Genocide Ewelina U. Ochab, David Alton, 2022-06-08 At the time of drafting the UN Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide the drafters were hopeful that the document will be the response needed to ensure that the world would never again witness such atrocities as committed by the Nazi regime While arguably there has been no such great loss of human lives as during WWII genocidal incidents have and still take place After WWII we have witnessed the genocides in Cambodia Rwanda Bosnia Darfur to name only a few The responses to these atrocities have always been inadequate Every time the world leaders would come together to renew their promise of Never Again However the promise has never materialised In 2014 Daesh unleashed genocide against religious minorities in Syria and Iraq Before the world managed to shake off from the atrocities in 2016 the Burmese military launched a genocidal campaign against the Rohingya Muslims in Myanmar This was followed by reports of ever growing atrocities against Christian minorities in Nigeria Without waiting too long in 2018 China proceeded with its genocidal campaign against the Uyghur Muslims In 2020 the Tigrayans became the victims of ethnic targeting Five cases of mass atrocities that in the space of just five years all easily meet the legal definition of genocide Again the response that followed each case has been inadequate and unable to make a difference to the targeted communities This legacy does not give much hope for the future The question that this book hopes to address is what needs to change to ensure that we are better equipped to address genocide and prevent the crime in the future

Jewish Responses to Persecution: 1944-1946 Leah Wolfson, 2015-08-13 Published in association with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum With its unique combination of primary sources and historical narrative Jewish Responses to Persecution 1944-1946 provides an important new perspective on Holocaust history Covering the final year of Nazi destruction and the immediate postwar years it traces the increasingly urgent Jewish struggle for survival which included armed resistance and organized escape attempts Shedding light on the personal and public lives of Jews this book provides compelling insights into a wide range of Jewish experiences during the Holocaust Jewish individuals and communities suffered through this devastating period and reflected on the Holocaust differently depending on their nationality personal and communal histories and traditions political beliefs economic situations and other life history The rich spectrum of primary source material collected including letters diary entries photographs transcripts of speeches and radio addresses newspaper articles drawings and official government and institutional memos and reports makes this volume an essential research tool and curriculum companion

Israel's Failed Response to the Armenian Genocide Israel W. Charney, 2021-04-27 When the Turkish government demanded the cancellation of all lectures on the Armenian Genocide at Israel's First International Conference on the Holocaust and Genocide and that

Armenian lecturers not be allowed to participate the Israeli government followed suit This book follows the author's gutsy campaign against his government and his quest to successfully hold the conference in the face of censorship A political whodunit based on previously secret Israel Foreign Ministry cables this book investigates Israel's overall tragically unjust relationship to genocides of other peoples The book also closely examines the figures of Elie Wiesel and Shimon Peres in their interference with the recognition of other peoples genocidal tragedies particularly the Armenian Genocide Additional chapters by three prominent leaders a fearless Turk who has paid a huge price in Turkish jails Ragip Zarakolu a renowned Armenian American who was one of the earliest writers on the Armenian Genocide Richard Hovannisian and a Jew who was responsible for the selection of all the materials in the pathbreaking U S Holocaust Museum in Washington Michael Berenbaum provide added perspectives

Hasidic Responses to the Holocaust in the Light of Hasidic Thought Pesach Schindler, 1990 Examines responses to the Holocaust of hasidic leaders and their followers during the war years in Europe Discovers a correlation between these responses and fundamental hasidic tenets dealing with God's relationship to man and to the Jewish people redemption and the messianic era Kiddush Hashem and Kiddush ha Hayyim the hasidic fraternal bond and the relationship between the hasid and the zadik or rebbe Hasidism offered a system of concepts that could be used to interpret the Holocaust and provided a social framework and leadership to articulate these concepts These may have served as shock absorbers for the hasidim facing the trauma of Holocaust events

Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty-First-Century French and Spanish Women's Writing Hannie Lawlor, 2024-08-28 Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty First Century French and Spanish Women's Writing offers new insight into what it means to write relational lives It broadens the parameters of existing discussions in terms of geography as well as genre drawing together two literatures whose prominence in life writing theory to date could hardly be more different while French women's writing has long been at the centre of international discussions of autobiography the relative invisibility of Spanish women's writing remains striking The dialogue that thus underpins this study between diverse twenty first century case studies and broader approaches to life writing shines a light on what is gained from inviting different voices into the discussion These narrative projects challenge longstanding critical assumptions in autobiography studies and trauma theory about how writers can and should represent the multiple perspectives that are at the heart of intergenerational stories In exploring the narrative solutions that these texts propose in response to the ethical questions they navigate this book shows that writing relational lives rests on far more than the mere recounting of a shared history Relating in these texts it proposes is an act embedded in the telling of the story It is a mode of testifying together to traumatic experience one that reveals a powerful preoccupation in contemporary women's life writing practice with making more audible the many voices and versions that go unheard

Contemporary Jewish Religious Responses to the Shoah Steven L. Jacobs, 1993-03-25 Contemporary scholars in all disciplines have long recognized that the Shoah is a critical challenge to Christianity and Western civilization as well as a watershed event in Jewish history Steven L Jacobs has completed two complementary works dealing with contemporary religious responses to the Shoah one from the Christian perspective the other from the Jewish perspective This work focuses on the Jewish responses to the holocaust Contents Judaism and Christianity after Auschwitz Steven L Jacobs In a World Without a Redeemer Redeem Michael Berenbaum Academia and the Holocaust Alan L Berger After Auschwitz and the Palestinian Uprising Marc H Ellis The Holocaust A Summing Up after Two Decades of Reflection Emil L Fackenheim Voluntary Covenant Irving Greenberg Auschwitz Re envisioning the Role of God Peter J Haas Why Bernard Maza Apocalyptic Rationality and the Shoah Richard L Rubenstein Between the Fires Arthur Waskow Fantasies of Witnessing Gary Weissman,2018-07-05 Fantasies of Witnessing explores how and why those deeply interested in the Holocaust yet with no direct familial connection to it endeavor to experience it vicariously through sites or texts designed to make it real for nonwitnesses Gary Weissman argues that far from overwhelming nonwitnesses with its magnitude of horror the Holocaust threatens to feel distant and unreal A prevailing rhetoric of secondary memory and trauma he contends and efforts to portray the Holocaust as an immediate and personal experience are responses to an encroaching sense of unreality In America we are haunted not by the traumatic impact of the Holocaust but by its absence When we take an interest in the Holocaust we are not overcoming a fearful aversion to its horror but endeavoring to actually feel the horror of what otherwise eludes us Weissman focuses on specific attempts to locate the Holocaust in the person of Elie Wiesel the most renowned survivor and his classic memoir Night in videotaped survivor stories and Lawrence L Langer s celebrated book Holocaust Testimonies and in the films Shoah and Schindler s List These representations he explains constitute a movement away from the view popularized by Wiesel that those who did not live through the Holocaust will never be able to grasp its horror and toward re creating the Holocaust as an experience nonwitnesses may put themselves through It is only by acknowledging the desire that gives shape to such representations and by exploring their place in the ongoing contest over who really knows the Holocaust and feels its horror that we can arrive at a more candid assessment of our current and future relationships to the Holocaust he says Response Theology John T. James PhD,2022-08-31 Science and Religion should never in be in conflict as Dr James a Ph D scientist and Christian mystic carefully demonstrates He employs many personal experiences in the science realm and in the Christian realm to show how the two are wonderfully complementary as long as each remains in their respective places Science is of the natural world and as Jesus declared his kingdom is not of the world it is a kingdom defined by Holy Spirit which he left for us in his absence The author uses many biblical passages to show that the core message of Christianity is to live a life of love for others despite the personal crosses life may hand you This he calls Response Theology He provides deeper insight into what love means for Christians In Greek the word for love in the New Testament is agape unconditional selfless sacrificial and in action love He takes the reader through a critical and well reasoned tour of areas in Christianity that need rethinking Is the Bible inerrant How can reason be applied to biblical interpretation Is God really omnipotent Did God specifically create you Is God good all the time How does Holy Spirit enter your heart How may we commit our lives to doing God's will What are the implications of believing that God is Agape Love as the apostle John wrote These are important areas of Christianity that require attention in a world filled with counterfeit Christianity

The Imperative of Response Robert Seitz Frey, Nancy Thompson-Frey, 1985 In the context of an account of the author's own conversion to Judaism as a result of study of the Holocaust discusses moral and theological problems arising from the Holocaust and the need for a reorientation of Christian and Western thought

Response to the Other Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2020-10-20 Human beings seek meaning and purpose To do so we tell stories about the past which we call history and stories about what will occur in the future constructed from memory and imagination History is not a subject we study but one we live History is our medium as water is to fish No period of antiquity is more informative and influential for Western civilization than the Greco Roman the period from the time of Alexander the Great to the fall of the Roman Empire an age that saw the emergence of Judaism and Christianity twin traditions shaped against the background of pagan dominance The meeting between Jew and Greek Christian and pagan revolutionized the ancient world It represented a crucial moment in the history of Western society when politics economics culture and religion took a new turn In time these separate streams mingled and merged forming the single and ever widening current that gave birth to modernity Moving against the stream of religious exclusivism this book does not seek to further the cause of one particular religious perspective but rather to gain insight on how ancient pagans Jews and Christians interacted with one another This study advances contemporary attempts at dialogue and cooperation enabling people of differing agendas to focus their energy on finding solutions to problems plaguing our planet Response to the Other has much to offer specialists and non specialists alike This work can be used as a study guide the questions at the end of each chapter suitable for individual or group use Writing and Rewriting the Holocaust James Edward Young,1988-10-22 A carefully prepared historiographical work interprets the meaning of Holocaust literature as it examines the perpetuation of Holocaust memory and understanding in several forms of media studied Includes an extensive bibliography of works Contemporary Orthodox Judaism's Response to

Between Cross and Resurrection Alan E. Lewis,2003-06-20 For much of Christian history the church has given no place to Holy Saturday in its liturgy or worship Yet the space dividing Calvary and the Garden may be the best place from which to reflect on the meaning of Christ s death and resurrection This superb work by the late Alan Lewis develops on a grand scale and in great detail a theology of Holy Saturday The first comprehensive theology of Holy Saturday ever written Between Cross and Resurrection shows that at the center of the biblical story and the church s creed lies a three day narrative Lewis explores the meaning of Holy Saturday the restless day of burial and waiting from the perspectives of narrative hearing the story doctrine thinking the story and ethics living the story Along the way he visits as many spiritual themes as possible in order to demonstrate the range of topics that take on fresh meaning when viewed from the vantage point of Holy Saturday Between Cross and Resurrection is not only incisive and elegantly written but it is also a uniquely moving work deeply rooted in Christian experience While writing this book Lewis experienced his own Holy Saturday in suffering from and finally succumbing to cancer He considered Between Cross and Resurrection to be the culmination of his life s work There are no Right Answers to Wrong Questions Peter C. Wilcox,2016-06-28 Abraham Joshua Heschel said that We are closer to God when we are asking questions than when we have the answers He believed that to be a Christian is not to be a person who knows all the answers but one who lives in the part of the self where the question is constantly being born Most of us don t think very much about our questions In our culture we are accustomed to being able to find out answers to nearly any question just by typing it into Google search or asking Siri But behind any answer there is always a question Sometimes the question isn t clear to us sometimes it is not very well articulated even to ourselves But it is always there In over thirty years as a psychotherapist and spiritual director Peter C Wilcox has seen how the questions people ask themselves have shaped their lives in some very important ways This book is an invitation to see how important it is to learn how to ask the right questions about our lives This is because our choice of questions leads us on a path of discovery towards answers that help us to grow spiritually and psychologically Our questions orient our lives and give direction to us We will see that they enable us to make fifteen choices that have a tremendous impact on the kind of person we become The Midrashic Impulse and the Contemporary Literary Response to Trauma Monica Osborne,2017-12-06 Since the end of World War II we have witnessed countless artistic responses to the Holocaust yet we remain unable to adequately address the atrocities While Theodor Adorno later rescinded his comments on the barbaric nature of writing poetry after Auschwitz The Midrashic Impulse and the Contemporary Literary Response to Trauma begins with the possibility that he was right that his admonition against poetry warns against employing representational modes that transgress the boundaries of the ethical when it comes to the Holocaust There is a language other than the language of representation with which we might speak authentically about such atrocities This study explores what it means for the world of literature to renounce the language of representation and retain the language of witness Drawing on the work of Emmanuel Levinas Maurice Blanchot Geoffrey Hartman and others the book focuses on the increasing tendency of contemporary writers to rely on non representational approaches to storytelling in the context of trauma This tendency is named the midrashic impulse given its similarity to ancient rabbinic approaches to the silences of the Hebrew bible through the creation of Midrash Marrying Outside Your Tradition Donna Schaper, 2023-06-01 As membership in traditional churches or religious institutions plummets the meaning of marriage is changing rapidly Interfaith marriages are on the rise creating new challenges from wedding planning to childraising People of faith are marrying nonreligious people Many question the institution of marriage itself At a time when those identifying as spiritual but not religious is on the rise Pastor Donna Schaper provides a roadmap to help readers to understand this continuing transition of marriage after both culture and religion are no longer of one voice about its meaning
