Resistance And Theological Ethics:

Resistance and Theological Ethics Ronald H. Stone, Robert L. Stivers, 2004 Protestantism at its best grounds both its religious and its social critique in the faith of the prophets and the life and teachings of Jesus Christ as understood and lived by the church Its teachings and desired practice stand in stark contrast to complacent religion that seems to be at ease with imperial greed domination and violence Resistance and Theological Ethics collects the edited and updated essays that emerged from the meeting of the Theological Educators for Presbyterian Social Witness in Geneva Switzerland and southern France in 1999 Inspired there by the sixteenth century forces of renewal unleashed through resistance to an imperial church and society the writings of these educators and ethicists combine to sound a clarion call for the church to stand in resistance to social economic and political forces that threaten while embracing those that foster social justice peace and human welfare Each author emphasizes a specific call to nonviolent resistance against powers grounded in particular forms of sin religious pride greed violence and domination Divided into three parts the book details social forces to be resisted presents historical and biblical examples of resistance and concludes with theological analysis and advocacy for action in contemporary American society

Womanist Theological Ethics Katie Geneva Cannon, Emilie Maureen Townes, Angela D. Sims, 2011-01-01 Writing across theological disciplines nine African American women scholars reflect on what it means to live as responsible doers of justice With some classic essays and some contributions published here for the first time each chapter in this new volume in the Library of Theological Ethics series presents analytical strategies for understanding the story of womanist scholarship in the service of the black community The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors through reflection on classic works in the field

The Cambridge Companion to Paul Tillich Russell Re Manning, 2009-02-12 This authoritative Companion to the theologian Paul Tillich provides an accessible account of the major themes in his diverse theological writings It embodies and develops recent renewed interest in Tillich's theology and reaffirms him as a major figure in today's theological landscape

Defying the Darkness J. Michael Clark, 2010-01-01 Clark's work is original in that he has inserted himself precisely as a gay scholar in the midst of an ongoing conversation far larger than that of the gay world including ecofeminism Judaism and Native American and shows especially how queer theory and ecofeminism can illuminate each other Richard L. Smith author of AIDS Gays and the American Catholic Church The Pilgrim Press

Resist! Michael G. Long, 2014-07-30

Applied Christian Ethics Matthew Lon Weaver, 2014-09-09 Applied Christian Ethics addresses selected themes in Christian social ethics The book is divided in three parts In the first section Foundation several contributors reveal their Christian realist roots and discuss the prophetic origins and multifarious agenda of social ethics Thus the names of Reinhold Niebuhr and Paul Tillich come up frequently In the second section Economics and Justice the focus turns to the different levels at which economics has significance for social justice These chapters discuss fair housing at the local level the dialogue between Christians and Native Americans over property rights at the regional and national levels and trade and international organization In the third and final section Politics War and Peacemaking the content ranges from the existential experience of a soldier to that of a veteran of civil rights activism from theorizing about peacemaking to commenting on the use of drones

Five Risks Presbyterians Must Take for Peace Christian Iosso, 2017-09-30 Believing peacemaking to be an inherent part of discipleship Presbyterians have taken many valiant stands for peace throughout our history However changing global realities political and military actions and new weapons of war have made the world less safe than ever The church must reconsider how to be faithful peacemakers in this changing reality The Presbyterian Church recently spent six years reflecting on peacemaking Building on past policy documents people at all levels of the church studied and discussed what peacemaking policies needed to be modified given the world context today The 2016 PC USA General Assembly affirmed five affirmations the church must make to fulfill its peacemaking calling Those affirmations become risks when truly taken because their message collides with the demands for continued sacrifice by the powers that be In this timely resource author Christian Iosso explains what the five risks are how they differ from previous positions and what taking each risk might look like today Ideal for individual or group study this important resource includes questions for reflection and discussion

The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics Ronald H. Stone, 2023-09-26 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics addresses themes in political philosophy in the context of a crisis in democracy after the denial of the 2020 election by the Republican candidate for president The refusal to accept the results of the election divided the electorate and drove the president's followers to fail in their attempted coup attempt in January of 2020 Democracy is defended in Reinhold Niebuhr's writing on politics and in Barack Obama's use of the theologian's thought It is developed further in the political theory of Paul Tillich The themes of just peacemaking are reviewed in Paul Tillich's critique of John Foster Dulles work and in the author's critique of just peacemaking in the work of Glen Stassen Domestically the issues of race inequality ecology and healthcare are addressed from the perspective of prophetic realism The book concludes in terms of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy of education and religion and a vision of the good president In summary The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics is a volume of American Christian political theory in a period of overcoming the trauma of 2016 with Christian ethics and political philosophy

Justice in a Global Economy Pamela Brubaker, Rebecca Todd Peters, Laura A. Stivers, 2006-01-01 Today's complex social and economic problems leave many people in the affluent world feeling either overwhelmed or ambivalent Even the small percentage of us who have examined the ethics behind our financial decisions and overcome the often deterring factors of self interest rarely know what to do to make any difference By providing tools for examination and concrete actions for individuals communities and society at large Justice in a Global Economy guides its readers through many of today's complex societal issues including land use immigration corporate accountability and environmental and economic justice Beginning with a basic introduction to the impact of economic globalization the book provides both critical assessments of the current political economic structures and examples of people and communities who are actively working to transform society Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion and reflection Bonhoeffer the Assassin? Mark Thiessen Nation, Anthony G. Siegrist, Daniel P. Umbel, 2013-10-01 Most of us think we know the moving story of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's life a pacifist pastor turns anti Hitler conspirator due to horrors encountered during World War II but does the evidence really support this prevailing view This pioneering work carefully examines the biographical and textual evidence and finds no support for the theory that Bonhoeffer abandoned his ethic of discipleship and was involved in plots to assassinate Hitler In fact Bonhoeffer consistently affirmed a strong stance of peacemaking from 1932 to the end of his life and his commitment to peace was integrated with his theology as a whole The book includes a foreword by Stanley Hauerwas

Prophetic Realism Ronald Stone, 2005-11-07 After September 11 2001 ordinary citizens faced a new world ruled by political and religious machinations against the threat of terrorism While political leaders pursued a policy of militarism many religious leaders advocated pacifism Ronald H Stone advocates a middle road between these two extremes what he calls prophetic realism Taking up Reinhold Niebuhr's notion of Christian realism Stone argues that our current situation calls for hard answers to hard questions Stone offers compelling evidence that Jesus provides the prophetic model of our interaction with our enemies This book will change people's minds about the relationship of religion and politics in the contemporary world Power For: Feminism and Christ's Self-Giving Anna Mercedes, 2011-09-22 Contesting the feminist critique of the dangers of Christianity's self giving ethics this book advances a contemporary feminist christology engaging the strength of self giving power

Reproduction and the Common Good Simeiqi He, Emily Reimer-Barry, 2025-02-17 In this cutting edge collection theologians from around the world consider the relationship between reproduction and social justice These scholars address the complex injustices women face and reflect on the teachings and mission of the Catholic Church in light of the varied experiences of women across the globe Resurrection and Moral Imagination Sarah Bachelard, 2016-04-08 Moral life gathers its shape force and meaning in relation to an underlying sense of reality imaginatively conceived Significant contemporary writing in philosophy appeals to the concept of transcendence to explore what is deepest in our moral experience but leaves this notion theologically unspecified This book reflects on the appeal to transcendence in ethics with reference to the Resurrection of Jesus Bachelard argues that the Resurrection reveals that the ultimate reality in which human life is held is gracious forgiving and reconciling a Goodness that is for us Faith in this testimony transforms the possibilities of moral life both conceptually and in practice It invites our participation in a goodness experienced non dualistically as grace and so profoundly affects the formation of the moral self the practice of moral judgement and the shape of moral concepts From this perspective contemporary philosophical discussion about transcendence in moral thought is cast in a new light and debates about the continuity between theological and secular ethics gain a thoroughly new dimension Bachelard demonstrates that placing the Resurrection at the heart of our ethical reflection resonates with the deepest currents of our lived moral experience and transfigures our approach to moral life and thought

The Word Before the Powers Charles L. Campbell, 2002-01-01 In this examination of the ethical significance of preaching Charles Campbell provides both fresh insights into the relationship between preaching and ethics and a challenging moral vision for the contemporary church Moving beyond a narrow focus on moral decision making or social issues sermons Campbell argues that a particular ethic nonviolent resistance is inherent in the practice of preaching and shapes the moral life of the church In the face of the powers the fundamental ethical task of preaching involves building up the church as a community of resistance Employing three dimensions of character ethics vision practices and virtues Campbell demonstrates the concrete ways in which preachers may undertake this task

Encyclopedia of Global Justice Deen K. Chatterjee, 2012-01-23 This two volume Encyclopedia of Global Justice published by Springer along with Springer's book series Studies in Global Justice is a major publication venture toward a comprehensive coverage of this timely topic The Encyclopedia is an international interdisciplinary and collaborative project spanning all the relevant areas of scholarship related to issues of global justice and edited and advised by leading scholars from around the world The wide ranging entries present the latest ideas on this complex subject by authors who are at the cutting edge of inquiry The Encyclopedia sets the tone and direction of this increasingly important area of scholarship for years to come The entries number around 500 and consist of essays of 300 to 5000 words The inclusion and length of entries are based on their significance to the topic of global justice regardless of their importance in other areas

The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah L. Miles, 2001-08-23 In this constructive study Miles proposes a new feminist theological ethic drawing together the contributions of Reinhold Niebuhr Sharon Welch and Rosemary Ruether Seeking to critically reappropriate the Christian realism articulated by Niebuhr she reinterprets solutions to problems emergent from his theology Miles presents feminist Christian realism as an alternative that can reclaim a positive interpretation of divine transcendence and human self transcendence while maintaining newer emphases on human boundedness and divine immanence Theologians and ethicists will find her critical reassessment of the three authors distinctive and her challenging proposal for a positive creative transformation a significant contribution to the development of feminist ethics

Moral Reflections on Foreign Policy in a Religious War Ronald H. Stone, 2008-05-02 Moral Reflections on Foreign Policy in a Religious War argues that foreign policy thinkers and actors must take religion more seriously than they have in analysis and action The tragedy of U S policy in Iraq is in part due to the dangers of ignoring religious conflicts in that country until it was too late and then responding too lightly Working as a philosopher of religion and politics Stone shows how both in the United States and the Middle East unreflective religion in a dialogic relationship with politics power has proven hazardous Stone proposes policy changes for the United States based on his analysis and calls for reform in the ways that both politics and religion are understood Without peace between religions there will be no peace in the Middle East Without understanding how religion functions in international politics the United States is doomed to repeat disastrous policies in the Middle East

The Things that Make for Peace Jesse P. Nickel, 2021-02-08 This study offers fresh insight into the place of non violence within Jesus ministry by examining it in the context of the eschatologically motivated revolutionary violence of Second Temple Judaism The book first explores the connection between violence and eschatology in key literary and historical sources from Second Temple Judaism The heart of the study then focuses on demonstrating the thematic centrality of Jesus opposition to such eschatological violence within the Synoptic presentations of his ministry arguing that a proper understanding of eschatology and violence together enables appreciation of the full significance of Jesus consistent disassociation of revolutionary violence from his words and deeds The book thus articulates an understanding of Jesus nonviolence that is firmly rooted in the historical context of Second Temple Judaism presenting a challenge to the seditious Jesus hypothesis the claim that the historical Jesus was sympathetic to revolutionary ideals Jesus rejection of violence ought to be understood as an integral component of his eschatological vision embodying and enacting his understanding of i how God s kingdom would come and ii what would identify those who belonged to it
