Shadows Of The Shoah Jewish Identity And Belonging:

Shadows of the Shoah Victor J. Seidler, 2000-03 How can we make sense of being born and growing up in the shadows of the Shoah without being able to speak about the unspeakable terror that killed so many in our families As the second generation we were rarely to hear stories of love and loss or to participate in the mourning of so many who had been brutally murdered Rather we were to grow up normally and to learn to turn our backs on the past as we struggled towards future identities while imagining ourselves like everyone else Fearful of difference we were often ambivalent about Jewish identities that could threaten a sense of Englishness Exploring the painful dynamics of personal identity and belonging Victor Jeleniewski Seidler shares the difficulties of memory How is it possible ever really to belong and feel safe and yet remember what happened to Jewish families in Poland How can one remember without feeling overwhelmed by the terror Crossing boundaries in a journey to Poland enabled the author to rethink a relationship between Judaism and modernity as well as to reflect on the painful histories between Poles and Jews Questions about memory identity and belonging touch the lives of many people who live in the shadows of historical trauma Learning to think in new ways about the Shoah as a defining crisis within modernity Seidler also helps us imagine an ethics for a postmodern time Food and the Memory Harlan Walker, 2001 This is the eighteenth volume of the ongoing series of papers and submissions to the Oxford Symposium on Food Cookery the longest running food history conference in the world The subject this year is more speculative than is often the case and contributors have ranged widely over a topic which allows them to explore the psychological bases of food consumption and the development of cookery as well as more obvious excursions down memory lane in pursuit of food and drink Memory Work Nina Fischer, 2015-09-27 Memory Work studies how Jewish children of Holocaust survivors from the English speaking diaspora explore the past in literary texts By identifying areas where memory manifests Objects Names Bodies Food Passover 9 11 it shows how the Second Generation engage with the pre Holocaust family and their parents Working with Time in Qualitative Research Keri Facer, Johan Siebers, Bradon Smith, 2021-12-30 This survival collection brings together researchers and scholars from across the Arts Humanities and Social Sciences who are actively exploring the many different ways in which time might be understood imagined and used in qualitative research Taken together the contributions begin to trace the contours of what it might mean to work reflexively with time as an epistemologically constitutive element of research design The book explores how the choice to work with pasts or futures with speed or delay with clocks or the time of the body with utopias or failed futures among other things reframe how social and cultural phenomena are perceived and brought into existence in qualitative research Drawing on fields as disparate as futures studies and history literary analysis and urban design utopian studies and science and technology studies this collection serves as a resource for both new and experienced researchers in the humanities and social sciences It is a critically important resource for beginning to explore the wide repertoire of theoretical and methodological tools for working with time in the research process The book also draws attention to the way that institutional research timescapes from university workload patterns to funding processes and project timescales themselves shape how and what it is possible to know in and about the world It concludes with a rousing manifesto for scholars and researchers proposing 10 key attributes Tragic encounters and ordinary ethics Ruth Sheldon, 2016-10-20 For over four of temporally reflexive research decades events in Palestine Israel have provoked raging conflicts within British universities around issues of free speech extremism antisemitism and Islamophobia But why is this conflict so significant for student activists living at such a geographical distance from the region itself And what role do emotive polarised communications around Palestine Israel play in the life of British academic institutions committed to the ideal of free expression This book draws on original ethnographic research with student activists on different sides of this conflict to initiate a conversation with students academics and members of the public who are concerned with the transnational politics of Palestine Israel and with the changing role of the public university It shows how in an increasingly globalised world that is shaped by entangled histories of European antisemitism and colonial violence ethnography can open up ethical responses to questions of justice Under Postcolonial Eyes Efraim Sicher, Linda Weinhouse, 2013-01-01 In the Western literary tradition the jew has long been a figure of ethnic exclusion and social isolation the wanderer the scapegoat the alien But it is no longer clear where a perennial outsider belongs This provocative study of contemporary British writing points to the figure of the jew as the litmus test of multicultural society Efraim Sicher and Linda Weinhouse examine the jew as a cultural construction distinct from the Jewishness of literary characters in novels by among others Salman Rushdie Anita Desai Doris Lessing Monica Ali Caryl Philips and Zadie Smith as well as contemporary art and film Here the image of the jew emerges in all its ambivalence from postcolonial migrant and modern everyman to more traditional representations of the conspirator and malefactor The multicultural discourses of ethnic and racial hybridity reflect dissolution of national and personal identities yet the search for transnational cultural forms conceals both the acceptance of marginal South Asian Caribbean and Jewish voices as well as the danger of resurgent antisemitic tropes Innovative in its contextualization of the jew in the multiculturalism debate in contemporary Britain Under Postcolonial Eyes Figuring the jew in Contemporary British Writing analyzes the narrative of identities in a globalized culture and offers new interpretations of postmodern classics Urban Fears and Global Terrors Victor Seidler, 2007-10-18 First published in 2007 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Outcast Europe Sharif Gemie, Laure Humbert, Fiona Reid, 2012-01-19 An original perspective on the experience of refugees and relief workers After the Holocaust David Cesarani, Eric J. Sundquist, 2011-09-29 For the last decade scholars have been questioning the idea that the Holocaust was not talked about in any way until well into the 1970s After the Holocaust Challenging the Myth of Silence is the first collection of authoritative original scholarship to expose a serious misreading of the past on which controversially the claims for a Holocaust industry rest Taking an international approach this bold new book exposes the myth and opens the way for a sweeping reassessment of Jewish life in the postwar era a life lived in the pervasive shared awareness that Jews had narrowly survived a catastrophe that had engulfed humanity as a whole but claimed two thirds of their number The chapters include an overview of the efforts by survivor historians and memoir writers to inform the world of the catastrophe that had befallen the Jews of Europe an evaluation of the work of survivor historians and memoir writers new light on the Jewish historical commissions and the Jewish documentation centres studies of David Boder a Russian born psychologist who recorded searing interviews with survivors and the work of philosophers social thinkers and theologians theatrical productions by survivors and the first films on the theme made in Hollywood how the Holocaust had an impact on the everyday life of Jews in the USA and a discussion of the different types and meanings of silence A breakthrough volume in the debate about the Myth of Silence this is a must for all students of Holocaust and Jewish Identity in Western Pop Culture J. Stratton, 2008-06-09 This book looks at the post Holocaust genocide experience with emphasis on aspects of its impact on popular culture Relationality Simone Drichel, 2021-05-15 This book on Relationality addresses our growing crisis of connection by foregrounding the multi faceted ways in which we are interconnected with each other and the world in which we live When Niobe Way and her collaborators first proclaimed such a crisis in their 2018 book The Crisis of Connection Roots Consequences and Solutions they could not have foreseen the extremes of isolation and disconnection that Covid 19 would unleash just a couple of years later Importantly what such experiences of impaired and compromised relationality impress upon us now more powerfully than ever is just how fundamentally we are intertwined with each other and the world we inhabit The ten scholarly chapters assembled here combined with ten specially commissioned poems emphasise the significance of these relational entanglements They draw on a range of thinkers with Emmanuel Levinas playing a particularly prominent role to bring relationality into conversation with an array of contemporary paradigms and areas of political concern the Anthropocene post humanism neoliberalism disability studies and postcolonialism to name but a few Tracing the various challenges and opportunities associated with our relational existence they collectively consider the role relationality plays or might play in our increasingly less than relational lives The chapters and poems in this book were originally published as a special issue of Angelaki What is Masculinity? I. Arnold, S. Brady, 2011-06-14 Across history the ideas and practices of male identity have varied much between time and place masculinity proves to be a slippery concept not available to all men sometimes even applied to women This book analyses the dynamics of masculinity as both an ideology and lived experience how men have tried and failed to be Real Men

Remembering 9/11 V. Seidler,2013-10-25 Remembering 9 11 recalls the afterlife of the tragedy and the shock that led many to ask why do they hate us so much Engaging with the different voices that attempted to make sense of the trauma Seidler traces the narratives of fear loss and vulnerability and the ways in which they evolved into feelings of rage and retribution Testimonies of Resistance Nicholas Chare, Dominic Williams, 2019-09-01 The Sonderkommando the special squad of enslaved Jewish laborers who were forced to work in the gas chambers and crematoria of Auschwitz Birkenau comprise one of the most fascinating and troubling topics within Holocaust history As eyewitnesses to and unwilling abettors of the murder of their fellow Jews they are the object of fierce condemnation even today Yet it was a group of these seemingly compromised men who carried out the revolt of October 7 1944 one of the most celebrated acts of Holocaust resistance This interdisciplinary collection assembles careful investigations into how the Sonderkommando have been represented by themselves and by others both during and after the Holocaust Transforming Masculinities Victor J. Seidler,2006 Critically exploring the theories of men and masculinities this multidisciplinary text highlights diversity and points to new directions Written by an established author it is essential reading for students and researchers in related fields

Young Men and Masculinities Victor J. Seidler,2013-07-04 In this book Victor J Seidler one of the leading contributors to the growing debate about masculinities turns his attention to the lives of young men and their understandings of themselves as gendered beings By contextualizing their experiences and subjectivities within a rapidly globalizing world Seidler pays particular attention to the impact of the global media How does the mass circulation of images of men s bodies desires and sexualities affect their self perception and behaviours and how are these images framed within particular histories cultures and traditions Questioning universalist theories of hegemonic masculinities the book argues that young men often feel caught between prevailing masculinities and their own struggle for self definition It explores both how the idea of men as the First Sex has been established within the West and the ways in which men in other cultures and societies affirm their gendered identities Seidler pioneers new methodologies that involve listening to the silences surrounding male experience as well as to oral testimonies This enables innovative analysis of the contradictions young men are faced with in both creating their own gendered identities and establishing more equal relationships within a world of intense inequalities

At Home with the Holocaust Lucas F. W. Wilson, 2025-03-11 At Home with the Holocaust examines the relationship between intergenerational trauma and domestic space focusing on how Holocaust survivors homes became extensions of their traumatized psyches that their children inhabited Analyzing second and third generation Holocaust literature such as Art Spiegelman s Maus Jonathan Safran Foer s Everything Is Illuminated Sonia Pilcer s The Holocaust Kid and Elizabeth Rosner s The Speed of Light as well as oral histories of children of survivors Lucas F W Wilson s study reveals how the material conditions of survivor family homes along with household practices and belongings rendered these homes as spaces of traumatic transference As survivors traumas became imbued in the very space of the domestic their homes functioned as material archives of their Holocaust pasts creating environments that not uncommonly second handedly wounded their children As survivor family homes were imaginatively transformed by survivors children into the sites of their parents traumas like concentration camps and ghettos their homes catalyzed the transmission of these traumas Ethical Humans Victor Jeleniewski Seidler, 2021-11-29 Ethical Humans questions how philosophy and social theory can help us to engage the everyday moral realities of living working loving learning and dying in new capitalism It introduces sociology as an art of living and as a formative tradition of embodied radical eco post humanism Seeking to embody traditions of philosophy and social theory in everyday ethics this book validates emotions and feelings as sources of knowledge and shows how the denigration of women has gone hand in hand with the denigration of nature It queries post structuralist traditions of anti humanism that for all their insights into the fragmentation of identities often sustain a distinction between nature and culture The author argues that in a crisis of global warming we have to learn to listen to our bodies as part of nature and draws on Wittgenstein to shape embodied forms of philosophy and social theory that questions theologies that tacitly continue to shape philosophical traditions In acknowledging our own vulnerabilities we question the vision of the autonomous and independent rational self that often remains within the terms of dominant white masculinities This book offers different modes of self work drawing on psychoanalysis and embodied post analytic psychotherapies as part of a decolonising practice questioning Eurocentric colonising modernity In doing so it challenges with Simone Weil Roman notions of power and greatness that have shaped visions of white supremacy and European colonial power and empire This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of environmental ethics environmental philosophy social theory and sociology ethics and philosophy cultural studies future studies gender studies post colonial studies Marxism psychoanalysis and psychotherapy and philosophy and sociology as arts of living Sensing Space Claire Omhovère, 2007 This book enlarges the perspective of literary geography which tends to focus on the correspondence between the objective world the geographer addresses and its subjective rendering in art Instead it considers how geography informs fresh aesthetic responses to space in contemporary Canadian literature with specific attention to the writings of Alistair MacLeod Jane Urguhart Anne Michaels Aritha van Herk Rudy Wiebe Robert Kroetsch and Thomas Wharton This broadening leads to a series of interrogations what blanks in conventional landscape writing does physical geography fill and how Where does the efficiency of geography lie beyond its scientific accuracy or descriptive relevance Pondering the role of geography in a work of art therefore amounts to considering what makes geography work as art is there such a thing as a poetics of geography Because the place of the writer and the representation of space remain two central concerns in Canadian writing the texts under scrutiny help elucidate the critical role performed by the geographical imagination a phrase used by theoreticians as diverse as Edward Said Edward Soja or Derek Gregory in the fabrication of symbolic ties between Canadians and the land they have come to share Feminist Methodology Caroline Ramazanoglu, Janet Holland, 2002-02-20 An accessible clearly explained review of difficult concepts within this arena as well as relevant debates Its strengths are in outlining possible considerations that need to be taken into account when making methodological choices It also clearly explains how these choices impact knowledge production This book would undoubtedly be of considerable use to anyone seeking to understand and get to grips with feminist methodological issues Feminism and Psychology Who would be a feminist now Contemporary political realism suggests that the essentials of the battle have already been won and the current generation of women entering University is used to seeing feminism presented as old fashioned extreme and unrealistic Challenging such assumptions this important new book argues for the value of empirical investigations of gendered life and brings together the theoretical political and practical aspects of feminist methodology Feminist Methodology demonstrates how feminist approaches to methodology engage with debates in western philosophy to raise critical questions about knowledge production shows that feminist methodology has a distinctive place in social research guides the reader through the terrain of feminist methodology and clarifies how feminists can claim knowledge of gendered social existence connects abstract issues of theory with issues in fieldwork practice This timely and accessible book will be an essential resource for students in women s studies gender studies sociology cultural studies social anthropology and feminist psychology
