Studying French Cinema Isabelle Vanderschelden, 2013-04-22 Taking a text led approach with the emphasis on more recent popular films Studying French Cinema is directed at non specialists such as students of French Film Studies and the general reader with an interest in post war French cinema Each of the chapters focuses on one or more key films from the ground breaking films of the nouvelle vague Les 400 coups 1959 to contemporary documentary Etre et avoir 2002 and puts them into their relevant contexts Depending on the individual film these include explorations of childhood adolescence and coming of age Les 400 coups L Argent de poche auteur ideology and individual style the films of Jean Luc Godard and Agnes Varda the representation of recent French history Lacombe Lucien and Au revoir les enfants transnational production practices Le Pacte des loups and popular cinema comedy and gender issues e g Le Diner de cons Each film is embedded in its cultural and political context Together the historical discussions provide an overview of post war French history to the present Useful suggestions are made as to studies of related films both those discussed within the book and outside

Cinema of Pain Liz Czach, André Loiselle, 2020-07-29 Since the defeat of the pro sovereigntists in the 1995 Quebec referendum the loss of a cohesive nationalistic vision in the province has led many Qu b cois to use their ancestral origins to inject meaning into their everyday lives A Cinema of Pain argues that this phenomenon is observable in a pervasive sense of nostalgia in Quebec culture and is especially present in the province s vibrant but deeply wistful cinema In Qu b cois cinema nostalgia not only denotes a sentimental longing for the bucolic pleasures of bygone French Canadian traditions but as this edited collection suggests it evokes the etymological sense of the term which underscores the element of pain algos associated with the longing for a return home nostos Whether it is in grandiloquent historical melodramas such as S raphin un homme et son p ch Binam 2002 intimate realist dramas like Tout ce que tu poss des mond 2012 charming art films like C R A Z Y Vall e 2005 or even gory horror movies like Sur le Seuil Tessier 2003 the contemporary Qu b cois screen projects an image of shared suffering that unites the nation through a melancholy search for home Proust, Pastiche, and the Postmodern or Why Style Matters James F. Austin, 2013-08-28 Proust Pastiche and the Postmodern or Why Style Matters argues against the traditional view that Marcel Proust wrote pastiches that is texts that imitate the style of another author to master his literary predecessors while sharpening his writerly quill On the contrary James F Austin demonstrates that Proust's oeuvre and In Search of Lost Time in particular deploy pastiche to other ends Proust's pastiches in fact do things with words to create powerful real world effects His works are indeed performative acts that forge social relationships redefine our ideas of literature and even work against oppressive political and economic discourses Building on the speech act theory of J L Austin Jacques Derrida and J Hillis Miller and on the postmodern theory of Fredric Jameson this book not only elucidates the performative nature of pastiche but also shows that the famous Goncourt pastiche from In Search of Lost Time has attracted so much attention because it already attained the postmodern that is it eliminated temporal depth and experience transforming time itself into a nostalgic style of an era and into the sort of aestheticized surface that came to define postmodernism decades later To reflect this transformation of pastiche this work rearticulates its history in France around Proust Reconfiguring a scholastic classically inspired pedagogical tradition based on imitation and breaking with the dominant satirical practice Proust's work opened up possibilities in the twentieth century for a new kind of pastiche playful and performative in the literary field and postmodern in a French cinema that as with the Goncourt pastiche represents time as the visual style of an era whether unreflexively in heritage films such as Régis Wargnier's Indochine or discerningly in Eric Rohmer's Lady and the Duke which uses period pictorial and painterly conventions to illustrate how the representation of history onscreen typically flattens time into style Recovering 1940s Horror

Cinema Mario DeGiglio-Bellemare, Charlie Ellbé, Kristopher Woofert, 2014-12-11 The 1940s is a lost decade in horror cinema undervalued and written out of most horror scholarship This collection revises reframes and deconstructs persistent critical binaries that have been put in place by scholarly discourse to label 1940s horror as somehow inferior to a classical period or canonical mode of horror in the 1930s especially as represented by the monster films of Universal Studios The book's four sections re-evaluate the historical political economic and cultural factors informing 1940s horror cinema to introduce new theoretical frameworks and to open up space for scholarly discussion of 1940s horror genre hybridity periodization and aesthetics Chapters focused on Gothic and Grand Guignol traditions operating in forties horror cinema 1940s proto slasher films the independent horrors of the Poverty Row studios and critical reevaluations of neglected hybrid films such as The Vampire's Ghost 1945 and slippery auteurs such as Robert Siodmak and Sam Neufield work to recover a decade of horror that has been framed as having fallen victim to repetition exhaustion and decline Sense of Film Narration Ian Garwood, 2015-03-05 This book investigates the sensuous qualities of narration in the feature length fiction film

Electronic Musician, 2005 Intimacy in Cinema David Roche, Isabelle Schmitt-Pitiot, 2014-09-17 Though intimacy has been a wide concern in the humanities it has received little critical attention in film studies This collection of new essays investigates both the potential intimacy of cinema as a medium and the possibility of a cinema of intimacy where it is least expected As a notion defined by binaries inside and outside surface and depth public and private self and other intimacy because it implies sharing calls into question the boundaries between these extremes and the border separating mainstream cinema and independent or auteur cinema Following on Thomas Elsaesser's theories of the relationship between the intimacy of cinema and the cinema of intimacy the essays explore intimacy in silent and classic Hollywood movies underground documentary and animation films and contemporary Hollywood British Canadian and Australian cinema from a variety of approaches
