Pacific Voices Talk Story Margo King Lenson, 2007 Pacific Voices Talk Story invites Pacific Americans to record their hearts and minds to be turned into pages not only Pacific Americans want to read but our neighbors up the street We ve much to learn about ourselves other Islanders here and the diversity of America If we re not talking to each other now reading Pacific Voices Talk Story will tell you that tribalism and village mentalities followed us to the mainland Read and join the dialogue of Pacific Americans claiming new identities and finding a place in the mainland that trumps their nostalgic past

PACIFIC Voices Talk Story Margo King Lenson, 2004     The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History David K. Yoo, Eiichiro Azuma, 2016-01-04 After emerging from the tumult of social movements of the 1960s and 1970s the field of Asian American studies has enjoyed rapid and extraordinary growth Nonetheless many aspects of Asian American history still remain open to debate The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History offers the first comprehensive commentary on the state of the field simultaneously assessing where Asian American studies came from and what the future holds In this volume thirty leading scholars offer original essays on a wide range of topics The chapters trace Asian American history from the beginning of the migration flows toward the Pacific Islands and the American continent to Japanese American incarceration and Asian American participation in World War II from the experience of exclusion violence and racism to the social and political activism of the late twentieth century The authors explore many of the key aspects of the Asian American experience including politics economy intellectual life the arts education religion labor gender family urban development and legal history The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History demonstrates how the roots of Asian American history are linked to visions of a nation marked by justice and equity and to a deep effort to participate in a global project aimed at liberation The contributors to this volume attest to the ongoing importance of these ideals showing how the mass politics creative expressions and the imagination that emerged during the 1960s are still relevant today It is an unprecedentedly detailed portrait of Asian Americans and how they have helped change the face of the United States     Reppin' Keith L. Camacho, 2021-05-27 Explores the critical insights and creative energies of Pacific Islander youth From hip hop artists in the Marshall Islands to innovative multimedia producers in Vanuatu to racial justice writers in Utah Pacific Islander youth are using radical expression to transform their communities Exploring multiple perspectives about Pacific Islander youth cultures in such locations as Aotearoa New Zealand Australia Hawai i and Tonga this cross disciplinary volume foregrounds social justice methodologies and programs that confront the ongoing legacies of colonization incarceration and militarization The ten essays in this collection also highlight the ways in which youth throughout Oceania and the diaspora have embraced digital technologies to communicate across national boundaries mobilize sites of political resistance and remix popular media By centering Indigenous peoples creativity and self determination Reppin vividly illuminates the dynamic power of Pacific Islander youth to reshape the present and future of settler cities and other urban spaces in Oceania and beyond     Voices of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Experience Sang Chi, Emily Moberg Robinson, 2012-02-13 This unique work presents an extraordinary breadth of contemporary and historical views on Asian America and Pacific Islanders conveyed through the voices of the men and women who lived these experiences over more than 150 years In 1848 the First Wave of Asian immigration arrived in the United States By the first decade of the 21st century Asian Americans were the nation's fastest growing racial group Through a far ranging array of primary source documents Voices of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Experience shares what it was like for these diverse peoples to live and work in the United States for better and for worse Organized chronologically by ethnicity the book covers a panoply of ethnic groups including recent Asian immigrants and mixed race mixed heritage Asian Americans There is also a topical section that showcases views on everything from politics to class to gender dynamics underscoring that the Asian American population is not nor has it ever been monolithic In choosing material the editors strove to make the volume as comprehensive as possible Thus readers will discover documents written by transnational adopted and homosexual Asian Americans as well as documents written from particular religious positions Pacific Studies, 2006 Papers form a formal symposium which convened in February 2005 during the annual meetings of ASAO on Lihue Kauai Island Hawaii Journal of Asian American Studies, 2004 Official publication of the Association for Asian American Studies explores all aspects of the Asian American experience Publishes original works of scholarly interest to the field including new theoretical developments research results methodological innovations public policy concerns pedagogical issues and book media reviews Serials in the British Library, 2008 Amplified Voices, Intersecting Identities: Volume 2, 2020-10-26 The contributors to Amplified Voices Intersecting Identities First Gen PhDs Navigating Institutional Power in Early Careers overcame deeply unequal educational systems to become the first in their families to finish college Now they are among the 3% of first generation undergraduate students to go on to graduate school and then become faculty in spite of structural barriers that worked against them These scholars write of socialization to the professoriate through the complex lens of intersectional identities of race ethnicity gender sexuality ability and social class These first generation graduate students have crafted critical narratives of the structural obstacles within higher education that stand in the way of brilliant scholars who are poor and working class Black Indigenous Latinx Asian immigrant queer white women or people with disabilities They write of agency in creating defiant networks of support of sustaining connections to family and communities of their activism and advocacy on campus They refuse to perpetuate the myths of meritocracy that reproduce the inequalities of higher education In response to a research literature and to campus programming that frames their identities around need they write instead of agentive and politicized intersectional identities as first generation graduate students committed to institutional change through their research teaching and service Contributors are Veronica R Barrios Candis Bond Beth Buyserie Noralis Rodriguez Coss Charise Paulette DeBerry Janette Diaz Alfred P Flores Jos Garcia Cynthia George Shonda Goward Luis Javier Penton Herrera Nataria T Joseph Castagna Lacet
