Building Type Basics for Retail and Mixed-Use Facilities Stephen A. Kliment, Vilma Barr, Jerde Partnership International, 2004-01-07 Publisher description Visual Merchandising Louisa Iarocci, 2017-07-05 Situated at the crossroads of visual culture and consumerism this essay collection examines visual merchandising as both a business and an art It seeks to challenge that scholarly ambivalence that often celebrates the spectacle but denies the agenda of consumerism The volume considers strategies in the imaging of selling from the mid nineteenth century to the present in terms of the visual interaction that occurs between the commodity and the consumer and between body and space Under the categories of Promotion Product and Place contributors to the volume examine the strategies in the presentation of retail goods and environments that range from print advertising to product design to store display and architecture Visual Merchandising The Image of Selling is located directly at the nexus of business practice and cultural myth where the spectator never loses sight of their status as buyer and the object of desire is always still a commodity      Boutiques and Other Retail Spaces David Vernet, Leontine de Wit, 2007-08-17 Presenting a critical and theoretical dimension to retail design Boutiques and Other Retail Spaces links the ideas behind it to real practice in this innovative and important contribution to architectural interior theory literature Retail structure has been subject to a dramatic and ongoing transformation over the past thirty years materializing in the emergence of large scale out of town shopping centres and new specialized shops in city centres These specialized boutiques are highly designed involving well known architectural firms such as OMA Rem Koolhaas David Chipperfield Herzog de Meuron amongst others With case studies and over 100 black and white images Vernet and de Wit set forth original and well grounded theory to accompany this popular and lucrative area of work      Basic Information Sources on Store Arrangement and Display, 1954      New York Magazine, 1992-08-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea      Stores of the Year No. 15 Martin M. Pegler, 2005-11-22 The stores in this book vary in merchandise sold target customer price points type of space and location Showcased are flagships prototypes free standing satellites vendor shops and more With more than 250 full color photos Stores of the Year No 15 shows you how top professionals in the fields of design architecture lighting and fixtures turn spaces into marketplaces Famous designers and newcomers alike reveal new solutions to the complex problems of retail design and visual merchandising Illustrated are the elements of good store design architecture fixturing lighting and merchandise presentation      Store Arrangement and Display United States. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, 1949      The Women Who Professionalized Interior Design Peter Dedek, 2022-03-10 The Women Who Professionalized Interior Design explores the history of interior decorating and design from the late nineteenth century to the present highlighting the careers and contributions of significant American female interior designers who were instrumental in the creation of the field of residential and commercial interior design in the United States This book explores how interior design emerged as a distinct paying occupation in the nineteenth century thanks to a growing middle class and an increase in available cheap household goods following the Industrial Revolution Focusing primarily on the period from 1905 to 1960 it addresses the complex relationships among professionals in the design fields the social dynamics of designer client relationships and how class culture and family influenced their lives and careers The book emphasizes significant female interior decorators and writers on design including Candace Wheeler Elsie de Wolfe Edith Wharton Nancy McClelland Ruby Ross Wood Dorothy Draper Eleanor McMillen Brown and Sister Parish all of whom are underrepresented in the historical record relating their stories within the context of the history of design and architecture This book is an ideal and concise resource for students and faculty of interior design and women s history      Shops & Stores Morris Ketchum (Jr.),1957

The Professionalization of Window Display in Britain, 1919-1939 Kerry Meakin,2024-09-05 This book provides the first comprehensive history of window display as a practice and profession in Britain during the dynamic period of 1919 to 1939 In recent decades the disciplines of retail history business history design and cultural history have contributed to the study of department stores and other types of shops However these studies have only made passing references to window display and its role in retail society and culture Kerry Meakin investigates the conditions that enabled window display to become a professional practice during the interwar period exploring the shift in display styles developments within education and training and the international influence on methods and techniques Piecing together the evidence visual and written about people events organisations exhibitions and debates Meakin provides a critical examination of this vital period of design history highlighting major display designers and artists The book reveals the modernist aesthetic developments that influenced high street displays and how they introduced passers by to modern art movements      Designed to Sell

Alessandra Wood,2020-02-28 Designed to Sell presents an engaging account of mid twentieth century department store design and display in America from the 1930s to the 1960s It traces the development of postwar philosophies of retail design that embodied aesthetics and function and new modes of merchandise display resulting in the emergence of a new type of industrial designer The evolution of aesthetics in department stores during this period reflected larger cultural shifts in consumer behaviour and lifestyle Designed to Sell explores these changes using five key case studies and original archival sources to reveal the link between designers and consumption beyond the design of individual objects It argues that design is not simply connected to retail consumption but that it is capable of controlling how and where customers shop and what they are drawn to purchase This book contextualises this discussion and brings it up to date for students and scholars interested in design retail and interior history      Visual Merchandising and Display Martin M. Pegler,Anne Kong,2018-02-22 Revised edition of Visual merchandising and display c2012
