Rethinking Geopolitics:

Rethinking Geopolitics Simon Dalby, Gearóid Ó Tuathail, 2002-01-22 Rethinking Geopolitics argues that the concept of geopolitics needs to be conceptualised anew as the twenty first century approaches Challenging conventional geopolitical assumptions contributors explore theories of post modern geopolitics historical formulations of states and cold wars the geopolitics of the Holocaust the gendered dimension of Kurdish insurgency the cold war world political cartoons concerning Bosnia Time magazine representations of the Persian Gulf the Zapatistas and the Chiapas revolt the new cyber politics conflict simulations in the US military the emergence of a new geopolitics of global security Exploring how popular cultural assumptions about geography and politics constitute the discourses of contemporary violence and political economy Rethinking Geopolitics shows that we must rethink the struggle for knowledge space and power Rethinking Geopolitics Simon Dalby, Gearóid Ó Tuathail, 1998 Argues that we must rethink the struggle for knowledge space and power and that the concept of geopolitics needs to be reconceptualized for the twenty first century Rethinking Geopolitics Jeremy Black, 2024-07-02 Amid the bloody Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2021 and the escalating tensions across the Taiwan Strait the geopolitical balance of power has changed significantly in a very short period If current trends continue we may be witnessing a tectonic realignment unseen in more than a century In 1904 Halford Mackinder delivered a seminal lecture entitled The Geographical Pivot of History to a packed house at the Royal Geographical Society in London about the historic changes then taking place on the world stage Britain was the great power of that historical moment but its political military and economic primacy was under serious challenge from the United States Germany and Russia Mackinder predicted that the heartland of Eastern Europe held the key to global hegemony and that the struggle for control over this region would be the next great conflict Ten years later when an assassin's bullet in Sarajevo launched the world into a calamitous war Mackinder's analysis proved prescient As esteemed historian Jeremy Black argues in this timely new volume the 2020s may be history's next great pivot point The continued volatility of the global system in the wake of a deadly pandemic exacerbates these pressures At the same time the American public remains divided by the question of engagement with the outside world testing the limits of US postwar hegemony The time has come for a reconsideration of the 120 years from Mackinder's lecture to now as well as geopolitics of the present and of the future The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Political Geography John A.
