

The background of the cover is a soft-focus photograph of a woman with dark hair, wearing a dark top, sitting on the ground in a forest. She is holding an open book and looking down at it. The forest floor is covered with fallen leaves, and tall trees are visible in the background. The overall tone is peaceful and quiet.

Rest Area Alan Scott, 2012-01-19 A great deal has been written, discussed, and talked about children being molested, raped by others. But what about the person who has been falsely accused? What does he and his family go through? What does an apathetic town go through? How does a corrupt Administration and Board of Education do to hide when discovered? These and other questions are answered in REST AREA. Ed Hope is a dedicated and popular black teacher in a High School in Florida. He is also in a relationship with a male homicide detective. They are both bringing up Ed's two young children. One day Ed goes to school to find out he no longer has a job. When he questions his Principal and Supt. Of Schools, he is told that he has molested a white student. No formal charges. No hearings. Nothing. There is a Board of Education meeting where Ed is formally charged and before he can give his side to the public in the audience, cause a riot, causing Ed and his lover to hastily leave. When they get home, there are two policemen there to arrest ED. REST AREA contains the ordeal Ed Hope and his family go through and how a small group of students and adults, including one Board member, to his aid. It also brings to light the nonsense and corruption of a small school district and their plight to keep everything hidden.

How to Motivate Reluctant Learners (Mastering the Principles of Great Teaching series) Robyn R. Jackson, 2011-05-26 What we call motivation in school is really a decision students make to invest in our classrooms. It's our responsibility to show students the value of investment and guide them toward behaviors that will support learning. In this guide, Robyn R. Jackson takes you step by step through the process of motivating reluctant learners, what great teachers do instead of relying on elaborate rewards systems or creative tricks to reach students who actively or passively resist investing themselves in the classroom. Here you'll learn how to identify the classroom investments to ask for by considering the motivated behaviors you most want to see and ensuring that what you're asking for is specific, meaningful, observable, realistic, worth the effort, and small. Create a classroom worth investing in by removing demotivating practice and procedure-based barriers and giving students more opportunities for autonomy Understand and address students resistance and respond with instructional strategies that minimize perceived risk and maximize immediate benefits Ask for and shape an investment by reaching out to students in a nonconfrontational way and providing a clear path toward motivated behavior Create a motivation plan that s tailored to the students you teach and designed to be effective in the long run Note This product listing is for the Adobe Acrobat PDF version of the book
