Christine Ruane examines the issues of gender and class in the teaching profession of late imperial Russia at a time when the vocation was becoming increasingly feminized in a zealously patriarchal society Teaching was the first profession open to women in the 1870s and by the end of the century almost half of all Russian teachers were female Yet the notion that mothers had a natural affinity for teaching was paradoxically matched by formal and informal bans against married women in the classroom Ruane reveals not only the patriarchal rationale but also how women teachers viewed their public roles and worked to reverse the marriage ban Ruane's research and insightful analysis broadens our knowledge of an emerging professional class especially newly educated and emancipated women during Russia's transition to a more modern society

Auer,Wolfgang Pachatz,Tiia Rüttnann,2023-02-22 We are currently witnessing a significant transformation in the development of education on all levels and especially in post secondary education To face these challenges higher education must find innovative ways to quickly respond to these new needs These were the aims connected with the 25th International Conference on Interactive Collaborative Learning ICL2022 which was held in Vienna Austria from September 27 to 30 2022 Since its beginning in 1998 this conference is devoted to new approaches in learning with a focus on collaborative learning in higher education This book contains papers in the fields of New Learning Models and Applications Project Based Learning Engineering Pedagogy Education Research in Engineering Pedagogy Teaching Best Practices Real World Experiences Academia Industry Partnerships Trends in Master and Doctoral Research Interested readership includes policymakers academics educators researchers in pedagogy and learning theory school teachers the learning industry further and continuing education lecturers etc Lisgar Collegiate Institute Joan Finnigan,Lisgar Alumni Association,1993 Standards Matter Committee on Standards in Public Life,2013-01-17 The Committee for Standards in Public Life felt that the time was right to undertake a review of the key lessons that have been learnt since the Nolan Committee s first report ISBN 9780101285025 was published in 1995 about how to improve ethical standards in public life to stand back and reflect on what has been achieved and what still needs to be done The report argues that much of the basic infrastructure to improve standards is now in place Statements of key principles and codes of conduct have been adopted by most public bodies new regulators have been created or had their existing remits clarified and awareness of principles such as integrity accountability and openness has increased considerably The Committee believes standards of behaviour in many areas of public life have improved But the Committee finds it disturbing that concerns continue to be raised about the integrity of so many of the country s key institutions or those within them and the evidence of the last few years and months suggests that there is still much to do before the high standards in public life to which we all aspire are fully internalised in the cultures of all our public institutions The report concludes that the need now is not for more principles codes or regulators but rather for the existing arrangements to be more consistently and actively implemented

International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood, Judith Chapman, P. Corson, P. Hallinger, Ann Hart, 2012-12-06 EDITORS This introduction to the International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration describes some of the motivation for developing the book and several assumptions on which is based much of the work represented in its 31 chapters A synopsis of the contents of those chapters is also provided SOME KEY ASSUMPTIONS It is sometimes suggested that the search for an adequate understanding of leadership is doomed to fail After all there is little evidence of agreement about the concept in spite of prodigious efforts dating back hundreds if not thousands of years Such a view is captured for example in Bennis observation that Of all the hazy and confounding areas in social psychology leadership theory undoubtedly contends for top nomination Probably more has been written and less is known about leadership than any other topic in the behavioural sciences 1959 page 259 We do not find this state of affairs discouraging nor entirely accurate and of course it did not prevent Bennis from proceeding either One reason for our desire to continue in the face of such discouraging words is that a great deal of leadership research aspires to develop a general theory a theory which applies to all or most domains of organized human activity This aspiration inevitably produces decontextualized and therefore abstract categories of practice Howard Gardner's 1995 depiction of leadership as story telling is a case in point A Pedagogical View of the COVID-19 Pandemic , 2024-12-30 To strengthen educational practices in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic it is important to disseminate scientific findings that reflect teachers perspectives educational experiences and data driven insights This book offers a compilation of diverse insights into and international reactions to online teaching and learning adaptations during the pandemic s lockdown across countries It delves into the varied educational and cultural landscapes presenting specific data to highlight the challenges and innovations that have shaped the learning environment today Through this exploration we aim to contribute to a more informed and resilient educational framework tailored to the lived unprecedented times Contributors are Laura Sara Agrati Saba Alvi Daniela Roxana Andron Tasha Ausman Yuhua Bu Steve Burton Maria Chatzi Million Chauraya Willian Lazaretti da Conceic o Luciano Nascimento Corsino Cheryl J Craig Christos Govaris Oezge Hacifazlioglu Catherine James Gabriela Jonas Ahrend Stavroula Kaldi Ruth Kane Svletana Karkina Manpreet Kaur Stefania Kifor Angeliki Lazaridou Paul Magnuson Maria Ines Marcondes Juanjo Mena Silvana Mesquita Luiz Sanches Neto Patsy Norton Maureen Atieno Olel Samuel Ouma Oyoo Loredana Perla Efsrathios Xafakos Rui Balwant Singh Vassoliki Tzika Alexandra Stavrianoudaki Vasileios Stavropoulos Athanasios Tasios George Tekos Marc Turu Aikaterini Vassiou Luciana Ven ncio Viviana Vinci and Zheng Longping Ye
