Performing Autobiography Katrina M. Powell, 2021-06-14 Performing Auto biography Narrating a Life as Activism analyzes the rhetorical strategies employed in five authors' auto biographical texts examining their representations of identities and the public implications of writing individual identity. Exploring the ways race class culture ethnicity gender and sexuality might affect the forms in which writers choose to write e.g. memoir fictional autobiography poetry questions how autobiographers challenge notions of genre truth and representation. This builds on the argument that constructing identity is a Performing Autobiography performance one that can simultaneously use and subvert traditional notions of rhetoric and genre. By examining the auto biographical texts of Zora Neale Hurston Audre Lorde Dorothy Allison Joyce Johnson and Shirley Geok lin Lim together the book theorizes self representation and genres as rhetorical performances and therefore their texts can be seen as performative auto biography transgressive archives where readers are asked to consider their own identities and act accordingly. From Sin to Amazing Grace Patrick S. Cheng, 2012-03-01 Throughout the history of Christianity lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT or queer people have been condemned as unrepentant sinners who are in dire need of God's saving grace As a result of this condemnation LGBT people have been subjected to great spiritual emotional and physical abuse and violence This issue takes on a particular urgency in light of the ongoing harassment and bullying of LGBT young people by their classmates Cheng argues that people need to be liberated from the traditional legal model of thinking about sin and grace as a violation of divine and natural laws in which grace is understood as the strength to refrain from violating such laws Rather Cheng proposes a Christological model based upon the theologies of Irenaeus Bonaventure and Barth in which sin and grace are defined in terms of what God has done for us in Jesus Christ This book serves as a useful resource for all people who struggle to make sense of the traditional Christian doctrines of sin and grace in the context of the 21st century

Side by Side Andrew Gottlieb, 2014-04-04 How would you react if your brother or sister came out to you I m proud to have been the first to know My conservative upbringing contributed to the notion that John s behavior was sinful The first thought I had about it was that my brother had somehow been misdirected involving himself in the wrong crowd How could he be gay I was convinced we all had to help him overcome this problem I equated being gay with having a mental disorder and thought maybe we should send him to a therapist I love Beth very much I am proud of her thankful for her and can t imagine life without her In this first of its kind book Andrew Gottlieb the author of Out of the Twilight Fathers of Gay Men Speak and

Snow, 2013-04-15 Sometimes I fantasize about having a magic wand How awesome it would be to wave it and completely eliminate prejudice hate and ignorance Just imagine what it would be like to live in a world like that How It Feels to Have a Gay or Lesbian Parent A Book by Kids for Kids of All Ages gives voice to the thoughts feelings and experiences of children adolescents and young adults who have a gay or lesbian parent In their own words they talk openly and candidly about how and when they learned of their parent s sexual orientation and the effect it had on them and their families Their stories echo themes of prejudice and harassment conflict and confusion adaptation and adjustment and hope for tolerance and a family that can exist in harmony Because it s an issue for other people it becomes an issue for me I m angry about the way it works against me The stories told in How It Feels to Have a Gay or Lesbian Parent not only reflect the day to day struggle of children with a GLBT parent they also reveal the pain inherent in high conflict divorce and child custody cases Children of gay lesbian parents ranging in age from seven to 31 recall the confusion and grief created when the disclosure of their parent s true sexual orientation ended a marriage and divided a family The straight parent's resentment can lead to angry remarks that intentionally or unintentionally disparage the gay lesbian parent and threaten the natural love and affection the child feels for both I guess the hardest part about having a gay dad is that no matter how okay you are with it there's always going to be someone who will dislike you because of it The one on one interviews presented in How It Feels to Have a Gay or Lesbian Parent document first hand the effects of homophobia on family life Children struggle with the choice between living in a closet shamed by peers and family members or dealing with discrimination as a parent's sexual orientation is used against them Taken together these stories make a statement for acceptance understanding and tolerance as children do their best to make the transition from a traditional family to a nontraditional lifestyle My mom is a normal person just like everyone else The only thing that's different about her is that she's gay and if you can't deal with it you're just going to have to live with it How It Feels to Have a Gay or Lesbian Parent A Book by Kids for Kids of All Ages offers comfort and support to children from those who share their journey The book is a valuable aid for practitioners working with children of GLBT parents and an educational tool for GLBT adults considering children
