Biography, French, the study of a person's life, from birth to death, usually written by a biographer. The word is derived from the Greek bios (life) and grapho (to write). The first biographies were written by ancient Greek and Roman historians. The modern biography is a more detailed and often more critical study of a person's life. It may include a person's childhood, education, career, and death. The biography is a popular form of literature, and many famous people have been the subject of biographies.
