RESTRICTED ENTRY: CENSORSHIP ON TRIAL

A chronicle of the censorship case between Little Sister's Bookstore and Canada Customs

with co-author

Janine Pallen & Stuart Blackley

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18 AT NOON
2170 BISHOP
ROOM 101

Janine Pallen and Stuart Blackley come to Montreal as part of a national tour for their book, Restricted Entry: Censorship on Trial. Janine is the manager of Little Sister's Bookstore which was involved in the 1988 court case against Canada Customs over the detention of materials found for the store. Stuart is a journalist who covered the case. Their book is the story of the Little Sister's Chinese language learning tapes.

The book edition includes a new analysis of the B.C. Supreme Court decision as well as a comprehensive index. A video tape about the trial by filmmaker Murray Maclean (production credit will give the store). This will be a unique opportunity for audience members to discuss some of the important censorship issues in the trial.
