A Mount Lehman Native Son Gordon Taylor, 2023-09-26 This book is a biography of my father who died in 1998 He has left many notes in anticipation of writing a book or books himself primarily to highlight his heritage upbringing and the history of the area in BC in which he lived namely Mount Lehman Due to his death I had to step up try to marshal all his notes and attempt to write his story as I perceive it In the process I had to conduct my own genealogical research as well as historical research of my relatives to confirm Dad's notes and to ensure my account is accurate I also researched the various organizations in Mount Lehman which were prominent in Dad's and my ancestor's lives as I believed that the book will also be important to the history of this area There is a dearth of comprehensive writing about the history of Mount Lehman The book is intended to tell the story of my father and our ancestors to those who had never met them or knew Dad and don't know all his stories I am especially proud of our family's heritage and ancestry and want to encourage my children and grandchildren to be aware of their ancestry and add to this story if they feel inclined to do so

The Life and Letters of Lewis Carroll Stuart Dodgson Collingwood, 2017-10-16 This biography subtitled The Original Scandalous Biography by Carroll's nephew was written by Carroll's nephew and published only 11 months after his death in December 1898 It accidentally started the entire image of Lewis Carroll as a pedophile by deliberately suppressing all the evidence for his sometimes unconventional relationships with women explaining that some of those women had been little girls The Victorians had no concept of our modern idea of pedophilia In fact a man who loved pre-pubescent girls was considered especially saintly and innocent and this was why Collingwood over-emphasized this aspect of his uncle's character so much Stuart Dodgson Collingwood 1870-1937 was an English clergyman and headmaster He wrote two books about his uncle Lewis Carroll
