Love Symbols:

Symbols Raymond Firth, 2011 This book first published in 1973 offers a broad survey of the study of symbolic ideas and behaviour The study of symbolism is popular nowadays and anthropologists have made substantial contributions to it Raymond Firth has long been internationally known for his field research in the Solomons and Malaysia and for his theoretical work on kinship economics and religion Here from a new angle he has produced a broad survey of the study of symbolic ideas and behaviour Professor Firth examines definitions of symbol He traces the history of scientific inquiry into the symbolism of religious cults mythology and dreams back into the eighteenth century He compares some modern approaches to symbolism in art literature and philosophy with those in social anthropology He then cites examples in anthropological treatment of symbolic material from cultures of varying sophistication Finally he offers dispassionate analyses of symbols used in contemporary Western situations from hair styles to the use and abuse of national flags from cults of Black Jesus to the Eucharistic rite In all this Professor Firth combines social and political topicality with a scholarly and provocative theoretical inquiry

Edvard Munch and the Physiology of Symbolism Shelley Wood Cordulack,Edvard Munch,2002 This book explores how and why the influential Norwegian artist Edvard Munch exploited late nineteenth century physiology as a means to express the Symbolist soul Munch's series of paintings through the 1890s known collectively as the Frieze of Life looked to the physiologically functioning and malfunctioning living organism for both its visual and organized metaphors Religion in Late Modernity Robert C. Neville,2002-07-17 Religion in Late Modernity runs against the grain of common suppositions of contemporary theology and philosophy of religion Against the common supposition that basic religious terms have no real reference but are mere functions of human need the book presents a pragmatic theory of religious symbolism in terms of which the cognitive engagement of the Ultimate is of a piece with the cognitive engagement of nature and persons Throughout this discussion Neville develops a late modern conception of God that is defensible in a global theological public Against the common supposition that religion is on the retreat in late modernity except in fundamentalist forms the author argues that religion in our time is a stimulus to religiously oriented scholarship a civilizing force among world societies a foundation for obligation in politics a source for healthy social experimentation and the most important mover of soul
