent inequalities in American life Teacher's Guide for in the Shadow of Race: Growing Up As a Multiethnic, Multicultural, and Multiracial American Christine Clark, Teja Arboleda, 2024-02-02 This Teacher's Guide accompanies In the Shadow of Race Growing Up as a Multiethnic Multicultural and Multiracial American by Teja Arboleda It has a twofold purpose First it facilitates K 12 and university faculty in situating Arboleda's book within the fields of race relations multicultural education and related disciplines Second it is intended to critique and problematize the book's content so that it can be used to stimulate critical thought debate and action oriented toward increasing social justice among its readers both inside and outside of the classroom To facilitate use of In the Shadow of Race as a course text topics for discussion included in this Teacher's Guide include the social construction of race racial separatism versus diversity racial ethnic and cultural identity development the politics of racial categorization mixed race peoples cultural identity vs identity by heritage the concept of a cultural home and changing identities within cultures The Teacher's Guide is free to college faculty who adopt Arboleda's In the Shadow of Race Embracing Sisterhood Katrina Bell McDonald, 2007 Embracing Sisterhood describes the contemporary state of the black woman collective and explores the legacy of black sisterhood in these times Through an examination of how these ideas are articulated and experienced in the population McDonald determines the relative degree of black sisterhood and black step sisterhood that exists among African American women today America's Johannesburg Bobby M. Wilson, 2019-12-01 In some ways no American city symbolizes the black struggle for civil rights more than Birmingham Alabama During the 1950s and 1960s Birmingham gained national and international attention as a center of activity and unrest during the civil rights movement Racially motivated bombings of the houses of black families who moved into new neighborhoods or who were politically active during this era were so prevalent that Birmingham earned the nickname Bombingham In this critical analysis of why Birmingham became such a national flashpoint Bobby M Wilson argues that Alabama's path to industrialism differed significantly from that of states in the North and Midwest True to its antebellum roots no other industrial city in the United States depended as much on the exploitation of black labor so early in its urban development as Birmingham A persuasive exploration of the links between Alabama's slaveholding order and the subsequent industrialization of the state America's Johannesburg demonstrates that arguments based on classical economics fail to take into account the ways in which racial issues influenced the rise of industrial capitalism Racism Ellis of ideas about justice equality obligation and the state became dominant and traces its emergence from the political and ideological context of the postwar United States and Britain In the aftermath of the civil rights movement and the Vietnam War Rawls s A Theory of Justice made a particular kind of liberalism essential to political philosophy Using archival sources Forrester explores the ascent and legacy of this form of liberalism by examining its origins in midcentury debates among American antistatists and British egalitarians She traces the roots of contemporary theories of justice and inequality civil disobedience just war global and intergenerational justice and population ethics in the 1960s and 70s and beyond In these years political philosophers extended developed and reshaped this liberalism as they responded to challenges and alternatives on the left and right from the New International Economic Order to the rise of the New Right These thinkers remade political philosophy in ways that influenced not only their own trajectory but also that of their critics Recasting the history of late twentieth century political thought and providing novel interpretations and fresh perspectives on major political philosophers In the Shadow of Justice offers a rigorous look at liberalism s ambitions and limits

Shadow of Liberation Vishnu Padayachee,Robert Van Niekerk,2019-10-01 Shadow of Liberation explores the intricate twists turns contestations and compromises of ANC economic and social policymaking with a focus on the transition era of the 1990 s and the early years of democracy With the damning revelations by the Zondo Commission of Inquiry into State Capture on the massive corruption of the South African body politic the timing of this book could not be more relevant South Africans need to confront the economic and social policy choices that the liberation movement made and to see how these decisions may have facilitated the conditions for corruption to emerge and flourish Answers are needed Padayachee and van Niekerk focus their attention on the primary question of how and why the ANC given its historical anti inequality re distributive stance come in the 1990s to such a dramatic turn around and move towards an essentially market dominated approach Were they pushed or did they go willingly What role if any did Western governments and international financial institutions play And what of the role of the late apartheid state and South African business Did leaders and comrades sell out the ANC s emancipatory policy vision Shadow of Liberation tries to provide answers to these questions drawing on the best available primary archival evidence as well as extensive interviews with key protagonists across the political non government and business spectrum The authors argue that the ANC s emancipatory policy agenda was broadly to establish a social democratic welfare state upholding rights of social citizenship However its economic policy framework to realise this emancipatory mission was either non existent or egregiously misguided

Elliott Trudeau did This iconoclastic anti politician emerged from nowhere in the mid 1960s and from 1968 1984 governed Canada sometimes well sometimes poorly Even after Trudeau left office he remained a player his infrequent speeches and public appearances sufficient still to alter the course of events Now in commemoration of the 30th anniversary of Trudeau s coming to power Andrew Cohen and J L Granatstein have commissioned 23 new never before published essays from a diverse group of Canadians all of whom in some way or another have been influenced by this enigmatic leader Among the esteemed essayists are Larry Zolf Max Nemni Michael Bliss Richard Gwyn Linda Griffiths Mark Kingwell Robert Mason Lee Jim Coutts Rick Salutin Andrew Coyne Linda McQuaig Bob Rae Donald Macdonald James Raffan and B W Powe As a whole this is a stunning and important collection of work from an amazing scope of people controversial hard hitting fascinating

Organizing Workers in the Shadow of Slavery Rudi Batzell,2025-04-23 An original analysis of the relationship between slavery and the labor movement in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries During the rise of the labor movement in the late nineteenth century why were American workers unable to organize inclusive trade unions like those formed by their counterparts in the United Kingdom Comparing American and British capitalism in the port cities of Baltimore and Liverpool and the steel cities of Pittsburgh and Sheffield Rudi Batzell reveals that the answer lies in the legacies of slavery and entrenched structures of racial inequality Strikebreaking succeeded more often in the United States because landless Black Americans were out of economic desperation more likely to become scabs and fracture the class solidarity of any union movement Batzell shows in short how racism was and is deeply connected to class migration and capitalism in a global economy marked by slavery and empire In emphasizing the geography of economic inequality this book offers new clarity on the late nineteenth century successes and failures of working class formation More broadly Organizing Workers in the Shadow of Slavery makes it clear that the pursuit of justice today will require sustained economic reparations for slavery and colonialism
