Rethinking Religion Exploratory Investigations Atf Series:

The Future of Christianity John Stenhouse, Brett Knowles, Antony Wood, 2004 This book written by a group of New Zealand scholars theologians historians and lawyers examines the question of New Zealand's Western culture and Christianity The contributors explore recent debates over secularisation exploring its merits and explanatory power while also showing its limitations

Wisdom for Life Michael Andrew Kelly, Mark A. O'Brien, 2005 This volume draws on scholars from a variety of theological disciplines scripture history systematic theology The essays are designed to encourage readers to become more critically reflective as they engage with biblical texts and contemporary concerns

Church and Civil Society Sue Leppert, Francis Sullivan, 2004 This collection of essays examines the relationship between theology church state politics and civil society

God Down Under Winifred Wing Han Lamb, 2003 The papers in this volume of essays arose out of a lively conversation involving theologians religious leaders biblical scholars historians philosophers ethicists youth workers poets and welfare activists in Canberra in 2000

Faith and Freedom David Neville, Philip Matthews, 2003 Australian Christians like Christians in many societies live in a pluralistic culture This makes the issues of faith freedom and their interrelationship all the more critical In a pluralist context Christian faith and freedom must be expressed and embodied in a coherent rather than discordant way The authors of these reflections on key ethical concerns represent the Anabaptist Anglican Baptist Lutheran Methodist Presbyterian Roman Catholic and Uniting Church traditions yet there is a harmony within this plurality of theological and ecclesiological voices Contributors include John Howard Yoder Charles Birch Stanley Hauerwas and Thorwald Lorenzen

Christianity, Modernity and Culture John Stenhouse, G. A. Wood, 2005 For much of the twentieth century New Zealand historians like most Western scholars largely took it for granted that as modernity waxed religion would wane Secularization the fading into insignificance of religion would distinguish the modern era from previous ages Until the 1980s only a handful of scholars around the world raised serious empirical and theoretical questions about a Grand Theory that had become central to the self understanding of the social sciences and of the modern world Heated debates since then and the unmistakable resurgence of world religions have raised fundamental questions about the empirical and theoretical adequacy of secularization theory and especially about how far it applies outside Europe This volume revisits New Zealand history when secularization is no longer taken for granted as the Only Big Story that illuminates the country's social and cultural history Contributors explore how New Zealanders diverse religious and spiritual traditions have shaped practical everyday concerns in politics racial and ethnic relations science the environment family life gender relations and other domains

Hope Christiaan Mostert, 2004 Our age is not one of great hope war and terror continue unabated Despair lies hidden just below the preoccupations of daily life and is starkly visible at many points in today's world Directly or indirectly the contributors to this volume seek to challenge the culture of despair These authors theologians and leaders write about hope its ground its shape in the Bible and its expression in Christian life and worship mission and ministry The book challenges the church as much as the culture Do Christians know the ground of their hope Is the church the bearer of hope Does its worship sustain hope The contributors include biblical scholars historians systematic and pastoral theologians The Bible and the Business of Life Simon Carey Holt, Gordon R. Preece, 2004 The Bible and the Business of Life is an anthology of essays by a variety of authors celebrating the 65th birthday of Robert Banks Robert Banks was an Baptist who worked and taught in the USA in Pasadena and in Melbourne Spirit of Australia II Philip J. Hughes, Brian Howe, Philip Hughes, 2003 The second volume of essays to mark the centenary of federation in Australia and examines the issue of religion in society and culture Religious Studies Gregory D. Alles, 2010-03 Drawing on recent developments in the comparative study of religion this book explores the trends of the past sixty years from a global perspective Each of the ten chapters covers the study of religion in a different region of the world from Europe and the Americas to Asia and the Far East Topics covered include local background to the study of religions formation of religious studies in the region important thinkers and writings institutions interregional diversity and interregional connections emerging issues This book is a major contribution to the field of religious studies and a valuable reference for scholars researchers and graduate students

Routledge Revivals: The Challenge of Islam (2005) Douglas Pratt, 2016-10-04 First published in 2005 this book addresses the challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter and attempts to enable outsiders to understand the religion of Islam The author offers distinctive perspectives that compliment much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the west The book is divided into three parts Part I constitutes an introduction to Islam Part II delves into aspects of the wider encounter with Islam and Part III explores issues in regard to the prospect of engaging in dialogue with Islam The author argues that in the post 9 11 world the imperative to understand and engage with Islam is urgent and intends this work to assist the reader in doing so International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity The Relationship of Philosophy to Religion Today Paolo Diego Bubbio, Philip Andrew Quadrio, 2011-01-18 The Relationship of Philosophy to Religion Today is a collection of texts authored by philosophers with an interest in contemporary philosophy of religion its merits and its limitations The collection has been stimulated by such questions as What ought philosophy of religion be and How ought philosophy relate to religion today In pursuing such questions the editors have asked the contributors to offer their insights and reflections on issues that they see as important to contemporary philosophy of religion with the goal of producing a collection of texts offering the reader a variety of perspectives without privileging any particular philosophical religious or irreligious orientation The book covers such themes as the relationship between religion and modernity faith in keeping with reason contemplation the merits and limitations of the atheism and the relationship between philosophy religion and politics Rethinking Religion Douglas Pratt, 2003 Religion is an exciting field of study It invites an ongoing work of interpretation and reinterpretation thinking and rethinking This book includes a range of religious studies interreligious dialogue and philosophical theological topics that will be of interest to a wide diversity of readers The Challenge of Islam Douglas Pratt, 2005 Addressing challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter this book engages with the primary challenge enabling outsiders to understand the religion of Islam Douglas Pratt offers distinctive perspectives that complement much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular of Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the West Whilst in recent years there have been many introductions to Islam a book that combines introductory material with issues of the relationship of Islam to Christianity and Judaism and issues of dialogical engagement is rare and offers an important complementary perspective to other texts Jacket Missionalia , 2008 The New Interpreter's Study Bible Walter J. Harrelson, 2003 In a new study Bible based on The New Revised Standard Version with Apocrypha 60 scholars provide background and insight on the biblical text in a book that features extensive historical and theological annotations brief introductions and outlines for each biblical book 19 newly commissioned historical maps and more Women in Culture and Church and Other Issues Randall Prior, 2006 This volume of essays women and culture and the in Vanuatu Many of the article come from final year candidates for ministry and so constitute the thinking of future leaders in the church
